The creator of the JoS organization was originally a Traditional Satanist. She wasn't aware of Satan or the Demons having any Pagan origins and she wasn't red-pilled about the jews, she didn't hate them. One day, she asked Satan who he is, and he embarked in a whole journey where he disclosed to her his true origins, the origins of the Demons and how jews are the enemies of the human race. Up until 2004, the JoS didn't see the jews as a race as enemies, only the jewish religion as one of the Abrahamic lies.

So when you consider the JoS history in context, it all makes sense. The JoS wasn't created by an edgy Pagan Nazi who used names like Satan and Demons for shock value, but by a Traditional non-Nazi Satanist who later discovered the origins of Satan and the Demons and was red-pilled by Satan and the Demons on Jews.

HPS Maxine was outside of the factions of the so-called "National Socialism" in the strict sense despite of her understanding the values of race early on. The clearer articulation of these ideas arrived after years of extensive study, meditation, and communication with the Gods.

The recognition of certain rules and regulations that unfortunately in the Western Mind only register as "National Socialist" [due to lack of other examples] are actually verbatim laws of managing life that were practiced in many Ancient Civilizations.

It's not the Nazis that invented you must take care of your race, it was common sense. Spartans practiced it, Chinese practiced this, Mesoamericans did and everyone else. Yet as many people completely lack knowledge, everything related to these points brings up programmed unease.

While we don't feel uneasy we can only plow a field at specific dates and times because we should "best" follow natural law, we have been programmed to recoil from many other natural laws and their effects. In a hundred years this will be common knowledge, like the fact that the sun exists and we must work around this is common knowledge.

Still, the Joy of Satan is firm but continuing and I am doing my work in restoring on the path that the Gods indicate to us. That's why the clarity of the links between our Gods and the Pagan Gods, despite of being evident, arrives in steps.

A large awakening in both knowledge and information occurred after 2000, up to today, and this knowledge is cumulating and arriving to us in intervals. With all the information hidden, kept down, submerged and constantly besieged, we are now on a level of "enough" knowledge to proceed step by step.

The Joy of Satan is not a political party. It's a Spiritual Organization that is above politics, vested with the mission and focused to awaken humanity to higher spiritual understanding, standards and to present a higher reality so that we can eventually transition ourselves to a higher state of consciousness. We want to restore everything from the past and give it publicly available for humanity.

JoS was not borne out of hate and nobody specifically chose to hate the jews. The Jewish situation arose later as it did arise for Henry Ford well after he established himself as a great genius in the land of automobiles, as the jews appeared like ghouls of a higher echelon to start doing things and could be seen as manipulators of society and the societal destiny of the Western people, whom the jews name as "Esau and Amalek".

The reason jews do this is because they believe "God has instructed them" to smite and destroy these people, which is something that was a "fully unknown conspiracy" until recently where now everyone knows this exists.

Jews made up that lie so that they can easily accuse anyone of disliking them for no "reason", reason which being is that they are one of the power blocks of this world that runs a very aeons-long conspiracy, of all places in front of the eyes of all human beings on earth.

The Pagan Gods clearly have been attempted to be displaced and have been subjected to endless slander and removal by the jewish people and their fairytales, which the world has falsely accepted as being "testament" on anything else besides the selective psychopathy of the jewish people.

Despite of being the lowest people on earth compared to the Japanese, the Hindus, The Greeks, the Europeans, or basically everyone else, jews managed to uphold a very specific mission borned out of sheer hate against others. Nietzsche has went into great depth on the psycho-pathologies of the jews, which have to do with the subterranean hate being left unaddressed for centuries and not only allowed to ferment against all people, but certainly taking the way against and opposed to anything like forgiveness and spiritual healing.

The reality remains however that the jews, especially when one makes research, have done a centuries upon centuries-old warfare against us, our religious tenets, and what they refer to as the "Satanic Side", which means that no progress and no restoration can happen unless a brutal war of information and powerful defense occurs to defend this Truth that they also "happen" to have been eradicating over and over again for centuries.

To give context, the "beginner" level knowledge about Egypt being anything else than dust, begins in around 1750, after massive "Dark Ages" coverups, coverups that deal with our past and history. The old Freemasons played a large role in the restoration of the real Ancient Greek, Mesopotamian and Egyptian origin discovery of our world history. India is close next up.

To further reveal the full facts about jews so that people actually start seeing the matter for what it is. Overt-mystification of the jew has resulted out of great incompetence of Gentiles with no spiritual exposure, which was systematically imposed upon the "Goyim" or the "Heathen Nations" by the jews, so they simply have a competitive edge against us.

The "Old Testament" is nothing but a book celebrating genocides, casting down the "Demons", and essentially just cultural warfare. Somehow, jews have through manipulation and creating cultural gaps in the Civilizations of Gentiles [these gaps occur on societal downfalls], they "convinced" people that this hebrew nonsense was their "Culture". To carefully fabricate it, it was only a copy of already existing cultures, which Gentiles were not aware of in late history of being the case.

Old Testament is simply that: How jews entered a land that helped them, gave them work etc, how they carefully worked to upset this land and to deceive the locals to get into positions of power, how this power was then used to take down these lands while stealing the maximum spiritual and material loot for the "jewish people", and then how they pretended they were innocent despite of admitting they did literally that which they branded to as "God's plan".

Then invent fake causes that people were "against God" for defending themselves in any level of that plan, and celebrate when if you leave everything is in ruins and everyone died. Reasons for this? Unknown, just remorseless hatred.

Such approach to life is nothing different from many desert dwelling worthless tribes who took a wrong turn in the Ancient times, yet in the case of the jews they managed to actually succeed better at establishing the invader tactic. That's the epitome of what racial science refers to as "Dysgenics".

While many think that this is a grandiose plan, it's actually more focused on merely them forcing themselves into a rule, as they constantly maintain paleolithic hatred against Gentiles whom they have formed a culture around executing and maybe even genocide.

Their primary objectives are cashing in the money of Gentiles, mastering parasitism and confusion as a race, mindwashing Gentiles to serve the agenda of their own destruction, and trying to cloak themselves from being discovered until they succeed. Even the jews have no idea where any of this leads but as long it fills their worthless desert tummy, which was empty because they never took a shovel to build anything, that is fine.

The accurate name of the Jew is not a Jew, it is Yehudim, as they refer themselves to themselves. The "Jew" is a stolen title to hide behind like many other titles they have given themselves. So technically that's a nasty tribe from the Middle East that just did strike bad bargains and was a master at thievery and usury, that also took mid-range spiritual weaponry to use against it's host Nations and unsuspecting people, towards whom it had sheer jealousy and resentment for being far greater than they.

As they had no state and were stateless, and even less productive and most lazy, but over the years and centuries their "Religion" made them accumulate a gathering of schizophrenics, sociopaths, psychopaths, OCD, thieves, overly arrogant desertmen that believed they deserved the loot without giving nothing in return, people with uncontrollable hatred, and mindwashed them for centuries to become aggressors and destroyers, severe persecution complex, completely deranged ideas of the idea of "God", adding on top of these "desirable traits" for their race maniacal religious "justified" violence, they have create a monstrosity of a people and culture, that is highly threatening to others.

Rabbis circa their early times in the "Babylonian Exile" started creating a false identity of how this bunch of mongreloids was some sort of "Divine gathering" and institutionalized theft and all the known practices jews do today, such as infiltrating heathen Nations, taking slaves, and enslaving whole continents like they did in Africa. On this gathering of lunatics, they also put fancy ribbons that supposedly have to do with "God's Word" and other nonsense.

If one breaks them down to elements, you will see they are nothing "mysterious" but just an accident in the seas of time, and a very bad "breed" that has maintained itself due to the arrogant factors that they have chosen as aims for their "people".

Adding on top of this selective breeding process and maximum bastardization the secularized hate of a paleolithic system of death that they call "religion", coupled with the constant channelling of otherworldly negative entities that for whatever reason infected them further, they have created a toxic combination of both metagenetic factors and material behaviors that derive from culture, that made them not only dangerous but toxic to everyone else.

The above is literally just a recipe of what the Gods indicate as "Be careful how you breed and be careful to uphold the racial laws". The systematic production of repetitive mistakes for centuries, has created the cutthroat people that we call jews, which have no qualms about putting brainchips, forcing you to eat bugs etc, and despite of being a very confused bunch filled with arrogance, managed to run the planet temporarily over psychopathic traits and an over-extension of their low bogus "spiritual system" is a careful selection of theft.

Systematic breeding of people with schizophrenic, ill tendencies, or murderous tendencies, or no remorse, can actually lead to ever worse examples in just a few generations. If this process is continued for as many as 40 or so generations, the situation becomes extremely difficult.

Most people who analyzed them, be this Hitler or Ford or Nietzsche or so many of their presently extinct neighbours, were very right, but all of them lacked the spiritual depth to understand the spiritual spine of the jews which is the amalgam of their stolen and perverted spiritual knowledge and occult power. This gave them an edge towards the unsuspecting victims.

In India, the jew has failed to take control, because the Hindu's have maintained the Aryan culture and at best they were only able to cause corrosion, but not downfall.

In regards to why the Jews were not annihilated by the Ancient Peoples, who kept them in "check" for their behaviours, the situation is very simple is that they were observed as "humans". In fact, they might have "begun" their very early origins as a very bad race of humans, filled with unaddressed evil, inferiority complex, and other qualms.

I do believe after years of research on this particular vermin, that it later on and progressively became the alien nonsense it is today, and it was not really left down by a spaceship or anything like this.

Yet from closely studying their history I have come to the conclusion that any so-called "Reptilian traits" arrived later, as the leaders of their race started to strike unholy bargains with very evil entities in order to promote their intents at all costs.

The above is obvious as simply there is no way the enlightened people of the past would not have dealt with what should be dealt with. In fact, I believe the origins of the material and physical form of the jews were "human" like anyone else, but a tribe that did all the wrong moves a tribe can possibly do, including asking the most disgusting entities to accompany them on a journey for global damnation.

If I am very objective, I will also say the Jewish people are actually on a large decline from the very "Ancient" types, who arguably seem to be just a deranged bunch that started somewhere in Mesopotamia, and that's likely why they were tolerated by everyone else, as they at least visually were like "Anyone else".

Rabbis have tried to constantly mystify their origins to give false credence to what the Jews are, presenting them as super otherworldly conquerors, yet the contribution, knowledge and understanding of this tribe is medium at best, and it's medium after all the theft they have done. They are not a single fingernail of a Brahman or Shinto master, and they were not even a fingernail of Aristotle or many other legends.

This bandit tribe filled with race mixed bozos, that has just used institutionalized spiritual knowledge by the wiser Indo Aryans, and Whites, to run a little mafia that they call a "Race". For that reason, you will notice that Jews seldom hesitate to race mix to drag more people into their mix of bozos, while simultaneously retaining a semblance of purity for their "Rabbis". That's because they simply bring on more cannon fodder in the desert mafia.

The only thing we are to take away from this is that the Jews "are" or in my view, have "fully become" alien, to the point that the progressive changes on whatever they used to be are now permanent, and now other "entities" can take control of them based on unholy bargains their elders and others have struck.

Their alphabet, myths or lore, is nothing else but stolen and copied "Carry overs" from people they always slander and they say should be genocided, and always are from the places the Jews had strong presence. I.e., theft.

Due to metagenetic factors that deal with transforming a human body and genome, affected strongly by the spiritual practices [this is the same reason people heal by meditation, for example] rampant transformation started taking place to them until they became abominations. Like a fruit that was once a seed, they "manifested" later.

To put it simply, if one engages in wholly corrupted practices and other things, other entities can progressively start making "changes" to people, similar to how it's stated in Eastern Yoga one will fully transform eventually as a species by following Yogic Sadhana.

Very proper Gentile populations have been massacred by these entities, like the Toltecs and others, who had whole factions of their race turning against them after communication and effects from the lizards. As one lives close to the lizard for a very long time, they become the lizard, it's that simple.

As nobody stopped or knew about this abomination process of evolution, they were too late to stop them, or certain people due to knowledge of a very high level might have assumed this situation could be rectified, which apparently it did not. Up until a point everyone knew of their existence but the deeper conspirator mission came progressively to the jews.

A key element to this very strange plans that looks alien to our days, is about destroying our religion, and perverting everything they can reach and pervert, to weaken and subvert us, a practice that they learned in the later Roman Empire which they managed to internally sabotage and accelerate its downfall by the use of these practices.

That is purposeful and to disconnect us from the good powers that can help us escape this, and also run the Ancient Civilizations for tens and tens of thousands of years.

Their antagonism is for real and is not something anyone interested in Ancient Spirituality can ignore, we have to address this issue and that is through the settling of accounts with this giant mistake and removing the chains it has put on everyone for no reason whatsoever.

Ancient Civilizations didn't have time and seldom cared about this accident happening anywhere, and none of the stories of "JHVH" doing anything to nobody are real. Yet this ignorance reached a point where after they maintained their cult for thousands of years and finally infiltrated a bit, they just happen to sit on undeserved chairs in Gentile States now, running them to oblivion.

Most of the claims of the jewish people that the universe works for them is just because they are lunatics and among their many illnesses they have a complete disassociation from reality, where they are taught since infancy that if a cashier bows down to pick one penny that dropped, that's because a Jew is a master of the universe and they did this to serve them.

The extent of insanity when one watches them close will make everyone question why they are even leading anything or why anyone listens to them, but that's what happens when you allow deranged creatures to take control of your financial, religious and political power.

Systematic enforcement of Xianity made sure that they eliminated their enemies and broke their spirit from wanting anything, further opening up people to nonsense like that Jews must be accepted as universal rulers worthy of enslaving anyone else or something. Even that, is nothing that much mystical, and is only based on mind-washing.

The restoration to normalcy will be when they are cast down and eventually driven as far away as possible.
