Former Egyptian president Anwar Sadat said: " Hafez al Assad said in 1975 that he wants to help the Palestinian resistance- he was the one who attacked Palestinian resistance in Tal Al Za'tar (East Lebanon). He murdered the elderly, women and children. This is the Palestinian resistance which Hafez al Assad was supposed to protect! A while after that he said, "I am going to protect the Muslims" they attacked the Muslims and slaughtered them all!- then he said "I'm going to protect the Christians" then he attacked the Christians!- then he said "I'm going to protect the liberals" So he killed Kamal Jumblatt the leader of the liberals!" 36 ago when the Lebanese civil war was at its fiercest & the Palestinians & Lebanese Sunnis won over the militias of the Marionettes (Christian Lebanese)."

Yitzhak Rabin the fifth Prime Minister of Israel said: "Israel doesn't see any reason to stop Syrian troops from invading Lebanon because the army is attacking the Palestinians & the moment we get involved, means we are doing the Palestinians a favour by it and we should not disturb the Syrian troops during their (murder) campaign against the Palestinians, because they're on a mission and we (Israel) will grasp the fruits of it"

The picture of the Meeting between Bashar al Assad and the Mossad agent:

The whole translation of the article:

"Who is the agent of the Mossad who met Assad in Damascus?"

An Israeli channel revealed an exciting visit of a Mossad agent to the head of the Syrian regime, Bashar Al-Assad, in Damascus.

The visit, which took place in the year 2007, during which businessman Natan Jacobson concealed his true identity as a Mossad agent, and discussed with Assad the means of cooperation between Syria and Canada, of which the Mossad agent holds his nationality, according to what Arab 48 reported from Channel Two Israeli.

According to an investigation program broadcast by Channel Two, a lengthy meeting gathered Jacobson with Assad, knowing that "Mossad" agent was involved nearly three years later in participating in the assassination of a leader of the Islamic Resistance Movement "Mahmoud", Mahmoud al-Mabhouh, in a Dubai hotel.

According to Channel Two, Jacobson's visit to Damascus, and his meeting with Assad, was commissioned by then Prime Minister Ehud Olmert, accompanied by Moshe Ronen, a well-known leader in the Jewish community in Canada, and with a wide network of relationships with the Israeli commercial community.

Jacobson added that his way to the presidential palace in Damascus was like a procession, adding: "We were inside a Mercedes, and a car in front of us, and another behind us, and motorcycles at our side, until we reached the Bashar al-Assad Palace, and the meeting spanned two and a half hours."

"Assad told us: Think about what peace can achieve between our two countries, between Israeli technology experiences and my manpower. Imagine what power we will be," he said.

It is interesting to note that according to the well-known investigations program "Ovdada" (the truth), that Jacobson, 62, who was born in Canada, has strong ties in Israel and served in her army.

Jacobson also started his business in Russia, in conjunction with the collapse of the Soviet Union, in the 1990s.

After becoming a wealthy businessman, thanks to the sale of fortified American cars to the wealthy new Russians who became capitalists as a result of the collapse of the Soviet Union, Jacobson set up in Russia 600 gas stations, employing 1,800 workers.

Jacobson's richness led him to establish relationships with the Russian mafia, as he practiced suspicious actions, including collecting commissions from citizens' contacts in pornographic sites.

According to the second channel, according to Jacobson, a call he received from the Israeli consulate in Toronto, whose date has not been determined, witnessed the beginning of his work with the "Mossad", after the consulate told him that he could provide great help services thanks to his relations, especially since he is a Jew.

The channel said that after that he was contacted by the commander of the Mossad unit "Zelsal", "Audi Levy", a unit that tracks the funds of Palestinian organizations, "Hezbollah" and others.

Jacobson stated that he had accompanied Udi Levy to the "Nova Scotia" bank, and the latter had threatened the bank manager in the event he learned about remittances that Hezbollah was using through it.

The television investigation noted that Jacobson was accused of having rented the apartment to Mossad agents who assassinated Mabhouh.

Jacobson refused to admit the charge, but confirmed his knowledge of Dubai from "A to Z".

Jacobson commented on his dissatisfaction with the conduct of the assassination, saying that he had spoken to former Mossad chief, Meir Dagan, about that.

Jacobson is also accused of recruiting wealthy Russians for "Mossad" in order to benefit from them in the war against Iran's nuclear program.

Jacobson's career was not without corruption, as the investigation, which was published in Channel Two, accused him of bribing Israeli government officials, citing his close relationship with Olmert and Benjamin Netanyahu.

Jacobson's influence in Israel amounted to his acquittal of bribes, while the bribers were convicted.

Jacobson was also accused of laundering tens of millions of money, as a result of illegal sales of drugs online.

According to the program, Jacobson was under investigation by the CIA about his relationship with the Mossad, but he denied any relationship.

The investigation concluded that everyone was aware of Jacobson's relations with the "Mossad", led by the CIA, which had previously investigated him, but in the end, the California Federal Court issued a decision to acquit him and cancel all accusations against him.

Bashar al Assad was friends with Saudi Arabia:

Hafez al Assad was friends with British Intelligence:

In 1942, the Arab Bureau of British Intelligence, headquartered in Cairo, sent one of its top officers to wartime Lebanon, Capt. E.E. Evans-Pritchard. Evans-Pritchard, who would become famous as the profiler of southern Sudan, and author of the bogus concept of the "Nilotic peoples," was asked to do an in-depth study of the Alawite sect. Following British SOP in such matters, Evans-Pritchard compiled a detailed profile of the sect's leaders. Among them, he cited Hafez al-Assad's father. In order to do the study, Evans-Pritchard relied on a prominent informant, a friend of Hafez al-Assad's father, who was also the son of the sheikh who ruled the Assad family's village, and another co-signer of the Alawite dignatories' letter.²

Hafez Al Assad was apart of a Shia Secret Society:

He returned to Syria in 1958, where he married into the prominent Makhluḥ family.

By 1959, Assad was back in Egypt, at which point he conspired with four other young officers stationed there, to form the Military Committee, a secret society within the Baath Party. Its other members were future Syrian President Salah Jadid and Muhammad Umran, both Alawites; and Abd al-Karim al-Jundi, the future head of Syrian intelligence, and Ahmad al-Mir, both Ismailis. In 1963, Umran, Salah, and Assad would oversee the military coup that brought the Baath Party to power.²

Syrian nationalists used the revolution flag and supported Adolf Hitler:

- Middle Eastern countries rightfully saw Germany as a liberator. Adolf Hitler even told The Grand Mufti Amin al-Husayni, whom represented many millions of Arabic peoples, that when the German and Axis armies reached the Caucasus that their liberation was at hand. The corrupt governments of Britain and France had occupied the Arabic peoples lands and prevented any kind of real alliance between the Arab governments and Germany although there were revolts and even a coup in Iraq. The Arabic people had many slogans exalting Adolf Hitler. At last, it seemed, they would be free. They collectively held their breath and waited. But it was not to be. And to this day the same corrupt entities either control or indirectly manipulate most of the Arab world.

Although Adolf Hitler was unable to free the African continent his example would inspire the Arab peoples to this day. Mein Kampf has remained a best seller and National Socialism has inspired many Arab revolutionaries and freedom fighters.

Sami al-Jundi

- Among those brave men and women is Sami al-Jundi (1921-1996), the Ba'athist political party co-founder. The Ba'athist Party held sacred many tenets and principles of National Socialism. Adolf Hitler and his freedom fighters inspired them deeply.

Sami al-Jundi was the leader of the Syrian Ba'ath Party and the League of Nationalist Action. Here is a quote:

'We are fascinated by Nazism, we study its writings and intellectual sources-especially Nietzsche, Fichte, and [Houston Stewart] Chamberlain. And we are the first to have seriously considered translating Mein Kampf. Anyone who lives in Damascus can appreciate the force of attraction Nazism exerts upon the Arabic people, and Nazism's ability to rouse the people to action...'

Bashar al Assad thinks the holocaust is real:

Assad regime did to Alois Brunner after he exposed Hafez al Assad for not fighting Israel:

“He insulted Hafez al-Assad, the intelligence services,” Hammadah recalled. “We reported back and he’d end up in a cell at Mohajerin [intelligence headquarters] and after a few days we’d take him back to the apartment.”

Brunner confided in the guard: “He told me Saddam Hussein was a great man, the only one capable of destroying Israel.” He regretted not having annihilated all Jews, but boasted of having killed 25,000 Jews from France.

In a 1998 interview with French television, Hafez al-Assad denied Brunner’s presence. “If you know where he is, I’ll send someone there with you on the spot,” he said.

About that time, Brunner was moved to a one-room basement cell, which he did not leave for the rest of his life. His imprisonment continued after Bashar came to power in 2000.

“He was very tired, very ill. He suffered and he screamed a lot. Everyone heard him,” another former guard, identified only as Omar, said. “The chief guard gave him food, a soldier’s ration of one egg or a one potato . . . He also laughed very loudly. He banged his head on the walls . . . He had a skin disease because of the lack of sunlight and fresh air . . . He couldn’t even wash himself. You wouldn’t keep an animal in such a place.”

Salman, Trump and Syria

After bragging about a 12.5 billion dollars arms deals with Saudi Arabia while ridiculing the Crown prince of Saudi Arabia Muhammad bin Salman, whom he used as a tripod for his presentation, in an embarrassing show of public humiliation, Trump yet again invokes vicarious shame as he publicly states that if Saudi Arabia wants the US to stay in Syria they are "gonna have to pay". Not only humiliating the Crown prince of Saudi Arabia but also indicating that the US army has become nothing more than a bunch of prostitute mercenaries for hire like any other (no so) cheap proxy army, instead of its outdated Hollywood reputation of a leading world army fighting for justice, freedom and democracy.

It should be noted that Muhammad bin Salman recently said that Bashar Al-Assad is to remain in power in Syria. So the US presence paid for by Saudi Arabia is not against Bashar Al-Assad or the removal of his tyrant regime. The US led coalition has killed a shocking amount of civilians in Syria and Iraq and destroyed much of their property, many cities have become inhabitable due to the massive destruction of buildings and infrastructure. As the international community, and especially the US, have clearly washed their hands of its responsibility of rebuilding the destroyed civilian life. Saudi Arabia who keeps spending billions of dollars in ridiculous arms deals and paying checks for the US army, nor the rest of the once so-called friends of Syria, have likewise shown little to no interest of rebuilding the destroyed civilian life.

Why do you think a rebellion started just because some John McCain dude said yo Assad bad rebellion starts now? No it's because Assad put in the government and military only Alawites and no Sunnis to be seen so it was bound to happen. Alawites are not even 5% in the entire country yet they were the ones at the charge, they are exactly like Jews. Assad's father Hafez was put in power by the help of France. Just because someone is anti-Israel and you oppose him for other reasons that doesn't make you pro-Israel, don't give such ridiculous statements.

Alawites have all control of the Syrian Government:

Global Research is a Pro Assad and Pro Kremlin website. Globalresearch.ca, a website operated by the "Centre for Research on Globalization". The founder of "Centre for Research on Globalization" is Michel Chossudovsky. Michel Chossudovsky is the son of a Russian Jewish émigré, the career United Nations diplomat and academic Evgeny Chossudovsky, and an Irish Protestant, Rachel Sullivan.

They are Apologists for Assad:

"This idea was then picked up by several websites, including the Centre for Research on Globalisation, a hub for conspiracy theories and fake stories."

Myth of ISIS being made by Israel:

"The only lucid defense of the idea that Western intelligence agencies created the Islamic State intentionally comes from the Center for Research on Globalization (CRG), a Canadian website that bills itself as an alternative news source, but has advanced specious conspiracy theories on topics like 9/11, vaccines and global warming."

The US state department even said they are Pro-Russia:

"Most of the report focuses on an ecosystem of websites, many of them fringe or conspiracy minded, that Russia has used or directed to spread propaganda on a variety of topics. Those include an online journal called the Strategic Culture Foundation and other sites, like the Canada-based Global Research. The document builds on information disclosed last week by American officials about Russian intelligence's control of various propaganda sites."

Global Research also spreads Chinese Propaganda:

"Global Research published an article entitled "COVID-19: Further Evidence that the Virus Originated in the US" article entitled "COVID-19: Further Evidence that the Virus Originated in the US" was posted on social media by a senior official in the Chinese foreign ministry."

"On Friday, Mr. Zhao revealed a new source for his information: the Centre for Research on Globalization, or Global Research, a site founded by Michel Chossudovsky, a professor emeritus at the University of Ottawa, which has come under investigation by NATO's Strategic Communications Centre of Excellence over its content. In 2017, the centre told The Globe and Mail that it believes Global Research is an important online actor in promoting the online spread of narratives backed by the Kremlin and the regime of President Bashar al-Assad in Syria."

Maher al Assad met with Israeli political scientist Youssef Bodansky:

Limbaugh's cited an article by Yossef Bodansky on Global Research, a conspiracy website that has advanced a pro-Assad message during the current crisis. "How can the Obama administration continue to support and seek to empower the opposition which had just intentionally killed some 1,300 innocent civilians?" Bodansky asked.

Bodansky is an ally of Bashar's uncle, Rifaat al-Assad — he pushed him as a potential leader of Syria in 2005. Rifaat is the black sheep of the Assad family: He spearheaded the Syrian regime's brutal crackdown on the Muslim Brotherhood in the early 1980s, but then was forced into exile after he tried to seize power from his brother, President Hafez al-Assad, in 1983. Despite his ouster, however, Rifaat is just as hostile to a Sunni Islamist takeover as other members of the Assad family — a position Bodansky appears to share. Ending Alawite rule in Syria, Bodansky wrote on another pro-Assad website, "will cause cataclysmic upheaval throughout the greater Middle East."
