A homosexual is someone who used to be A Woman or Man in Past Life Incarnations on Earth and is now playing A New Role you know the different gender they used to be and still need adequate time to fully transition into their roles as "New Men" or "New Women". Science proves it these people are in no way shape or form a detriment to society. It in no way shape or form messes them up while completing spiritual assignments on Earth be it Satanism or RHP stuff for Outsiders.

I note with homosexual men and women. There are Yin and Yang behaviours and people. One of my close family members is Gay, his partner is very feminine and he is very masculine. Yin and Yang. This is because this principal plays out across the board in nature among heterosexuals as well. Not do any past lives as the opposite sex nonsense.

Yup, I can confirm this as well.

Gender does not change throughout lifetimes. There are men who are feminine in their behavior, and there are men that are masculine. Same with women, there are feminine women and masculine women. In terms of behavior, soul, thinking and all this. I could never believe that one can in past lifetimes be another gender, it just feels wrong to me and except of that, I have enough knowledge to know differently.

Being homosexual hasn't got to do with your gender, but your polarity and something else deeper too. So, as it has been said, it's in the psyche.

For instance, one can be a man with a masculine prone tendency. He isn't necessarily searching for a female or male. Just someone who is feminine. Whichever gender the male would want, as a partner, is a whole different thing again in the Soul, but it's more than just polarity. It's in the setup.

Homosexuals are as natural as Heterosexuals. Homosexuality occurs in animals. Bisexuality is also natural.

HAIL SATAN!!!!
