

The Qliphothic Kabbalah

This is a very dangerous jewish construct. Which unfortunately many people who want to meddle with Satan (from the safe jewish nanny and based on her permission) do unfortunately follow. Because they erroneously assume that these things actually have in some way to do with jews, since the jews abused them and incorporated them as perversions of declared 'dead elements' in their occultism.

These systems are created to cause delusional paranoia, destabilize the mind, while also doing typical genie tasks for the idiots who practice them to draw them in. Even Rabbis tell their own to never practice these as these were made to ruin the mind. There are stories of Rabbis who have ruined themselves by the practice of such things. As these are based on the JHVH and the enemy jewish spirituality that works in a similar pattern. They promise some shekels and easy solutions for everything, so the naive idiots do it, get drawn in, and then they get eaten.

Typically in this system people who wanted to play 'creative' and 'spiritual masters' or 'wannabe Rabbis', they infested it even more over the years, creating monstrosities that little even they understand what actually do to them. Then you have clowns like EA Koetting who simply 'summon for fun' and do all sorts of other things for Emo schoolchildren.

Qliphoth means husk or empty shell. What the jews mean by husk is that it's like you have a fruit or something. You remove the content and you are coming in contact with the useless husk. Which is the general idea of how the jews created their occult system. They removed the essence of the Gods, made copies of their empty husks, and integrated them into a system where they attempt to present them as part of the tree of "JHVH". This is because the names of the Gods themselves have been slightly altered, and this created a second thoughtform or a husk.

In this case you use the husk, so you think you are eating on fruit, but the jews have removed the actual quality, nutrition (spiritually speaking) and true essence of the fruit, filling the fruit with poison, for the Goyim who want to attain spiritual knowledge by trying to find their old Gods. Even the shape resembles the rotten apple as it once was, and it also has the tag "Made in Israel" on it. These so called "Satanists" are just eating rotten husks, which are indeed, very close to their general emo perception around worshipping death, nihilism, and living at the bottom of the spiritual chain because the jews said so.

Basically just doing exactly what the jews said and dictated the "Dark Goyim" should be doing. To send them to the grave and to insanity and drugs directly. This is exactly why the "Satanism" has been a circus before we came along. Plagued by self-deceptive filth, practices of personal decay, and generally what jews would wish to fall upon their enemies who dared try to find out about their Old Gods. I see many of these so called "Satanists" with big pity myself. Many of these institutions are also jew-infested from top to bottom, contributing to the racial warfare of the jews attacking the Gentile mind.

Satanists are really bad Goys, and they created specific plans to subvert them. Because the jews have full knowledge of what True Satanism means, but they project otherwise onto the silly Goys. Who take their word for granted unfortunately sometimes based on misinformation.

If you pay close attention Koetting is not looking like a jew either. So he is just an emo, dark kind of actor, taking for granted jewish crap and applying it, while giving these to the public for self-evaluation and financial gains as well.

He is a Goyim eating from the Husks...Made in Israel...

Sometimes truly they get an experience back, but this experience is always painted and tainted through negative forces, who have a worse higher objective: to hide all the understanding from the person. There is no true wisdom in any of these experiences, just fun, giggles, and a lot of theatricalities involved. This is why the jews created the Qlippothic Kabbalah and the jewish Satanism in the first place, to counter-react to what Satanism already was. Which is Satyanism, the source of True Spirituality. This culture is a jewish reaction to the true culture of what Satanism is about.

The 'practitioners' don't know jack shit about what is going on in regard to their working. And unknowingly they are basically using their own powers of manifestation, sometimes making these systems work. This is because they subconsciously believe that since these look so dark and crappy, these have to also be successful. So sometimes, here and there, they can have outcomes. In more serious cases where the enemy draws interest to destroy the Gentiles using these, they destroy them directly and entice them in deception until they are destroyed. These are the jewish systems. Even Rabbis have been destroyed by the monstrosities their own race has created.

Actual Satanism is quite different. All the power is on the person, all the knowledge, and all the wisdom. One doesn't simply go into a plane to fly (and possibly crash to Pissrael) but actually learn to drive the plane, recharge it, learn all its secrets, and also grow an understanding of the purpose of using the plane and way more. This is how Spiritual Satanism works and for this reason we tell you, AVOID THE EXCREMENT OF THE ENEMY! If you want to create Disneyland and be the princess until the weight of your ignorance crashes on you, certainly, go ahead.

But if you want to worship Satya - Satan, the Truth, you have to follow rigid meditation routines which will lift the veils from your eyes so you can see the Truth, sometimes, too unpleasant to those living in fairyland. Spirituality is very scientific, it's not only about make-believe, spooks and imagination. It's as accurate and as dependant-upon as being a science about existence.

Lastly, why some people find 'results' in these things, are only because truly, spiritual powers are within. Because they so much believe that by doing such things they will experience results, they also create them. This is a very basic level of magick which is very Samsaric, and is quite similar to simply what the Christians do in praying to the idols of Rabbi Jesus without understanding that they are fulfilling their own 'prayers'.

True Prayer towards the Gods is past these 'veils' of perception, and reaches the Gods directly. Satan and the Gods don't hide behind their finger telling people that they are this and that, they show obviously to us that we are Gods ourselves and share the powers of the Gods, that we need to cultivate. Behind this hyper-realism of spirituality, are lying dormant the laws of the cosmos and actual entities which through these means try to communicate a higher understanding to our species.

Associating these entities with stupidity, decay, and personal creative imagination that makes them jesters is disrespectful, retarded, but above all false.

As the famous quote of Yoda is in Star Wars. One must unlearn what they have learned, if one wishes to know the secrets of the 'force'. Unlearning what one has learned in a world is important in having a clearer perception of existence and therefore elevating one's self to the Godhead gradually as a result.

I've practiced the Qliphoth for a while, seems to work just fine for me as means of summoning Lilith, Astaroth, Lucifuge, Beelzebub, Satan, etc. As for its Jewish origin, I can only assume that the demons of hell have found themselves manifested in all the world's religions and are powerful enough even to infiltrate the Jewish religions. I'm sure other people on here have had bad experiences with it but I just thought I'd throw in my two cents..

"Guys I have done a lot of drugs sometimes, but I didn't die...Therefore let's doubt that drugs can kill you and get into it...despite of what this old tard in your clergy says..."hahaha" teeth fall from meth mouth."

The above is the summary of your comment. Which is invalid.

Have you ever heard of creative self-deception? Subconsciously you know the Gods don't intend to harm you. But you have not really summoned anyone with these methods. It may have caused some form of disabled contact. Judging from your other posts you are one of these guys who simply have a creative imagination and imagines things 24/7 about how he 'summoned' and how the Gods are his buddies or something.

But real manifestation is too powerful. If you are an Aryan probably they spared your head so that in the future you can find some more legitimate answers, as they know you were errant. However, what most people see in these so-called rituals are their own mental aberrations. Use your chance as you see fit. However if you know the facts and you insist on blasphemous methods, don't be concerned if they forcibly discipline you or distance themselves from you permanently.

Then you can talk to the banana gods and try to find your meaning over there.

The Qliphoth is filthy Jewish witchcraft that is intended to be incredibly abusive and harmful to the Gods and Gentiles. Nowadays it's just plain blasphemous. HPS Maxine freed the Demons decades ago and those methods don't work anymore to summon any Satanic being, even the Lesser Demons. Just goes to show, no one can even summon Mother Lilith but somehow Jewish methods let you do it? Yeah it's probably the banana gods or some Jewish thought forms. Gentiles I knew who used the Qliploth methods went insane with self-harm and blood sacrifice, obsessions with whatever can manifest behind the names. Jews in those communities thrive though and the harmfulness is probably their "guidance". My 2 cents.

I've given many blood sacrifices before and used lots of them for tracing sigils and whatnot. I don't see that as a bad thing. Even JoS has you make a form of blood sacrifice for the dedication ritual. It's very powerful indeed. Also, I think lots of people at least claim to have summoned Lilith so I'm not sure why you're saying "no one has summoned Lilith"

Here comes the fact bending...

Giving a drop of your OWN blood, by your own free will and choice, by pricking your hand with a needle, has nothing to do with the abomination sacrifices you have done because you were stupid enough to take whatever a jew excretes as a legitimate spiritual practice. This is taking other innocent entities and wiping them out because you think this has anything to do with spirituality.

To say that using nuclear weapons to destroy humanity, and simply drinking water, so it's all chemistry. And that somehow every man that drinks water does exactly the same as a psychopath throwing nukes. Is your lying fallacious statement here.

This is the exact fallacy and stupidity that many of the so-called Judeo-hipster-"occultists" do. This is why we keep these abominations out of our midst. "Everything goes".

You do not need to touch another living being to lose their life by torture for you to fulfill any desire if you are spiritually superior. This is jewish disgusting shit. It's shameful to the bone. While you will more than likely deny this fact, that you more than likely have sacrificed other beings (this is criminal and nauseating, it's disgusting as I write it even), if you are even interested to join Satan in a true fashion, you really need to contemplate your actions, and ask forgiveness from the True Gods for these UN-necessary and poisonous actions.

Even in the bible, Baal and the Demons deny the sacrifices done to them. This is because they hate this practice. In the East, this practice is abominational to this day. And in the older times, they executed people and killed them for engaging in this stupidity.

The only form of animal slaughter that is accepted that relates to spiritual purposes, is the consecration of food out of respect to the Gods, because this will be eaten. And not as sacrifice directed to them as if they need it or something.

Alternatively, sacrifice is a spiritual concept that deals with working on the chakras. You throw mantras in the fire, and these go to the Gods (your chakras) and they feed them, so they can give you what you need.

The jews took this later, bastardized this and literalized this to ruin Pagan spirituality and make it look as inferior as their own alien spirituality which is centered on the death of other beings. While inferior and weaker than the above practice, this abhorrent practice can yield some results, which is why the enemy has been incessantly doing this for centuries.

Fearing to go behind bars is one thing, being actually compassionate to other animals is another. Which is the true meaning of my comment.

You're free to do with your blood and life force as you see fit. Sigil creation etc, are all done by you and your own will, and lifeforce as a result. However, this is not really a sacrifice to an external entity.

If you truly are saying the truth here (because we have come across rare cases where they did this nasty habit) it seems you naturally and racially deviated away from this practice, however others, namely jewish stock, have been abusing and corrupting these for centuries. And doing these crimes. Which is one of the reasons we do not accept a single one of them here. Because they are corrupt and bringers of decay.

Something to consider is the ancient Egyptians who were following our Gods didn't sacrifice animals this is openly stated in the jewish Torah where Abraham warns his fellow jews when they are in Egypt not to commit animal sacrifices because these animals are the Egyptians Gods totem animals and thus the Egyptians would punish them severely.

The Egyptians also had strict animal rights laws and most of the population was vegetarian by definition in the current world. Our Pagan ancestors didn't sacrifice animals it's right in the jews' book. It was Yahweh who demands five types of animals to be sacrificed along with humans as well.

Also when you use your blood your tying your soul into what you're using for it. Whereas if you use a murdered animal your tying into the death energy it's releasing which is negative. The jews use animal and human sacrifice all the time and look at how diseased and cursed they are as a race.
