Our God Satan, and our Pagan Gods, are the most powerful. This has to be understood and ingrained in the mind, which in many, due to past indoctrination, has not become constant awareness.

All the claims of the enemy are lies against our ancestral Gods. Only spite, defamation, and lies. The heart of peoples of the earth may be asleep, but not forever. And this sleep is built on the nightmares of the enemy.

This situation will change and end in the future, as certain as the succession of the seasons, and the turns of the heavens. After death, there follows resurrection. And many in fear are of the dead husks, for they fear at the great resurrection of the Gods. But that is inevitable. It will happen, and it will come.

This path will always lead to success, spiritual advancement, and elevation. The Gods have had ruled this world, they remain in control of the world, while the enemy is only a recent and rather temporary harassment. A most parasitic and dangerous, for certain. Even until recently in human history, their influence was only to harm humans, and temporary.

They are being watched, and so are we being watched, and so is our planet, as one watches their children suffering from a cold, with great investment and great love. Certain things that make no sense to us humans, or appear to be devastating, for the Gods can be rather trivial.

Astarte one talked to me of our Earth, which many of humans are desecrating in blindness, as "Her beautiful beloved garden". If only our hearts were open to our Gods, what beauty could be received for humanity. All of our world would be spiritually and physically, a divine and beautiful Garden as Astarte saw our world.

This is where the enemy saw only nuclear devastation, pollution, fear, terror, and strangulation of humans. Out of these visions, only one will reign Triumphant, and this will be the vision of our Gods.

A garden filled with weeds only needs the proper gardener, and it will receive it's proper greatness. Beautiful and vibrant as ever.

Our Gods have persisted and went through the rise and fall of our civilizations. For all respects, and purposes, we humans are a lot like little babies compared to the Gods. The mightiest humans fall short, but regardless, the Gods do appreciate and look at our attempts with love and mercy, and adoration.

It is every-time that we do strives towards building and creation, that we resemble and emulate the things they created inside us, a living inheritance. The Gods love brave people who look up instead of down, and utilize the higher aspects of their existence. We were not made to be inferior limited slaves.

Our mind is the proof of this very aspect. Inside man rest wonderful creative, destructive, and limitless abilities. That is something to keep in mind. We have limitations, we learn, we advance, we strive to fight. Another thing that humans have a weakness on is that we are frequently deceived, and our small lifespan.

Other than that, the Gods have left their blueprint on our mind and soul. They exist inside us. The definite proof of this is that Satan, as it's known even in the history of his enemies, gave us a limitless mind, compared to that of all other animals.

We were gifted a lot, and this part constitutes an immortal aspect, the gateway of our species towards Godhead. The only thing that staggered behind is that human beings, we fell spiritually [were made to fall spiritually] and therefore we fell in the aspect of the "Eternal Life".

Our short lifespan, makes for a lot of mistakes. If people lived more, like 200, 300, or 500 or 1000 years, we would be far more caring about our environment, our planet, other people, and observe the reverberations of many of our actions within a said lifetime. But when we hardly live for a measly 50 or 60 years, stranded like spiritual prisoners, our species cannot really advance.

The Gods know this and they have helped us to build and rebuild, and sustain attacks. Individuals that cling to them, they give them the Magnum Opus so we can continue existing. Missions and work for Satan is always rewarded, with spiritual gifts and blessings that are beyond any and all physical and material value.

When all your flesh fails you, and when the darkest darkness falls upon you, always remember the Gods and keep them in your heart. The Faith in the Gods can level mountains. All obstacles that you have today, you have the ability to overcome them. You must know this in full confidence, you must ingrain this in your heart.

I always wrote to all of you to stay strong, as a nobody from the darkness, but you know this has not been nobody, and that you were ever alone either. None of you is a nobody.

There is great power in all of us, and you are coming to seek it, and you will find what your seeking is. You must get this through your mind, and your heart, and believe it, under any condition.

Maybe some people are, and maybe some will lose their way, in the maze of this world, but your soul will always belong with Satan and want to be back with the Gods. Throw your roots deeply and cling to him. Ignore his enemies, their lies.

Asmodeus said this: They are there for but a season. As the winter comes and claims the souls of the living, freezing the trees, and harming life, so will the end of their era not come peacefully. But then the spring of Satan and the summer of His People will come. Try to live for your dreams and for noble deeds, so that when our time comes, you will hold your head up high and know you did your best.

Do not waste and spend the limited time that we have on this earth being ignorant. Ignorance will lead you only to pain in the end, and you will always lose yourself in it. Self love to keep yourself from being lost is important, and life re-affirms itself.

We still follow the Divine Path, in the era where many fall into the abyss, we still climb up the mountain with a smile to our face. Obstacles, difficulties, death, happiness, nothing will deter us. If we fall, we rise again, and we will continue, again and again.

The desire to cleave to the highest light of the Gods must be fed and empowered. Veils will be put in front of your eyes, but power will be given to you to solve your riddles.

Have the courage to go against the tide of the reckless, the low, and those lacking honor. Eternal symbols and the eternal consciousness of Satan guides us. No matter what, we follow the Gods, as our ancestors did. The bond that relates us is in mind, soul, blood, and spirit, unbreakable.

Use what you have been given to ascend.

As it was real back then, it is real today, and so it will be forever,

Praised be Satan, The Most High...
