

Fear of Satan - Truth is Coming Out

HP Hooded Cobra 666

Greetings to all our People and Satanic Comrades.

I'll get straight to the point. Why don't we have millions of followers?

Even if Satan heals, Satan helps raise the Serpent, Satan leads to enlightenment, positive morality, completion of the character, and the Godhead? Granting immortality, the ways to rule ourselves correctly, and become exalted beings instead of living trash?

Why is Satan hated? It's simple. This society hates Truth, eternal life, and everything positive and uplifting. People have taken 'blessings' that came with curses and cripples from the jews, and they think they are satisfied.

The times are changing and this condition will too change, however.

Why do people still 'fear' Satan while he is basically, a being whose name just means TRUTH?

Do they know him in reality? No. They are just taking jewish word for him, that is the lowest form of gossip. All the faiths of the enemy have been created in war of this particular being, to kill "God"- the one and only, Satan. King of the Gods and people alike.

What is there to fear and worry about worshipping one's...Natural, ancient and eternal Gods. The Demons?

Satanism is the root from where one draws the life of their own racial tree. Satanism is blessings and life.

In Satanism the peasant and the king can be blessed, and they can take from the infinite beauty of the universe. Satan gives order, but Satanism also gives and dispenses gifts freely.

Satanism is the real kingdom of the Soul. The dark side of life that has been hidden, in contrast to a failing and ugly jewish 'light'. That is not even a light, but devoid of any reality in it. It's just a haze conjured for a few centuries, so the mob of evil could rule the world for a while.

Truly- there is NOTHING to fear about Satan, Satanas, Lucifer, or how one decides to name him. People are only conditioned to fear on zero grounds. No reason at all, just jewish propaganda. It's a being they never knew. The enemy rushes since infancy to get everyone to hate this being, because it's the enemy of what is plaguing this world so obviously.

Ironically, all that makes humanity worth existing, such as philosophy, science, meditation, beauty, natural understanding and health- all come from the 'rebuked' Satan. All that makes existence worthwhile belongs to the King of Existence and all Existence- Satan.

Even his enemies respect him, and fear him, and many of them know the war against him is futile, but they keep going to try to delay his wrath from falling on them.

"Satan is evil, fear the Serpent, smite and curse your own Gods, kill your own people, hate life and hate yourself, worship the jews and be a good slave". That's all there's to it, this is the instruction of the enemy.

Simple because, his name has been cursed and defamed by the enemy. That's the only reason Satan is disliked and hated.

By the way, the enemy has cursed this name for centuries, to incite fear and negativity. The direct opposite of what this name does. Which is uplift the Soul, clean the psyche, and open and gladden the heart, making the person a superior being.

We have to understand that Spiritual Satanism is the only real SATANISM. All other things are jewish hijackings, which may have some points, but they were made only for the purpose of re affirming the jewish beliefs of the Talmud, the Torah and the jews: That "Satan is Evil".

We know firsthand this is a lie.

As the spells of the enemy fall and crumble, the Truth will be revealed. This is already happening, and the Age of Aquarius belongs to Satan.

Spiritual Satanism requires bravery, for one has to fight this guise and illusion of the enemy, and their psychotropic hoaxes and mental drugs that paralyze the soul with fear. To affirm one's self as a Satanist is a brave move, not because one is doing anything evil or strange...

But because one just shatters this jewish mirror that keeps them blind and tells them that their selves, their own Gods, and advancing spiritually is evil. Therefore, the Gods take these people far more seriously, and teach them closely as their own children.

Satan's name needs to be re-blessed, or for more accurate saying, the clouds between the Sun and the World have to be cleaned. The Sun is there, and shines, but people, due to jewish pollution cannot see, and they cannot breathe in the life-giving rays.

Fear not Satan, for He will avenge himself, and set us free. Just keep advancing, and fighting. The slave order of the enemy will fall. You cannot cover the Sun forever. Their small jewtrix and the false rules it has imposed will be cracked and destroyed. Every day you advance, you dig their spiritual grave ten feet further.

Big Hail of Blessings to all Spiritual Satanists and people of Satan.

Say it to yourself, Satan's name is no longer reviled- Satan's name is blessed and sanctified.

For as He blesses us, we bless Him, as He raises, so we will raise Him, and as He enlighten us, we will enlighten Him - in the consciousness of those who are blind and cannot see, for in HIMSELF, He is the ultimate and requires nothing.

Keep reminding this to yourself, you're under the light of existence.
