BIG THANK YOU TO OUR BROTHER HIDDEN WARRIOR IN UPDATING AND CONSTANTLY IMPROVING THIS MARVELOUS PROJECT!!!

UPDATE 21/May/2022 by Brother Hidden Warrior.

I have uploaded the following new features:

- Current Sky: this feature is an extension of the "Current Planets" table in the homepage. It allows you to see when the current planets in the sky will change their sign, the current aspects (with all their information) and the incoming aspects.
- Manual Coordinates: you will see in the form where you usually put your birth information a new button, that will allow you to manually insert the latitude, longitude and timezone of your location. This was required since not all cities are available in the list. As a remark, the latitude and longitude must be in decimal degree (Eg. 40.578). On the web is quite easy to find the coordinates of your location.

I hope these features will help as many SS as possible: please play as much as you can with the site and feel free to reply below if there is any kind of problem. I will solve them as soon as possible.

I want to thank all the translators for their help and HP Hooded Cobra for his constant support!

HAIL SATAN!

HAIL AZAZEL!

HAIL ALL THE GODS!

Greetings to all of our Satanic Family,

I am very excited to announce a new project that has come to fruition. These are two of the biggest yearly projects combined.

One, you already know about, it's our beloved Calendar. This year it was decided the release was going to be earlier than late December. People have toiled tirelessly for this, for your sake and the sake of this community to make this earlier. On top of this, it will have now its exclusive place in the Joy of Satan Astrology official website, which is our other mega project that is now manifested.

Important is to also state that this was because Azazel wanted this release earlier this year, so everyone can plan ahead of 2022 which is going to be an important year. This year will be pivotal for many, and long term planning is required. This is to avoid last minute decisions for those who have serious long-term goals. We followed on this dictate.

His care for our people won't be forgotten, especially in times of tribulations such as these that have been in the recent years. Azazel has been giving care and protection for the JoS and its members. We want to return this to Him with accelerating and helping everyone's advancement.

Azazel has received proper Glory, and we thank Him and glorify the Great God for always being on the side of the JoS and helping us tirelessly.

These works are therefore dedicated to Him, both this calendar and the other website of JoS Astrology. These projects have been combined into one mega project, Joy of Satan Astrology, dedicated to Lord Azazel for eternity.

The Joy of Satan Astrology is the new groundbreaking website that enters in the arsenal of our websites. It's an Astrology Chart / Astrology Transits Generator website that requires you to save nothing at all to generate your natal chart. It has other functionalities that people will have to explore on their own, and will receive updates in the future too.

We ask that people who are into astrology test this, although we have beta tested this already.

I cannot thank enough our members that have contributed in this, and helping not only the whole of the JoS community, but also helping us devote these works to Azazel. I have worked alongside them in constantly directing these works, but the spotlight should go on them. Everyone must thank them. Send them some positive thoughts and positive energy, because they have worked for you this year.

Nothing would be possible for anyone without our beloved and united SS family.

They worked so hard for you all.

For the Calendar of all these years - We, the Joy of Satan and Community SS, we thank you: ThomaSS, Lydia, Nisha Willow, Forores. We thank you for your continued support.

For the Joy of Satan Astrology Website and the Astrology functions - We, the Joy of Satan and Community of SS, we thank you: Hidden Warrior [For all the work], Satanic-Eagle [For the beautiful Logo]

The Names of our SS are now inscribed on this wonderful project, under the wonderful sight of the Gods.

That should stand as testament to what we can achieve together. Without their creations, this would not be possible. We create together. Over all these months, the meticulous work has borne this new project to life.

THANKS TO OUR SS - HAIL AND GLORY TO AZAZEL!!!!

The Joy of Satan Astrology Portal:

The address: <https://www.jos-astro.com> will host both projects from now on.

Joy of Satan Astrology Portal Update!

Fixed Stars service has been added.

You will find the new service under the list "Available Charts", below the Transits button.

I won't spoiler anything, so jump on the website and play with it.

If you find anything strange or that doesn't work, feel free to reply below; I will check them as soon as possible.
