

Yahoo Groups Boycotted by Jews

HP Hooded Cobra 666

March 11, 2018

For the last days the main JoS yahoo group has been boycotted by the enemy. I will not get into details, but we will do what we can to resolve this.

The enemy is just desperate. They have also frequently attacked the forums in the last couple of days but failed except of once. There is a war going in the back so that people can be here at peace which is in any way, their right to do so.

Some people do not recognize this right and believe you belong as a goyim to shine the shoes of jews instead, for the rest of your life. Disagreeing on facts such as the above we have an intellectual, information, and internet war going on. Which rest reassured doesn't end there as well from the behalf of the enemy.

They fight us because they are losing. Just keep up the RTRs and their narrative will collapse.
