The situation is going to heat up considerably, and we will see things that we have "never seen" before.

This thread is open for conversation about how any sort of problem that may arise during this time. We are going to also open another thread if necessary.

The external world is going on a very chaotic situation. However, Satanists do also have an internal world.

And when this internal world is in order, none of this is going to scare you or phase you, and in fact, you might enjoy a little action: Because you keep in your mind the good news and the good tidings that will arrive after this whole thing is over with.

Certainly we are not there yet, but every moment deeper into the darkness, also brings us closer to the final light of it.

The enemy is getting exposed, and even-though it all looks rather scary, problematic, or the worst people have experienced, the reality is, this is the setting up of the perfect foundations for a future net increase of quality of existence for our world.

Speaking of pandemics, all they are doing now is like a virus, going rampant, which is in effecting kicking up the immune system to learn to adjust to this danger of the enemy. Before that, the infection was really latent and hiding. Now, it's actually fighting with the immune system.

In the eyes of a patient this is terrible news, but in the eyes of a doctor, it's actually good news. The outlook I want to keep everyone focused, is that of the doctor, and not the patient. We are not patients here.

We know what is going on, and we have been immunized through information about what is going on, such as about freedoms for example.

Humanity has had quite a lot of ignorant time for the last few decades, and this hasn't helped. As Jefferson said, the well of freedom has to be refreshed with new blood every so often [paraphrasing here big time].

With that being stated, this was something that was going to arrive and everyone here knew that. I know it may be extremely weird to actually see it happening, but everyone here has been prepared.

What HPS Maxine has also stated, was a very serious statement about how all of this is going to unfold. Things will go as she said, but we are a few years behind of the positive things for now. First, the negatives are going to be experienced.

According to the planets, which rarely lie about that phenomena, this will last a while. Everyone here has to be mentally, spiritually, and in other ways, prepared. Some countries will have it far worse than others, but all will be strangulated by the Jewish freemasonic clique [until humanity reacts] to all sorts of freedom crushing practices.

Currently, the ongoing rape of freedoms is going to be at the highest. Saturn will also retrograde and continue the damage. Heavy damages to freedoms will keep occurring worldwide, until at least the June of next year.

I know this sounds like a lot of time, but that's what this is. There is also going to be violence, restrains, abuse of power, and all sorts of other negativity. This will cause major reactions in the populace.

Both the "unvaccinated" and the "vaccinated" will experience their own end of suppression, and none will be exempt from what is coming. It's a convenient lie that the enemy is using that neither will have it better, because in one way or another, everyone will have their rights shrunk.

Co-Vid as a pandemic "In itself" will have few things to do with this, as most of this is going to be just a using of the opportunity for powers that be and the jewish agenda to promote itself. At the same rate, this is the foundation on which future resistance will be built. Many have been waking up, but these things that will happen, will wake up many sleepers more.

Keeping optimal mental and spiritual health through this is necessary, and meditation will provide this for everyone. This is NOT the end of the world or anything like this, but many of these measures can be crushing to many people worldwide. Nobody is exempt, and billions are undergoing the same condition.

Much of this is warfare for the mind, so that people comply to the "New Reality". It's therefore necessary for everyone to know how to ignore these things, and focus on other aspects of life for the time being. There's no use focusing your next three years doing skiing or whatever, if you know that it won't be the case.

Stay strong and simply try to do your best within your ability. Many people will be at their wits end with the enemy soon, and this is only the beginning of it all.

Also, some of us may also have to act in one way or another, and our rituals will bolster morale for people to fight back while they de-synthesize and destroy the enemy.

Hello,

Usually I don't make posts like that and I don't like to seem that I'm bitching and complaining. BUT the situation is heating up in some countries and Europe, mine is no exception..

Today I saw a disturbing video on tik tok platform how police in Australia are stopping random people IN THE HIGHWAY to see "the doctor".. Person is refusing to go but policemen are saying "No you need to see a doctor" ..

Mine country is no exception they are planning from Monday to don't allow not vaccinated people in almost any places like hospital, restaurant and even use public transportation..

So I was thinking is this really it? Is this how it's going to be? It seems like there is no solution I don't have enough money to just go and live alone in small village or something.. BUT if I take this nasty as dirty filthy ass bullshit I probably wont recover of all depression and sadness that would come with this, I would feel like I submitted and ("they") won.. And I'm not like that I want to fight (doing my rtr part and so on..)

BUT PLEASE TELL FEW THINGS:

When all hope seems to be lost is Satan and Demons will assist and things like that..?

And is there any chance to Satanic soul to heal from this ..?

Those who have communication and be on the astral tell me what's the situation out there.. Does better energy's or something is coming along the way to wake up more people or expose jews..? thank you..

I don't know what I'm even writing I just feel very sad and more then ever Angry about all of this bullshit..

THANK YOU FOR ALL RESPONSES..

HAIL SATAN!
HAIL LILITH!

I love then with all my heart and I believe that something happen and this mess will be better for at least some time..
