

Anti-Racism is Anti-White

Anti-Racism is just a code word for anti-White. You can observe this in the fact that non-Whites amongst their races all organize along racial lines and racial thinking. The mainstream, PC establishment encourages and promotes this racial supremacist psychology and organization among non-Whites. It's lauded, praised, and paraded by the PC establishment as MORAL VIRTUE. Even the negatives, like demands made of us Whites by this mainstream crowd, are always along RACE LINES. Jews are behind all this anti-racist nonsense. And Jews themselves are the most racist people on Earth. Just look at their racist state of Israel. It is the same in every Jewish community on Earth. The only difference is that Israel is under its own flag.

Now the same non-Whites and Jews start screaming and bitching the second a single White person even is suspected of racial pride in their own White race. They promote racism as a value for themselves openly and with social encouragement and approval from the mainstream PC narrative. This shows that it's not about anti-racism, but they go on a Witch-hunt against Whites for even the suspicion of positive self-regard along race lines for themselves. It is anti-White, that's all, and Jews are behind the whole scam. It's a psychological warfare tactic against us. Their own mainstream PC narrative is proof that the Jews hate us and want to destroy us, because that is the end game of the whole narrative.

Now, White People have also been told we need permission from non-Whites and filthy kikes to care about ourselves as a race, so it's like "ok here is my Black so and so." Well, guess what, Whites don't need a Hall Pass from non-Whites, filthy kikes, or worthless White cucks who ask permission from their Jewish and non-White moral masters to even go to the washroom.

No we don't, nor have we ever needed any permission to love, care and protect our own awesome White Race. So White People, get a clue, wake up to the Jew and stand tall! Give yourself permission to embrace what you have always felt deep within your Aryan soul. Love your own White Race and speak and advocate on its behalf! If you don't, who will?

In this world, your own People are your community and love you the most. That's what is real and that's what is moral. Our People is our greatest treasure.

Hail The White Race! With supreme power, pride and love!
