Everyone will have a lot of fun in the Leftist Gulag 2040, who are you to keep the jews away from their fun?”

2040 as I mention it here, is not a spiritual prediction, it's a scientific prediction of the year where the predictions based on currently existing data, White people will officially be a declining minority in the United States, which is the current world superpower, and the USA will no longer be a White Nation by population racial demographic standards.

With less White people who care for their Nation + Destroyed Middle Class + Infinite amounts of low wage serfs the companies can use + Jews in a more powerful position than before + Orwellian Tech Nightmare, the jews will just repeat what they did in the Soviet Union, and enslave everyone.

Demographically this situation is called "Blue Winter" because Democrats i.e., where all the Communists and Leftists are at this given time in politics, will enjoy permanent election and we are going to change to a single-party system in the United States. From there on, and without sizeable opposition, full-blown Communism may actually emerge.

No, I do not believe the enemy will win, but it will not be a flawless and peaceful time for White people. Pressures and persecution will intensify. However, there will be intense pressures exacted on White people in particular. There is a hardcore war ongoing, and things will become harder, but this is nothing new.

Possibly, we as a society may dwindle in a US Civil war, or other forms of warfare, which may not necessarily be as we can understand today, such as intense information war, persecution, and other things. This will be primarily by jews bolstering the so-called "Minorities" to take arms and try to usurp the Nation, for their own benefit. "The New Inhabitants" type of thing.

Given how race dynamics are formed in the US now, I cannot see such state of affairs going about peacefully. The jew will instruct revenge on purpose to destroy the United States completely, or devolve it into Communism. One just needs to see Black Lives Matter and understand where these things will be when certain groups have 30 or 40% representation.

Violence on the other hand may become a necessity to life for White people in the future, without any other choice left on the table, as political representation of jews and foreigners isn't going to work.

This is not a question of White people either, it's a general and more broad question of the Jews turning the United States into a desolate Communist land. Everyone will be down with a yoke equally. This is already happening, by the destruction of the Middle Class. Historically, the White Middle Class and Working Classes are the class that do revolutions, and not the lower classes or the top classes. Other classes worldwide didn't do anything in that regard.

20 years may sound like a lot of time, but it is not a lot of time at all. It's already 19 years, this one year has just passed.

Communism doesn't care what race you are, or if you are oppressed, or man or woman. Such categorizations don't exist because nobody gives a shit about the being itself. Everyone walks on with the yoke and dies in the Gulag equally.

In all honesty, I hope and work towards spiritually and as everyone does with Information Warfare that these states of disaster are not met before Whites reasonably wake up. Naturally it's said only when shit hits the fan people will wake up, and that is correct, but the individuals deserving of life will hear the call earlier than this.

We have been doing tremendous progress, so this makes me personally optimistic we won't have to go down all the way to this suffering to understand. Only the strictest in retardation are going to suffer to great extents.

On the other end these chaotic things and negative things happening, may finally alert White people to stop fucking around, or have to die off, which in my eyes, is not a bad thing to be forced to decide by circumstances, either. We have been the good and helpful goys to this planet for a long time, benefiting, discovering, and advancing for everyone else, and killing ourselves, getting defamed, and now our misplaced sympathies creating a death situation.

We have to love our friends, and those who want us to exist like we do for them, and everyone else, and not love our enemies and these unhealthy things. A species with these beliefs will not survive. If it does survive it will only be under slavery status.

The above has to end if we are to live and progress in the future.

I believe in the concept that Waking Up should come at any cost. If one slap or two suffice, then fine. But in the case of seriously asleep people, extreme shocks may be required, and these things will happen. Others may never wake up. But this type of people is already dead in a sense. These will assimilate, and get drained down the sludge while they are in an asleep state.

It has been stated before only when our back is on the wall, we will wake up. We are waking up en masse before this, breaking this paradigm to an extent. This is GOOD news. If your back is on the wall, you may die before you wake up, and fighting back up will be impossible or really difficult. But what is for sure, when the back is on the wall, all, even the most enslaved, get a surge to awaken.

One way or another this thing is coming and there is no turning back, so the sooner and the more willing we are to wake up, the less people will suffer.

Individuals who are more woke will suffer less. This is the same thing as a Scientist observing a coming tsunami. The people who want to spend the last moment having sunbathing on the beach and ignore all the warnings, will be those who will die and suffer the crushing wave. Those who open their eyes in time, may be able to evacuate with a car. Those who are even more aware such as weather scientists, will be able to evacuate days earlier, and get no damage.

Similar is the case for Whites who are asleep. This is an undeniable natural law, and those who are sleeping in looming danger, will be the first to get it. Satanists will be safe through all of this, despite of anything, because Meditation done for long, creates a strong mind and power that one can apply to save themselves.

On a positive note, jews have far more many things to fear, and earlier than our "Calculated death". They are going to be done with possibly way earlier. People already have gotten wind of them.
