

Vaccination, Aliens, Lockdown, Human Genome Alteration

As time goes, "We", the "Conspiracy Theorists", those who say things that are actually for real and not just hoax bollocks, will merely be prophets. The sad news is that none of this is going to be pleasant. Normally, when things are written, an approach for "Everyone" is taken here. This time, I will briefly go directly to the explanations, because there is no real point to keep things in a form of "simplified content" now.

The enemy, as everyone knows, are aliens. Everyone who has read our material, knows and understands what they want, and what their "plan" is for humanity. If one does not, go read our material, before it is too late and/or it becomes outlawed or it disappears. It is our mission to simply keep going for as long as possible.

The enemy takes over planets, and enslaves them in a fashion, similar to that of the borg. While humans are told a lot of bullshit excuses on a lot of events, the enemy alien plan is rather simple. As one human enslaves a lot of bees, quite easily, and can manipulate them, so humans are being collectively lured into their damnation.

One aspect of this, is race mixing. To humans, this makes no sense. Some people even think there is nothing bad or something in this. In alien eyes, "Race mixing", especially in those advanced in Genetic Engineering, means one thing: Create a singular gene pool. This is only for easier manipulation purposes. They don't care about anything else, but wiping out adverse genetic content [remnants of other hostile aliens such as the Nordics of our side, and other code instilled into Gentiles by our Gods, the creators]. They only care to create a singular, easy to manipulate, unified pool.

When this purpose is achieved, and while this happens, the enemy, also has a clear plan, to systematically, wipe out segments of human DNA that are a problem to them. Now, with the so-called mRNA vaccine, we have a first attempt to see how this would work on the large scale, and how this new technology could be utilized. One might as well call this a first, and global, human guinea pig experiment. China and other countries have done a lot of this to humans, and have went as far as making hybrids.

This technology will be pivotal in the future for the enemy, to remove specific segments from the "Gene pool" of humanity. It would be far better to do this all on a "Global Scale" and to "Solve a Pandemic", rather than have many individuals disappearing and being experimented solely by themselves, which could backfire such as the case in China. China went as far as to create half human, half animal hybrids, half human half pigs, and other similar..."Creations".

While this technology could be used in trusted or decent purposes, there is no guarantee this is happening now or is safe. Rather, just observe the pressure and force that is pushed on people to take this vaccine, and use your brain to work it out. How naive does one have to be to not understand that this is in the very least, an experiment? Nobody should be put to be experimented upon without their consent.

For those who think this is a conspiracy theory, go read on what mRNA Vaccination is supposed to do, and what it aims at doing. The actual procedure, and what it aims to achieve. Then make some thoughts on how this could go, given the situation with the enemy? Or simply what happens if this goes "Wrong"?

Well, Pfizer, Moderna, or Oxford, definitely will not take any responsibility for it, and they know very well the reasons they aren't taking any responsibility for their "Vaccines". This is however only the surface of this.

The above, as I have explained many years earlier [shared to me directly by the Gods] is what Lucifuge said and shared, in the early beginning stages. Progressively, if the enemy is in control, the above, in the far end of history, will generate a situation of "homogenized" clump of humans, that will progressively be turned to another species through applications of the above technology, and will end up as a slave race.

Don't buy the propaganda, none of the "World Leaders" are getting any of this vaccine or any other down the line. It will be water for them.

This is not to criminalize vaccination or potential application, but to just display how the enemy could use this.

Lucifuge also showed me other things, which involve turning humans and populations into greys through a combination of genetic manipulation and technology. While this may look as if it's too far for humans, this is not far for more advanced civilizations. This would be non-feasible however with such huge number of humans on this planet. Greys are themselves, a genetically homogenized, communized, technology enslaved, alien species.

The enemy is at war with humanity, because we have latent psychic ability, we also have "allies" [our Gods that we don't even know, but they do] and plus, we are big in numbers and the enemy does not have as many numbers as we do. We would not be at "war" if they had won or had an easy victory, and they are aware of other potentials inside humanity that we are not.

Part of this also is a fear the enemy has that in case we evolve past a point and we are not under their thumb, we may resist them or attack them. The enemy rants about "Diversity", and their path to "Diversity" is going to kill all so called "Diversity", until all humans look and are, more or less, entirely the same.

The plan to homogenize humanity, is going slow however, and therefore, manual application such as potential future DNA alteration on the large scale, is now appearing to come in the horizon as a goal to accelerate things before the enemy experiences a major reaction by humanity and/or our Gods. They have to try this at all costs.

All of this is also related to identification purposes as everyone knows, which will be based on the future of mass surveillance. Gabi, Bill Gate's company, is about digital identification. Most of this is just a "Trust exercise", and the enemy divides now the goats from the sheep, measuring how many individuals are with them and obedient, and how many are going to pose an obstacle in the future. This war is reaching a spearhead, and more of this are going to happen worldwide. Data is gathered on people at unprecedented rates, dividing flock from flock.

The unfortunate case, is that humanity, and the so called "Leading Nations", such as the United States, are in communication with these hostile alien entities. These entities know very well how to manipulate and to lie to humanity, and they have individuals working for them. Two sides have been fighting for this world for a very long time. None of what is happening is "Fated", "Mandatory for the future", or even "Necessary". None of this is also to "Evolve humanity" or anything like this.

People in leading positions do understand this, and they get constantly approached by our side and that of the enemy. They will have to choose. For some other situations, the power to choose is rather limited and strangulated. Just look at what happened to the US elections, and understand, that the dogma of humanity 'choosing for itself', where the choice is not the enemy, will be forced to always be the enemy.

All of this sudden "Lockdown" was proven to be unnecessary. Countries that have went without like Sweden, have been for the most part, just fine. Other countries were used as guinea experiments to consider how these things in the severe level could fly in the future.

Rumors are also circulating, a second round of this "Co-Vid" or some other related illness, is going to circulate itself, to create more pressure than the first round. That will depend on how far the enemy perceives they can promote this situation. Where there are no reactions, it's guaranteed, they will keep pushing it to the limit.

All of this has a lot of aims which have been discussed here by ourselves and members - these are political, economic, and social issues that are around the lockdown, and a major power grab is also taking place now. The "disease" itself is not any justifiable ground for most of the things happening, nor is the so called "Pandemic" situation. But the pandemic is the only excuse this could happen, to "Unite" people in a "Global" effort, or for lack of other words, bring "Globalism" together.

In the heat of their high, the "Globalists", or in plain, Jews and their alien reptilian cohorts, also revealed all the rest of the Communist plans that come with this. No ownership, forced DNA manipulation, forced "Socialism", total end of "Free Speech" and information, etc.

The enemy attempted a huge attack on the JoS by 2019 and during 2020, both from the inside and externally, in a combination that was supposed to be a fatality to the JoS. Things we have said have been too "far" and have only been correct and will become more obvious and correct as time goes.

We were warned as early as 2017 and we were prepared, unbeknownst to enemies on the inside and outside. They were caught for fools. We will do whatever is possible to do to continue for as long as possible. The situation of the world is heading to the head of the spear, and this will continue in the upcoming years. Those truly of Satan do understand this and what this means and entails.

Now, on the heavens, astrologically, there are configurations that happened again in the Middle Ages, towards both their beginning and the end. This is to say the least a very pivotal time. Humanity is now going through a case of "Janus", which is the symbol responsible for the opening and closing of dimensions, and moving from one era to the other.

We are heading on either a new, digital form of Middle Ages, with all the new tools of the new "Century", or the actual Age of Aquarius. While many praise the Age of Aquarius, Aquarius also presents extreme technology, aliens, and advanced beyond human comprehension. How these will evolve, is up to the energies that run here. Humans can do our end, and our Gods have to do their end.

The world is changing and there is no back button to it. During the time of good news [that people are finally seeing this and have a choice to fight back], there is also the time for bad news: that this might actually go through if humans do not react to it.

We will do our duty and upcoming Rituals to steer the wheel, for as long as we can.
