Greetings to all of our Satanic Comrades.

Central this time will be as per usual the Final RTR, which is a given for all these days. We just do this as we have been doing this, and continue this.

Below will be a little schedule as there are important power dates and positive winds for us to take advantage of. We will be doing the Race Awakening Ritual. After the Yom Kippur success I believe it's time neigh that all of us commonly partake in some empowerment and fortification of ourselves, and helping our own, also.

Due to the importance of larger objectives, on Samhain [those who want to start on the 30th can go ahead and do it as soon as possible], we will focus on the Race Awakening Ritual. The 30th is included as a default if one wants to begin ASAP with this, which I know I'll be doing, and I am certain others will be doing also, as it's an extra day. It's important to keep the greater goals in mind, and our community as Spiritual Satanists. Therefore, let's bless up also. So we will be doing the Protection, Wealth and Well-being Ritual, but also a JoS centered ritual to keep the defences up.

It's time to get some blessings going, so to say. We will be doing as thus the following small schedule to take advantage of the uprising opportunities.

After this there may follow other things, but due to the enemy, there cannot be very lengthy propositions and we have to stay at this for now.

The Schedule:

- Race Awakening Ritual [October 30th, 31st Samhain, November 1st]
- JoS Protection Ritual & Wealth For Satanists Ritual [November 2nd, 3rd, 4th]
- Race Awakening Ritual, Again at [5th, 6th, 7th of November respectively]

- Final RTR [Always a given, to be done daily]

Now in regards to some questions about the rituals.

First of all if you are new, do not feel intimidated by any of this. This is all common and easy to do. Mainly, rituals go like this, sometimes without even step 1 and 4. It's all in other words straight forward:

1. Do a prayer
2. Do the vibrations necessary
3. Do the Ritual affirmation

4. Close the Ritual.

In regards to the Joy of Satan protection ritual, that is straight forward. Benefits our members who are with us [bless us], but also our house in general, so that we are strong and keep existing for common benefit. As to why this is pertinent, let me remind you that this time last year all our websites did vanish and disappear, which comes from the enemy. The enemy has burned enough libraries and spiritual people and spiritual hubs of knowledge as it is, and perverted all the rest to total damnation. This harms those who want to advance spiritually and escape from the enemy's grip.

It's important and necessary that we keep our fortification going, and Satan's House upright. Through this, we can maintain our positive influence and every other effort towards better things. This is of exceptional importance to Satan and our Gods first and foremost, who have been putting a lot into this. We can add into this and we should.

In regards to the Race Awakening Ritual, one can merely refer to the post that has been provided. This Ritual has been done concurrently for years, and is a series of many months of Rituals - Refer here for more info:

The last time the Wealth Ritual was done again before, some of you informed the last time that you came with windfalls, opportunities, straight up income, which was exceptional and pleasant. The more open you are to this, the better. For those in more trying circumstances, this ritual is going to help you, coupled with one's own efforts. Material effort also may have to be taken, such as opting out for a job, the list goes. Rituals make these tasks easier. Others have, like for example during the California Hurricane, have received windfalls before the hurricane and were able to evacuate, or their property was largely unscathed. This is only one example of how this works in these terms.

Needless to say there is a lot of pressure in this area, this is how this world is designed, and this ritual is supposed to help everyone of Satan's people and JoS members specifically to deal with said issues more effectively. For people already in a good situation financially, this helps to increase and to stabilize said situations. In situations of bad transits, one will by all means benefit tremendously from the Wealth Ritual, also, as planets can be quite brutal, and the mass power directed can be helpful. Long story short, everyone benefits. It's assistance and positive development no matter how one sees it.

All in all we are going to make beautiful things happen with these, so without further due, here are the links. These Rituals have been done again before.
