

The Ancient Financial System Explained

If you take close attention to the Dollar bill, it says, "In God We Trust". However, behind this what the bills are, are bonds and insurances for what one owns, a means through which people exchange services. Due to people putting their TRUST in jews, which is the point of the Christian and other programs, people are also unconsciously giving their money to the jews. Which is not abnormal at all, as they consider that the dreams of the jews that they have accepted, are worthy of a manifestation.

Which is the basis of the banking institution? The banking institution is based on the factor of TRUST. You trust the banks to keep your wealth so that it's not robbed, and so they use this wealth for themselves while keeping it to gain profit. This is the 'insurance' of your wealth. So, someone simply based on trust is keeping your money in the bank. But how is TRUST created?

The jew who is a well-known usurer asked for the wealth of the nations, which they of course did not give them, and for that reason, they were kicked out of Babylon and basically every other Gentile civilization. The jew is a species that has never plowed the field or ever worked for wealth, they simply tailed other civilizations that have done such, and demanded to steal their wealth. For this they were distrusted, looked upon as criminals, hated worldwide, and they were chased away.

The jews had to come up with something to do what they say is their racial purpose in the torah, to steal the wealth of the nations, and permanently enslave the goyim. So they had to begin from somewhere. They pinpointed the issue was the religion or the spiritual faith of their enemies, which alerted them spiritually to issues such as the jewish one, and kept their societies coherent and mostly racial. This was the large barrier the enemy had to take down in order to get in these civilizations. So, they worked tirelessly as a race for centuries for this.

Nowadays, this cocoon of protection is called Satanism and everyone is told how bad it is. Because the lord of 'good' today is the jew, and to prevent them from doing what they like is the big 'nono' in this civilization. Back then, it was the Serpent Faith. The natural religion of humanity.

Ultimately, at some point they created christianity and other similar mushroom faiths to forcibly cause a revolution of values in their host society. The beggars, the meek, the stupid, the lazy, and the assholes, were now the same and equal with the people who spent their whole lifetime advancing a whole. The jew from nothing became 'equal' to the others, such as the equal citizenship in Rome and Paul of Tarsus the juden. And after this equality they worked their way up gradually in the strata of society.

However, later with brainwashing and spiritual hoaxes, they made people "Trust" them. The bonds of trust didn't take a lot of time for the people to trust the money to the banks. As a physical representation of the labor of society, entrusted in the jewish hands. The jews used this as they made the idiotic people trust them, as their new savior was now a rabbi from the Levant, namely the hoax of Jesus Christ.

So you can have your banking notes as an external representation of this 'trust' in this system. One Trusts in this system, so they use the money as a representation of these bonds of trust within society. You are essentially partaking in a system which is built on trust. When the people trust the Rabbi for their destiny, it's not far off that people will be swindled materially as well by the same rabbi. Which is how the banking dynasties basically enslaved the world. Then we have robbery and usury as the jews are not part of this world, nor this civilization, and the economy is used as a weapon to subvert people and put them under strict control. Money is essentially something empty, it is just meant to represent and count the factor of trust and building power in a society. But the MEANS of continuing quickly became the means to define reality itself. The financial situation of people is an impediment in their karmic and dharmic process, as most of the world is poor, while 2000 people on the planet own more than 80 percent of the world's total wealth.

In Ancient Greece the currency was called Drakhma, which is borrowed from the Sanskrit Drama, the same word for currency. This is the word for financial currency. It's obviously related to the concept of Dharma, only again, being a soft anagram. Which reveals the ancient understanding about wealth. It's related to the Dharmic process.

The reason there are very wealthy people is, primordially, because some people are way better in financial management for a civilization compared to other people. One example is how people waste money mindlessly, while others build long term structures. Those who have the most long term understanding, knowledge and visions for a civilization, are entitled to riches so they produce a better environment for other people. Which is something the average joe could never do. Even if we gave all of our wealth to let's say a retarded person, this would never happen.

So instead people decide to give their wealth to whom they believe is the best civilization builder. While not always the case, the cover of demands and the fixing of social problems creates riches because of the same reason. The reason wealthy people exist and should exist is to build structures and the world for other people, and direct the creative process towards what is best for everyone. Which is exactly what rich people do not do anymore, because they don't care about their own Dharma or the Dharmic process for the world at all.

Instead they simply lavish on Samsaric personal material desires. Part of the above is to give to 'charity', which has been corrupted into nonsense. The meaning of charity is to teach and provide things to people less able to provide. One is a symbol for a God of wealth and like a doctor gives health, these "rich" people should create to generate public wealth. However, this has never been the case for thousands of years. They just hoard all of it without putting it to proper use.

You can see why none of the above exist, this is because the enemy is in the hands of the planet right now. This creates a war between the wealthy and the poor. Because the wealthy are in full against the poor and only seek ways to enslave them. Slavery still exists in different forms.

In a civilization without enemies in it, the transfer of money has a very different character. The wealthy people are the people who have the mind to create for a civilization, things that everyone can lavish. These are your 'billionaires' of the Ancient times, and this is why you see the concentration of wealth on the hieratic caste and the kingly or aristocratic caste, because they truly did things for the world. Or you wouldn't have hospitals, libraries, and the most advanced civilization in Egypt, etc.

The jew got into these civilizations, ripped them off like a butterfly from a cocoon, and gave the pieces to the cannibal races. To the point even the pyramids have externally collapsed. This is because the lazy and the useless conspire with the jew, and the jew promises them a fraction of what they themselves will steal. The jew uses them as cannon fodder and useful parasites, and rips down a civilization, while stealing all the wealth. As he steals the wealth, he applies it for more parasites, more cannon fodder, and more protection for itself, until the civilization is collapsed. Then they move to another one and repeat the same process.

The jew claims to be very generous and that all that is being done is done to create... The Messianic Government... For erm... Themselves. Which is a global plantation of endless goyim who are forced to serve the jew for life. Led by an imaginary perfect jewish Rabbi on the top that will break the nations of the world like 'pots' with his 'iron rod'. Basically, the massive stupidity of humanity is to the point they are TOLD they are going to get killed, and they still just fall on their knees to praise Rabbi Yeshua for his 'return'.

As for the ancient kings and priesthood. The idea here is that these castes are fully spiritual and do not care so much about the Samsaric process, but rather use wealth as a tool for creation for those below. Now all such so called 'priesthoods' and 'kings' of the world are just corrupt fat imbeciles and stupid filthy garbage. Execution was the "price to pay" for mismanagement of public wealth. Nowadays, the jews just steal in front of the goyim and the goyim doesn't even react. Cause Rabbi Jesus will send it to hell, lul.

So the so-called 'authorities' now they just snatch wealth to eat cause they are hungry kikes and goyim. Their flesh is rotting and they are old, but they want to keep up their filthy lifestyle, which they consider an important enough reason to exterminate millions below them just to maintain. It doesn't matter how many people go down; it all has to do with how they live. It's well known world politics only scarcely have to do with the fate of the nations anymore, it has to do with who pockets what. They do not have any inner quality to follow through and actually do something valuable for the world.

However, the imprint to help these castes still exists in mankind and people still hoped that they would do great. But in the last thousand years these beings are jewish and they have a very specific agenda for the world. Things aren't going to improve. Which is exactly what is happening now.

By our changes gradually the financial relations on this globe will heal. However, such reform can never happen if a strong reform doesn't happen on the factor of TRUST. People must understand who to trust and who not to trust. If you trust rabbi Shekelstein who reads the Torah 24/7 and tells you in your face that he will 'dash your infants against the stone', and that 'when the messiah comes every jew will have 2800 slaves', then your infants will be dashed on the stone, and you will be a slave.

If you trust in the Gods, then be prepared for civilizations such as Egypt where kids were walking around with huge necklaces of stone and where there wasn't one hungry person no matter where you looked. Hitler's Germany was a manifestation of the ideas of the Gods about finances. Nobody poor, and nobody poor enough so that their Dharmic process is prevented and that they cannot advance as a result of usury and their fate stolen from usurious bastards.
