

On the Economic Collapse etc.

Thankfully, nothing major has happened, just yet. This is no different than the "microchip" and other things, that the enemy has been for the late years trying to force people to get, but has failed and failed again. This is positive and we should be thankful for that (but nevertheless prepared to fight and keep fighting against these things).

Every year many people predict such things will surface, but for many reasons they do not. One reason is this may manifest in another way, or quite suddenly, not on any appointed day. For that reason, people need to be prepared and mindful.

This is entirely positive and shows the enemy is losing power, in that they cannot have the world as their playtoy anymore. Also, this shows, aside with many other signals, that our workings are taking place, really bad on them. The kikes have been always known for never going down peacefully and in the recent years many of their plans have failed. This started shortly after 2000. Satan and the Powers of Hell have specified that everything should happen with as much as less suffering and destruction as possible. The Gods don't want any famine, any war or anything to break out and they are working around the clock where this is possible, to save us from suffering. Yet the kikes are right now pushing other frontiers, as their wishes are being shunned. They tried to pass the acts on the Internet, they surely had some economic thing in the tracks as many have predicted this and the list goes on and on. This doesn't mean they can do all they want and all they please.

Now, for those who are unaware. One must always be ready for such disasters. Unfortunately, history has many more instances to show where people have been suddenly robbed of their freedoms and enslaved, rather than instances where people got suddenly and without a drop of blood, Freer than they were. In fact, the second only happened very few times. The economic crashes of 2008, 1929 and so forth, show something very important: "It hits fatally and only when few or nobody knows". Predictions are one thing, reality is another. The enemy has had the bigger say in what "reality" was going to be. They have destroyed whole Nations by economic warfare and it's no secret. This also largely depends on other Global Players, as in, there isn't only Europe and America in the World.

There are other places where the kikes have either been losing grip, or these are acting disobediently towards them.

For that reason, and for generally handling one's life better, people should guard themselves. This involves getting a better job, saving, keeping things that might help you or in case anything goes down, you are prepared. The jews teach their fellow jews about these things, but Gentiles are blind in regards to that. We always think it will simply be a merry ride, but in fact, many times one gets hit in the head with the shovel of reality so to say. One must always find themselves prepared- period. Satan and the Powers of Hell have shown me years ago a diagram. This was a diagram of "energies that are set". Energies that are set means, the energies that somehow create "Karma" or fate. This was for the collective of the planet. Given there was no energy against this (the jews and the idiots have been shaping this reality and the future by occult means) there would be much suffering indeed. As the years went and Satanists fought and as we still fight, we are creating a better condition and we are already "Steering" the Wheel towards a better way. For anything that is "prophesized" or "predicted" and does not happen, this is very positive, in that our side is gaining ground and we are forcing things to another, better direction for Gentiles.

Satan and the Gods want no suffering to emerge. This is all they are about and this is why they wanted to perfect Humanity. Many will also notice how after years of meditation and being closer to the Powers of Hell, life will get better, they get better, their Soul gets better. The same principle applies to the "diagram" above. When one is born, Karma is "set". Now if you have the knowledge and you are using it, you change this "setting" until you are literally off the "Wheel of Karma" altogether. This is where one is free and they can guide their life as they see fit. The enemy and this are in their bible, in the "prophets" and all that ilk, they have plans for eternal, physical and spiritual suffering of Humanity.

Idiotic xians and fools are praying day and night, that that shit manifests and so forth. Though there are also people that don't really want this to happen. And this would happen if people weren't escaping of this filthy crap. But people do. Why? Because the Powers of Hell have freed this society and they are helping Humanity. Nobody could escape in the old times and this is a fact. Yet now, people are becoming more and more disobedient to the enemy teachings, Humanity advances technologically, kikes are being wiped out and so are their teachings and people are waking up. This is why the people of Satan and these Souls have been sent here. To change the course of this shithole so that people will not destroy themselves as predestined by the enemy. Remember, "Destiny" is nothing but set energies, so is "Karma". There is no jewish "God's Will" and other things. They simply utilized spiritual knowledge, butchered people, stole this knowledge and upon agreement with enemy hostile ET's they are trying to further their ends, which are suffering, enslavement and worse. This doesn't mean they will, or even remotely "should" succeed.

So long Satanists fight and give a stand and so long the Powers of Hell fight for these things, we will prevail. Any bad thing that doesn't escalate or gets erased, so that people live well, is a victory for us. Every time freedoms are preserved and Humanity gets better, it's a victory for us. This means conditions are getting better. Satan and the Gods even fought to get us out of the worst of times, the Middle Ages. They slowly have woken us up. The same applies everywhere. The Gods of Hell are nothing but positive when it comes to Gentile Humanity. They want us to advance. This is what they have been doing for hundreds of thousands of years. They have been fought severely for this, as there are other lifeforms that want us to destroy ourselves or be enslaved. One must bear this in mind. From watching Global affairs, the kikes are being turned down for their terrorism and people are waking up -really bad- and real fast. Their actions aren't anymore helping them hide. Also, they seem to have put the weight to the Middle Eastern situation (ISIS and other Savages) and on the immigration policy, to damage people from another frontier.

Damage is not always economic, by disease, etc. They are pushing other matters, as in trying to incite Racial Warfare in the media, massive immigration and so forth. Economic Collapse is a "fatality" playing card. While if they play it, they may fuck everyone, they may as well fuck themselves up in the end. So, they are now pushing immigration and racial hatred first, so when the rug is pulled from beneath our feet, we Gentiles will simply turn to slaughter one another. In the meantime, most jews are migrating to Pissrael. This is all for a reason.

All in all, the War still goes on. And we must safeguard what is ours, while attacking the enemy, without stopping. This is very serious. The jews have been building this legacy of theirs for hundreds upon hundreds of years, so they are where they are.

KEEP FIGHTING!!!
