

Calling Prophet Muhammad a Pedophile Does Not Fall Within Freedom of Speech - European Court

These goddamned, thoroughly depraved and totally rotten bitches are taking over. This is happening rapidly all over the world.

Over the years, I have had to listen to ignorant double-digit IQ assholes merrily and oh-so-cheerfully state "Live and let live" and other related suicidal advice.

Once this evil, foul vermin (and that's a total understatement, there are no words degenerate enough to describe Islam, or that sick, depraved, mentally insane vile excrement Mohammed, or that most vile Allah), gets control over our governments (which is what they're relentlessly working overtime to do), you can kiss all your asses and future generations goodbye. It will be too fucking late.

People need to do the Final RTR every day. If you don't, none of us will have any future.

Also, the enemy does fear the JoS. They have been working incessantly to try to shut us up. They have and are dropping JoS and affiliated sites such as <http://www.exposingchristianity.com> and others, from search engines.

Everyone must spread the links and the word.

If something isn't done about this, all of us will be affected. Also, as the article below, the Catholic Church won't be held accountable if people can no longer speak out against raping children and animals.

It is no longer legal to speak out against pedophilia in Europe:

Calling Prophet Muhammad a pedophile does not fall within freedom of speech: European court

18 hours ago

The ECHR ruled against an Austrian woman who claimed calling the Prophet Muhammad a pedophile was protected by free speech. The applicant claimed she was contributing to public debate.

An Austrian woman's conviction for calling the Prophet Muhammad a pedophile did not violate her freedom of speech, the European Court of Human Rights ruled on Thursday.

The Strasbourg-based ECHR ruled that Austrian courts carefully balanced the applicant's "right to freedom of expression with the right of others to have their religious feelings protected, and served the legitimate aim of preserving religious peace in Austria."

The woman in 2009 held two seminars entitled "Basic Information on Islam," during which she likened Muhammad's marriage to a six-year-old girl, Aisha, to pedophilia.

The marriage according to Islamic tradition was consummated when Aisha was nine and Muhammad was around 50. Aisha was the daughter of Muhammad's best friend and the first caliph, Abu Bakr.

The court cited the Austrian women stating during the seminar that Muhammad "liked to do it with children" and "... A 56-year-old and a six-year-old? ... What do we call it, if it is not pedophilia?"

An Austrian court later convicted the woman of disparaging religion and fined her €480 ($546). Other domestic courts upheld the decision, before the case was brought to the ECHR.

Reply from High Priest Hooded Cobra 666:

"The ECHR recognized that freedom of religion did not exempt people from expecting criticism or denial of their religion.

However, it found that the woman's comments were not objective, failed to provide historical background and had no intention of doing so"

[Sarcasm] Court: Goyim look, there is no proof of this. I don't care if the Quran said it, or if Muslims in some cases even today marry and abuse sexually young kids. There is no proof of this goy show me a video of Mohammed goyim? You don't have a video. Therefore, it didn't happen. As for the OBVIOUS THAT IT IS STATED IN THE QURAN that's not proof either goy, we need actual proof goy. We need a video of the prophet in the 11th century. If you don't have it, you can't accuse. The JoS is being shut off search engines methodically, BUT, these people DO have a voice in society.
