

Muslim "Hero" Saves Baby From Balcony HOAX

HP Hooded Cobra 666

In France right now there is a silent political upheaval going. Merely over the fact many people live in neighborhoods such as the one below. From internal police memos that policemen put out anonymously, it's stated a guerrilla war is happening in France. Below the "obvious" of course.

I do not agree with the contents of the site below.

https://diversitymachtfrei.wordpress.co ... in-france/

What intel from the French Police is stating on the fact, based on paramilitary Muslim operations in France who are starting to take place without any (((Media coverage))):

"A large number of "faint signs", as the politicians like to call them, are passing unnoticed.

Among my comrades in the GIGN assault unit, members of and connected to intelligence units, all of these signals confirm that a guerrilla scenario is establishing itself amid a deafening silence. Our message is simple: prepare yourself."

I knew people had low intelligence, but this has exceeded expectations of what a false jewish operation can work on the unknowing populace. Which is what the title is all about. Literally people are either walking bots or outright retarded. But also you can see along the lines the media has lost all credibility and everyone knows they are shooting transformers in the public in the form of 'news' in order to promote specific agendas.

So here below there is a video of supposedly a kid which is 4 years old hanging from a building, and a black "MUSLIM" (the media especially emphasizes this fact of him being Muslim) man (who truth be told is a calisthenics master) goes up to "save" it. There are Arab doctors that save people on a frequent basis, but the jew will never focus on them because they hate these people. Instead they will focus on very specific cases that emote their agenda, such as ILLEGAL IMMIGRANT MALI MUSLIM BLACK GUY BALCONY MEME TO BE GRANTED LEGAL STATUS (ps glory be to his big assumed bbc ladies and gents).

If the man did what he did honestly, then pardon me...YET. Yet if one looks on the video many times and uses their brain, this comes into many illogical fallacies as it's always the case with the false crap the media puts forth. However, this video is emotionally charged as usual, so people deny said facts.

Clearly the propaganda here is insane, and what has been made from an event like that. The firefighters save people like that every single day to not get 10 seconds in jewtube or jew-tv. But when a MUSLIM does it, oh my! They can save your life, white Goyim. If we take around 170 balcony savings to meet just one number of a terrorist attack conducted by the radicals of this group in Bataclan.

But let's not forget you stupid goyim, this was a MUSLIM SAVIOR here. You need MORE of such in your country. As the bots and the braindead zombies say in the comments of the videos. Probably sponsored by Israel.

Why is Israel kicking out all Muslims and Black people alike? But Jewish news outlets like CNN focus so much on said incidents where by coincidence some people helped someone...

That is...If we are to presuppose what the video is true...

If you have ever seen a 4 year old, you know, if these kids approach the balcony, they will instantly fall. At 4 years old you do not have the muscular power to be held up for that long. Not even in some cases the intelligence to understand that this is a 4-story building. Also fear from the child would instantly have them falling down, not hanging there like spider-man. They do not have the muscle power to hold themselves up either. Someone has to manually put the 4-year-old here, and be crazy enough to keep it there with their hands. As it seems to be the case with the guy holding the poor baby there so these people can do their 'stunt'.

It's also not unlikely the kid is attached with some sort of rope, around the waist, as it's typical and they do this in all sorts of stunts in movies as well, and it appears as if you are holding from the back. And of course, a fully grown man can't pull the child up and looks what one can say is...Completely chill and content during this stunt.

It looks like a hell of a coincidence to have a person who can raise up like that as a calisthenics master, in a hotel where uhm...You can grab the balcony almost in a calculated distance because there are gaps in every balcony floor, and the size of the floors is exactly what one can climb...and uhm, save a bebe that is magically hanging there for what appears to be a few minutes. The guy said he came out from the car as he was passing by and saw the baby hanging...What sort of hulk is that baby to hang on for so long that people have the time to pull cameras out, film it, and stop random passerby's to do something...This must be the kid of the hulk...

Somehow the baby also found itself in the balcony, while supposedly, it was 'home alone'. And then stood there for solid minutes doing Spiderman. Until its savior came.

Look literally the comments and you will see these are jewish bots there putting them. Blaming Trump, always about "GOD" and how it was his purpose to be there to save the baby (SO GOD ALSO DEMANDS YOU LIVE WITH THESE PEOPLE GOY) and all these stupid reasonings that you would only expect animals to make. These are more than likely paid bots, same as the whole situation.

There are numerous almost verbatim comments targeting all sorts of different European countries and Trump. Some even attack random people like Nigel Farage or some shit. This is obviously jews behind the keyboard, trying to alter popular opinion. Read some if you have time and you are willing to waste braincells. UK is literally an illegal migrant worldwide toilet. But the jewish propaganda is you don't have enough unless all the native English are dead or assimilated...So...

Some comments for example:

"You know if this was the UK, Theresa May would put him on the first plane back to Mali as this government only cares about deportation regardless of circumstances. He would be seen as not having paperwork just like the wind rush generation who have lived and worked in the UK for decades and were forcefully sent to the Caribbean."

Now when one knows a presidential schedule. Even 10 minutes from the president's time are extremely important. Yet Macaron Burka Salami Emanuel was ready to meet this person in less than 24 hours...Does that make any sense...And they aired it also like instantly...The next day he also went into every single TV panel. The amount of time needed to even make an appointment at such, can it happen in less than one day?

Emanuel Macaroni Salami is going to also give this guy citizenship. Well better than many others they give citizenship through, at least this guy is great at calisthenics and acrobatics. The thing is Emanuel Macaroni didn't even have time to meet with the guys that single-handedly stopped a train terrorist attack. They were not filling the profile of "saviors" we need today.

As for people doing such crazy shit, all I have to say, Michael Jackson. The media lied he wanted to throw his kid down or that he was mentally sick. But this is to say that people CAN actually do such stuff if it is for publicity. Jackson said he did it so he would gain love and acceptance and because he wanted to share his love with the world. The jew attacked Michael Jackson and accused him of drug abuse but that's beyond the point.

Michael Jackson was BLACK but became WHITE. For those who understand the subconscious correlation here I have nothing to add. Exaggerated? Maybe...Maybe not...

Of course the hooknose media is trying to make a racial fuss over it, justify the 'migrant' policies, and of course enforce the meme of Wakanda at this point. To justify everything shitty ever happens.

The same media that won't report or make a fuss on the "hero" in the below article and many other tens of thousands of crimes committed like that every month.

Anyway, another baby at 7 years old was raped, but CNN isn't going to report this.

And this is why we rim you and destroy you with the RTR's until all of you "journalists" remain without a loaf of bread to eat for the crimes against truth you commit every day. This below is an example of thousands of said crimes happening in the US every few weeks or so.

But I guess Hanging Baby Meme brushes it all out. If one person acts in heroism and is decent, then all other millions who rape, look, kill, steal and parasitize are also automatically absolved.

As a last comment. I do not disagree with the heroic deed of the person granted we are to assume it was true. If that is so then they deserve what is coming at them.

However at the jews purposefully misinforming people and making this too political, we have to think to that. Because facts are way different than what these cockroaches present.

In some other headlines they even say "Black Muslim Hero" to obviously funnel Muslims and the pro-Muslim propaganda etc. On one hand jew media says 'we shouldn't mention the races', on the other, if a race of their liking does something, it all becomes a racial issue.

Somehow the geniuses that comment on this also say shit like "AND YES, TRUMP PUTS ALL IMMIGRANTS OUT! BUT WHEN THEY SAVE YOU IT'S GOOD THING!".

I guess everyone, even Mexicans, can use more Mexican drug cartels and gangs, or criminals, who are the main ones getting deported from the US if one checks into the facts beyond feelings. So, this "idiot" Trump puts them out. Apparently to be multicultural enough you have to keep all criminal elements in your land so you gain social approval by the braindead Marxist cultural sheep. If their own children get sold for organs by these gangs, it's so bad. But so long these criminal elements roam free in a society we are 'humanitarian enough' and 'non racist enough' so we need to get a shiny badge for it.

With levels of stupidity that high, we have to do our part with the RTR's everyday, because at this point people are walking dead, and braindead. If we don't do it, the jew will keep playing people on a stick until we go extinct or they enslave everyone.

The fact that knowledge is raising doesn't mean automatically people will snap from this braindead coma situation they are in.
