

Exposing the Jewish God, Part 1

The Jewish "god" in the Kabbalah and Torah is very simple. The Jewish leadership spell this out for their own so they know what they are doing and how to use this, while hiding it from everyone else.

In Kabbalah, the Jewish Rabbis state that the symbol of their "god" is the Kabbalah tree.

The YHVH in Kabbalah is spelled YHV. The reason for this is that the "Y H V" are the three pillars of the world tree. The "Yud" is the male side, the "Vau" is the female side, and the "Heh" is the middle pillar. The ancient hieroglyph of Heh shows it to be the spinal pillar. This "Heh" is the word that "god" created the universe through. The universe in Kabbalah is the ten worlds, which are the ten utterances of creation in Genesis in the Torah.

The reason for this is that the ten worlds are the main chakra points along the spine and in the brain. That is ruled by Heh. The seven lower faces are the main chakras, and the three upper faces relate to the minor chakra points in the brain such as the pineal.

The next part of their "god" is simply the 10 worlds and the 22 letters. The name of their "god" is called the 22 letters in Kabbalah and this is what "god" creates through along with the ten chakras while using the energy of this together for magic. The ten worlds and 22 letters makes 32 which is given the name Lev in Kabbalah. This spells Leviathan.

In Kabbalah the worlds are joints in the spine, and the letters connect between them. This is because in Kabbalah each letter is shown relating to one of the vertebrae in the spine. This is done to raise their energy up the spine from Malkuth (the root) to Keter (the crown). The worlds are related to longer words of power in Hebrew to access the center and push the energy past the knot (or world or gate) that the chakra represents in the spine to the next one, moving all the way to the crown.

Yahweh in Kabbalah is stated to be both male and female, an androgynous being. This is the symbol of the androgynous serpent of Kabbalah, the Leviathan. The male and female parts of the serpent channels, and the male and female chakras united together.

In the Kabbalah, the Jewish Rabbis state that "god" is the Kabbalah tree that was just mentioned. And that the Jews are their own "god." This is due to the fact that the Kabbalah tree is the map of the Jewish soul, and nothing else.

In Hebrew and the ancient language "Than" means "serpent" and "Levi-Than" is the serpent of the Jews. The Levite is the leadership class of the Jews, which the Jewish Rabbis of today represent. This is why they are called the Kohen class. Kohen means serpent. The symbol of the leading Kohen is the crown of Keter showing that they have led the Leviathan to the crown, and thus become "god". This is all spelled out in the Torah which proves that this is the way it has always been in Judaism.

The Jewish Rabbis call their Torah nothing more than a thought form they have created with the 22 letters of Hebrew, and that they interconnect with their souls by the Shema and other ritual infusions and thus direct.

The Jews are the false gods of the Torah, Bible and Koran, and the Jews are the false gods of this planet.

The reason why the Leviathan is the serpent of the Jews and only designed for them is due to the fact (which the Rabbis themselves state) that the Jewish Race has a different soul structure from the Gentiles, and this information is suited only for them. Gentiles who try to use this do meet with all kinds of serious problems and ends. Even their own spiritual system shows that the Jew is an alien soul. To be a Kohen Jew, one has to be of the purest racial Jewish blood by their own Jewish laws. This is to ensure that those with the proper soul use this for success with this system and to maintain this leadership class. There are two types of angels in Kabbalah; one is simple thought forms, and the other is the seraphim that the Rabbis state are literally reptilian beings who appear to them and direct the Jewish People. What kind of an alien soul do the Jews have? The Kohen gene has reptilian DNA in it.

The Jewish Rabbis state that Satan represents the soul of the Gentiles and our spiritual systems which the Jews want gone totally from this planet as the biggest threat to them. The God and biological creator of Gentiles is called Amalek which is the occult name of Satan in Kabbalah. SA is soul in Sanskrit, and Tan is serpent. Satan means the serpent of the Gentiles; the soul of the Gentiles. This is also the serpentine system of the chakras and their nadis and petals, all of which are sound vibrations of the Sanskrit alphabet in the original Gentile teaching. The Jews warn their own to stay away from the Goyim's spiritual system as it is toxic to them. Many Jews have gone insane from not listening to that advice. They are an alien soul.

In ancient Aryan culture, Shaitana is the name of the serpent energy. This is Shaitan, which is another spelling of Satan.
