This gives me an opportunity for a general reply here.

The "Founders" might be, but what about developers, engineers and so on? Jews will of course be at the top as most Gentiles don't want to give 50$ to something meaningful that could affect human life.

Many also have many other bright goals that consist of doing only goy things all day. Even if the goy makes 10,000$ per week, it will sometimes be 9,000$ in booze and worthless pursuits, and then a thousand so they don't get evicted.

Because the striking majority of Gentiles are right now busy cross legged somewhere only doing weed and jacking off on pornhub all day, so technically speaking manifestation of advances or influence on them doesn't really manifest through these people.

That's the wrong route man takes without spiritual guidance. Eventually this does nothing to evolve them but devolve them. As one goes down the ladder of evolution into wrong practices, others can eventually enslave them.

Gentiles have at least half of the blame for the situation with jews. The Jews didn't come with an invading army and by force to win people over. They are there because Gentiles have completely mismanaged themselves. Jews running the world is not only because of jews themselves.

In fact, it's in the absence of others that they run the world.

The whole "But JEWS!!!" is just a stupid orc type of mentality which dwells inside people who always deny self responsibility.

If people wanted to do better they could actually start lifting their asses and let go of the eternal "Muh Jew" victimhood status. This "Muh Jew" victimhood status is unfitting for anyone's ancestors.

It's also technically unfitting for anyone being a Spiritual Satanist as when you are a Spiritual Satanist you remove a giant part and then the whole yoke of the jew.

However Gentiles are going to be busy calling me Evil Hitler for telling them that, jacking off to previous eras of Gentile attainment, allowing pencil necks and insta skanks to tell them what to do and to be sissies, hoping in some corner this practice will produce only just a dopamine rush if ever, allowing themselves to drop on the lowest levels of human purpose and productivity, to become dopamine infested enslaved freaks that scroll phones for 7 hours per day, and then somewhere along the lines as they are a farm animal and look above the ceiling and they see the jews laughing at the pig farm, they are like "Oh, Jews run it!"

At least we can thank them for that instead of being a completely blind resource to the jew. Ok, now that we know about this tragic mistake, what is the next logical thing any self respecting individual, female or male, ought to do? Of course start reversing this practice and start becoming a proper human being.

Great, Jews run this, have that, what have you, again, we know. Kanye recently said everything too, maybe someone else will go sacrifice themselves on a giant furka for humans to know again.

But people must then accept they no longer want to be pigs and decide to run out of the farm. You can do this and it's possible now. If you are reading this, you are out. But still one has the form of the pig they need to drive away, the spell of the jew who turned them into nothing of what humans ought to be.

As the jews will be busy doing a 50,000$ baby shower for another kike just because the worthless creature needs to open a business at some point, Gentiles will sit on the corner and spend 500$ weekly on alcohol and other devastating things for themselves and others.

"Jews' fault, they run it", lol.

Gentiles will require state level negotiations to do the absolute minimum for what will save their life, or to do something brave to expand what matters, like for the JoS [and in most cases not even negotiate] yet when a Rabbi gives a phone call to Mr Bankman Fried from FTX, oh, he within 5 years will do his mission to bring home in Israel the loot for 30 billion and to corrupt fool Zelensky.

Because apparently this kike and the kikes around him care, and they are like, you know what, gotta remain dominant on this planet, yes. Gotta avoid goy waking up, yes.

Goy always will be that 'What if I give this, well no, I need something, maybe, whatever, next week, wait until I become trillionaire, what is going on why yall trying to scam my weed money', the list goes.

In short one has to first start escaping the goy mentality, and then set their sights towards a better version of self through the practices and a generally better outlook on life. Simultaneously with this, one must work on great works that will involve them and others. This is how one truly frees people and their minds from the jews on the actual level inside a soul.

OK, jews run things. Maybe it's about time the goy stops whining about the Jews and starts doing something positive instead of whining at this all day. I had enough "Jews run this", we know they do, of all places, everyone knows this. Especially Spiritual Satanists have fewer things than anyone to fear and one is at no excuse besides their own self of never seeking to do anything.

What was putting the jew above others was simply the fact the "others" didn't have spiritual knowledge. We solved this and keep solving this subject.

As many of our own are also animal goys and saboteurs of anyone who tries to do better in life [our GLORIOUS PEOPLES and RACIAL COMPATRIOTS, who will gun you down if you don't believe in Rabbi Jesus the master jew in the Bible belt] One has to understand our relationships can only be limited. Our loyalty to our species is focused on a loyalty to our species dealing with the higher and awakened elements of that species, and also, those who want to do anything besides complaining.

The bullshit nonsense of the whole "National Socialist" wing ever since Hitler with the sole exception of Commander Rockwell and very few people has always been nothing at all in my opinion. It's a waste of human energy and nothing else.

I personally admire Adolf Hitler for his success as a human being that rose the spiritual ladder, the Divine Dharma he showed to the world, and not because I wanted to hate kikes because I can't stop drinking beers and I want to sit somewhere telling myself all day "it's the jews' fault" that nobody of my bunch actually did anything whatsoever except of watching pornhub all day and going around aimlessly with a truck to find a better place to fart into for 8 hours straight for yet another night, and never going to get educated or study or go to the gym because I couldn't be bothered, or never doing any craft and mastering it with my own hands.

The so called "politics" around this subject at this time and era is, the "Agencies" are going to be with you in no time to offer you grenades and means of violence, to make you into some sort of terrorist, and then put you in jail to sit there while you sit with your hand vertically and say "Hail...I forgot his name because I didn't even have a moment to study about him...Oh yes, Hitler".

Therefore, as I see from reality, the above beliefs are only obsolete. The Eternal Dharma of the people is still there and always has been. We are moving forward into a state of higher understanding which has far distanced itself from the political narratives on jews, to an existential narrative on them.

This existential narrative adds on us new wings of self development and responsibility.

That's why I am not and will never be in any politics on the subject. This subject was never political, it has to do with species development. No development = do as many parties as you want = fail equally. Only a part of it can ever be reflected in politics.

Without self evolution and without assumption of personal responsibility, and turning one's sights to the greater potential of one's race, Whites have nothing to ask from their future. The same goes for Blacks and Asians and anyone else.

Spiritual Satanists must stand above this context as eagles with open eyes, and instead of complaining of anything, must accept and move on to solve.

Let us further demystify why jews have everything and do "everything": Because Gentiles are being bred to be and accept to be lazy, don't want to do what it takes, and they lack bravery and determination to do things with their existence.

Here's the demystified recipe. As one fixes the above, they will do meaningful things for their people and society, and definitely to the extent of their capacities do something wonderful and great in life.
