

Will Satan Save You?

There is no need for people to have any falsified conceptions. People who are seeking slaves in the form of Jesus, who will 'save' them while they are doing absolutely nothing for their existence, not even the slightest possible thing to get better. Are in the wrong place.

Satan is not the God of the cattle, the meek, or the purposefully stupid. Satan accepts all Gentiles who are his creations. However, the struggle we undergo today is not to save those who are beyond saving. We are not some fake saviors, and we don't have to make fake promises. We have to be realistic.

Satan has his own elite souls within humanity. And many people who have inside them the ancient worth and higher spirit. This is what Satan, the Gods, and us should care about. We aren't trying to save those who have given and sold out themselves. There are many who are beyond salvaging, like a fried robot from too much poison.

We are seeking for the remaining diamonds of the golden age, in unfortunately what we can call a mountain of trash. On the top of which the enemy stands at the top.

Indirectly, yes, through our fight, many humans will be saved from impending disasters which they will never understand. Even if they 'do' understand, they will never REALLY understand what we have done, or what we are doing. We should gratify ourselves in knowing what we do here, as family and for one another, and rejoicing in the company and providence of the Gods.

The 'outer' circle or 'half-awake goy' will only understand the last chapters of what we have been working upon.

Only the Children of the Gods will finally grasp that. Why? Because it's in our Souls already. This is what pushes us forward. We are people from all over the planet, but at the same time, we are so close, something which should be technically impossible. But this is because Gentiles here belong to larger soul family of the Gods.

Satan has entrusted this mission to all of us his favorites amongst all Gentiles. To win their love and their support, one has to listen and to walk the path. One has to rise spiritually and do their own, small or bigger deeds to save themselves.

Saving essentially means finishing Satan's work on the Gentile Races. That of spiritual work. This can and must happen at the self.

We are not asking for the approval of the herd. But we warn them anyway. The 'herd' doesn't know logic, common sense, or understanding. It knows what the enemy has taught it, fear and intimidation. However, inside this very herd are also the ears that will be wise enough to listen, isolated, and at war with the herd in one way or another. We are seeking the individuals who band as warrior unit where needed.

And who have the power to rise above their own insignificant and mortal blinding existence. These diamonds exist through all the people in the world, and our job is to find them. Many times, they come on their own too, thankfully. These are the people that will bring change. Not some random "mass" of irrelevant people who are comfortable with being "goyim".

Satanism is open to those who have something elite spiritually inside them, the righteous, and the people who seek to make greater selves out of themselves. This must be recognized and worked upon, for one to progress.

Who is that that Satan "Saves"?

Not everybody... That's for sure...
