"The Victory of Allah is very near so people need to prepare themselves for a wave of Sharia and Islam" said the brownie criminal. He is probably living out freely, organizing rapes and the next terror attack.

"The Victory of Satan is very near so people need to prepare themselves for a wave of jewish hatred, death of pastime jewish gods and the uprising of Satansim" I say. We are obviously the pagan bad boys, rolling wheels in Hell. Okay, then so be it. Grab a wheel and ride on my side.

These people make their thing happen. They try to force people to extinction; they are taking physical actions for their so called "bordallah" and they keep murdering and raping every day. Have you done your Reverse Torah Rituals for the day? Because if you think the USA or elsewhere is going to be excluded, you better wake the fuck up.

Do I need to comment on the above? These people will soon put rape and Sharia law as a normal and great thing. They will soon get out and say how good is to be raped or something.

As you can see, Aryans are being set to the way for their destruction and death by the jews. You see some people who are race traitors, cucklords and faithless SCUM love the shekels and they think that somehow, after their Races and people are gone, they will somehow survive good. Bad news it is that the jews have their graves prepared for them too if they let this escalate.

Just look at these disgusting pieces of life and what they tell women.

For Women living in Europe, amongst the midst of rapefugees, until there is physical protection and real men are here to protect you in ways these migrants will definitely NOT like... And until the issue is COMPLETELY solved, there are practical things that can be done.

Of course, Satanic Women have the Spiritual means to do this, but there are handy things one can do too. I am typing this for certain reasons and hyenas, that this is not advocacy to any action. This is just logic. Pure, common sense. Go with the laws in your country about this. If you are lucky to live in a country where you can have a gun, by all means, have a gun. Now this goes to all women.

1. Get a pepper spray. Right in the eyes of the victim.
2. Deliver fatal kicks to their crotch. Literally. This will render any male defenseless and you will have time to escape. They can also end up eternally infertile.
3. Aim for the throat. If you are lucky enough to land just one punch on the invader's throat, they will soon drop senseless and on the floor. Aiming for the left side is also a good alternative. Taking classes on self defence and such can also render them helpless. These so-called "men" aren't even males but monkeys of the lowest level.
4. Don't wait for others to protect you and don't depend on the police and such, because the police will only come AFTER the incident has happened, if they ever arrive. If someone is so stupid as to assume they are to take out the phone, call, wait for the police and at the same time hold the invader in "stasis" with the force or saying "no" (like the rapist gives any fuck), then you are Darth Vader and you have advanced too far from Humanity, or you are just a beta feminist waiting to get raped. You can see why in the above highly intelligent videos. I don't need to comment on this apparent overflow of intelligence.
5. Buy a taser. Self-explanatory. Will knock any fool senseless. A gun taser might be the one too.
6. There are also other alternatives, you can imagine what this is.
7. On a more spiritual note, program your aura to siphon the will of criminals who want to do this to you. There are many alternatives, one can think of these.
8. Don't go on territories that you know that you should not go. Also, don't fuck up your consciousness with altering alcohol or anything else that weakens you and makes you vulnerable. Animal Party living didn't make any woman happy. Mostly drugged and raped in many cases.

The above will guarantee you safety. There are also other things, but this was just general advice.
