Greetings, this will give some tips on how to increase the power of the RTRs. The RTRs methods below can be done and some facts have to be understood, that by themselves will make everyone understand better how we can advance better through the RTRs. Some things are psychological, others are spiritual, and lastly some are mental, because indeed the mentality is important when approaching the RTRs. This is working on understanding, raw power, and also the resolve, all of which are important to empower the general effort that we all are partaking in.

As I have written before you can do some things to empower the RTRs:

1. Do the RTRs at the height of your meditations. This is self-explanatory. As you are charged from meditation, you can discharge any energy that would make you sleepless or jittery by doing an RTR. This will also decrease any drawback and minimize the ability of the enemy to fight back.

2. Get in the mood. You need to understand that when you do the RTRs, that you are performing very powerful rituals. In other words, you are striking the enemy at the heart and there is not much they can do about it as they are heavily dependent on these rituals. So when you perform them, they are highly damaging. One must remember this. This is psychological but affects your workings.

3. The easiest way to increase the power of RTRs is to do more RTRs. But this is not the only way, if you follow steps here and do this just once by "getting in the zone" one RTR can count as more than one as well. One must not go extremely overboard to where they feel exhausted. as exhaustion is not our aim. Just pleasantly empowered, and one can keep doing RTRs for so long they feel comfortable, and maybe push a bit more, but never going past exhaustion.

4. Follow the schedule. The schedule is put up there for a reason so that our forces are not scattered, and are focused like a laser. This is where most impact is dealt.

5. Use primers. The Shema RTR acts a primer. Think of it like severing the connection of the Jew to their protection matrix, and then, you can strike. A powerful combo of RTRs would be The Shema, then the 42, then the 72, and then the Demonic Authority. The first removes their link to their thoughtforms matrix, the second mutes them from asking for help, the 72 does a disaster everywhere and literally destroys the Jewish soul directly, while the Demonic Authority empowers our side (and the negative forces for Jews), wrecking them completely. This is only one example.

6. Use other types of primers. One example is getting into the proper mindset. For example, getting in a good trance like state. Another example is using the Akasha as a primer if you know how to do this. One other powerful thing you can do is visualization. I will write a more specific thing in the nearby future on what visualizations are proper to supercharge the RTRs, for each specific RTR, based on reversing what the enemy is doing.

7. Discharge your negative emotions. The enemy is responsible on the highest levels for most of the world's problems, and this is because they have cut the spiritual knowledge from mankind- things can only escalate into a disaster after this crime, creating multitudes of smaller problems, for every person. Literally if someone wasn't given the spiritual knowledge, one would die and dissipate, or at least, never have the keys to their inner self. When people find spiritual knowledge that is proper like here, many problems start to give in and one starts to rise above.

There is no good will to the enemy, and there is nothing positive about them, they deserve this spiritual war and punishment fully. Unlike the enemy who doesn't have any serious reasons, we have many reasons, thousands of years of actual dead people, dead nations, and reasons, to fight. When one is pissed off, one can discharge to the enemy. Rage matters. There is a strong energy in feeling you have been done wrong, especially when it is true and just and this follows a realistic pattern. The enemy doesn't have this and they try to generate this by pseudo-history on events that never happened, so they are weak.

But we have this anger and need for justice that aligns with the truth. It's not imagination that tens of millions of White people died in World War 2, nor there is speculation if the wars of the Abrahamic egotistical brother wars of Xianity have wiped out half of Europe more than once. There is also no question on the consistent civil wars in Africa due to Xianity and Pisslam, nor in the closely one 100 millions of people wiped out by the communist Kike Mao Zedong. However, the Jews have never had any casualties really as a race. There is pain that can be turned into resolve. On their side there is nothing. These forces can be used for our benefit and as a reminder.

8. Do not worry. The rules that apply to personal workings do not really apply directly to the work we are doing. So even if you lack somewhere, that's fine. It still completely works. However, if you are masterful and proficient, this increases the force of the whole working, no doubt about this.

9. RTRs are training you and are empowering you. Many people don't understand. That the RTRs are training. We are doing some lifting here to get gains. This is one reason we must learn to do these rituals and learn to cleanse issues from the face of the planet such as injustice, the thieving of nations etc. There are higher reasons to this, which we will need through our future and existence. We must partake in this to advance ourselves and our ability to put forth our intentions to the world.

10. The RTRs are the easiest way to take down the enemy, and the FASTEST. If you are concerned about speed, then do the RTRs... There were possibly other ways to take the enemy down, but this can't happen, because they would take possibly hundreds of years and/or would not be applicable at all at this point. They would take probably at least many multiples of times the time of the RTRs and they would probably not be enough to defeat the war against time that exists. The RTRs also disarm and destroy the enemy by their own hand, making this even faster. RTRs are like nukes compared to many other methods.

11. DO NOT HESITATE. When you have some time to do the RTR, just get there and do it. It doesn't take much time. The time for some RTRs is laughable, it can be around 10 minutes or less. In the proper mindset one also doesn't even understand the passing time.

12. Do not buy into enemy crap. The reality is that the RTRs are more like sniping the enemy with snipers from a full blown fortress. The Gods are protective and they ensure the success of the workings. It's pointless for anyone to believe that the enemy could stop this or do otherwise. They clearly can't.

13. Most importantly...We don't have the luxury to just don't give a fuck, wait, and sit by the side to not fight the enemy and constantly expose them. Unfortunately, there is no time to not care, to not fight, and now that the enemy is going down, we must force the situations as much as possible.

14. The opportunity to win against the enemy exists only now - winning or losing implies that this war will be over- so the souls who have gained experience and power from fighting now, if they do not help in the effort, they will never have the opportunity to do so again. This is self-explanatory. This can be for better, or for worse. Understand that there are not parallel universes with more chances. It's either won or it's lost in the deep end of it.

15. The RTRs are cleaning the world. Except of issues such as the large spectrum of things, the RTRs can stop potentially dangerous issues. One example is criminal rings and other issues. If anyone has studied anything about crime-lords and criminality, it's of no need to repeat ourselves on which members of one very specific race are running most of this anyway.

In one book I was reading [I believe it was named "Gangs"], one Jewish major drug lord in Britain, was literally living by the cops and nobody figured them out for tens of years. He was never busted. If the RTRs were being done, this wouldn't be his fate, he would be rotting behind bars for it. He "outsmarted" geniuses in the police forces. But how? Because other Rabbis do all sorts of protections for their own. The RTRs put a dead end to this, and bring these criminal infestations to justice, because they have no spiritual backup to pull their crap.

16. Lastly - look at our victories. In the span of a few years, a populace largely asleep to the Jews and that problem, has now become so mainstream the enemy is in global paranoia breakdown. This must be kept up until every single person of the planet knows about them. As the Jews advance their agenda, with the RTRs, they will fail, get revealed, and in the end, at the climax of awakening people will put them in the place they deserve. The enemy is universally hated for good reasons...
