

What Israel is Attempting Right Now

The jews are now taking some very important steps to their agenda.

There are two steps that are taking place right now, or for accurate saying. A few things that will build one upon another.

First of all, the jews with Jewcy Trump, they are trying to instigate fear and worry, and maybe even the event of WW3. A Thermo-Jew-Clear war basically. This is well documented in essays of Rabbis, and many fancy and would love the event. They want 'complete and total retaliation with their enemies'.

The only reason Trump did focus on North Korea is because the autistic garbage communist of Korea is the only person that will easily launch a nuke with no serious fuss-fuss to it. Trump attempted to pull the tooth of Russia some days ago, and now, he is trying to get to the same thing from the backdoor, towards a far dumber opponent. Russia wasn't stupid to take the bait, and they knew where this led in the first place.

After he tried to start WW3 with an irrelevant target. He just launches a random bomb on (((ISIS))). Funny as it were, and needed, it was gladly irrelevant. A phone call from his Israeli friends could disband (((ISIS))) faster than all bombs in the world combined. Since they made this socket group anyway. McCain knows. The "Goyim" with the memory of a goldfish forgot what is actually going on.

Notice when Jewcy became really Jewcy like Orange-Jewcy, the Team Toilet Jew approved him as their lord and master again.

Aside from this, as this post is being written, there is a referendum in Turkey going on. On if Turkey will become a full dictatorship or not. Either way this goes (I believe it will be a rigged YES, personally, but we will see, haven't looked into it really) the jews want Turkey to become 'nationalist' and 'dictatorship' at once. Erdogan the dumbass will then start the violations and other things, and the good guys of the globe will want to intervene. In order to break down and destroy Turkey pretty much.

The outcome of that the jews want to be twofold: One, fill completely Europe with savage islamists, two, they want to actually create a puppet state named "Kurdistan". They want to break Turkey in pieces, to create puppet states between them and their Middle-Eastern enemies. And then, misdirect war and other things to these states instead, rather than Israel.

The same thing happened with Assad in Syria. They basically tried to open full scale war on Assad again in 2013, and they will repeat this again. The jews want major destabilization of the whole area in order to find the loopholes to make their expansion. One of which small expansion they already carried, with their so called 'settlements'.

All of the above is being carried on Easter, and after Yom Kippur. As HP Don explained, all of this was numerologically calculated. April 6th the first airstrike, April 16th the end of the Turkish Referendum, the list goes. All these events do build up one on top of the other.

Many people will think now, wow, they have a lot of power carrying these events. Obviously they do, but anyone in their position would. This is not the work of 'God', it's the work of human beings with occult knowledge. It's that simple. Those with occult knowledge, are 'God' themselves. Let's not over-complexify the matters, but there are also aliens with their own agenda involved. They don't like the fact that humanity is understanding about them.

Their ant-farm is potentially under the danger of breaking over, and they are seriously willing to kill enormous amounts of people to stop this from happening. After all, like animals, they will repopulate. The thing that matters to these hostile entities, is that nobody knows what they are doing, until they are too strong for anyone to do anything at all.

Lastly, we, out of all people can do something about it. If this plan is foiled, TTJ will have a very hard time coping with their own attempts to gas everyone in a massive, thermonuclear war.

Notice how the stupid goyim are literally 'loving' this and all are sitting docile in the sight of such events. But when Nationalism and bad 'racists' are rising, they want to play revolutionaries of the poopland.

This is because when it comes to jewish operations, they are programmed like the dogs they are to stay docile, but when it comes to things that threaten the jewtrix (Such as imaginary gassings of the chosen/it was real in my mind incidents), they are taught to revolt like the slaves of the jews that they are.

We are living in a prison planet, but we can change this. We are working for this.
