

Women and Nazis

This topic is a topic about any and every Satanic/National Socialist woman. Thing is, due to enemy propaganda, how Nazi's portrayed women and how they had them in mind was entirely different than what most know. It's well known the enemies of the cause and those who spread black propaganda, are trying to push that women should be (according to their xianized enemy version of Nazism) in the kitchen, doing the dishes, taking care of the kids and so forth. It's not like this.

To understand why some people have this belief, one has to observe the historical context. Germany after WW1, was almost utterly destroyed. The Women were totally humiliated and jews who were rampant in Germany did what they always do, even nowadays with women. They tried to push senseless propaganda, tried to make women whores and that sort of deal. At the 20th Century, xianity was still tight in its grip. Thing is, the enemy communism does not discern between man and woman at all, everyone is a worker and this is what the enemy has planned for women in Nazi Germany and anywhere else, according to jewish plan.

Now Women who had or know others who have kids, know that by working a full 12 hours shift a day in the slave jewish program, you could never raise kids, let alone you would never have the funds for it, let alone that it's too stressing for women, intense physical work. Women by nature in their MAJORITY (NOTE: MAJORITY) are not meant to do heavy labor work as this causes all sort of damage to them in the long run. Neither are women ideal for working let's say at mining or wherever else. The jewish capitalists/communists (same coin different side) simply wanted people to be all equals. Women had to work like cattle, all day long. As the bible says and their torah, main lines, women are meaningless pieces of swine and are impure, the sources of all sin etc. Though in all their insanity, they also want to abuse women endlessly by exploiting them sexually and so forth. By pushing the propaganda on either side, that's the end they always want to achieve.

Thing most people fail to grasp, on purpose, is that these measures that most women should be at home, were measures taken by a Germany in a state of severe regression, trying to get upwards again. Germany had low population due to WW1, many men were butchered as we all know. This means and signifies that women had to have children and take care of them, as the people would go extinct. It's that simple. It's not a cosmic theory that women should be at home, it was a measure that was needed at that time. Men had to do the hard labor only to save women from it, unless it was their choice to get on all this labor. Many women chose for instance to be in the Luftwaffe (German Pilots) and were treated no less than any other soldier. Thing is, the Reich had to protect women from the plagues of war, pornography, perversion and the unwelcome environment created by the jews. The enemy knows when to hit. At war, hitting the women is far more stabbing in the nation as you hit the future of the nation and the strongest atom of it, which is the woman. Also, take in that all this happened in 1910 and afterwards- these days women were already in the kitchen, and if you go backwards like in the Dark ages, women and men were swine and probably enslaved to some kike in many regions. In other words, Nazi Germany was not repressive of women, it was revolutionary in giving women more freedoms and rights.

Hitler himself mentioned in his speeches that these measures were solely taken so that women would not suffer war. A woman can face much more humiliation than a man in wartime and this is evident to anyone who is aware of such circumstances. Also, the Hitler youth and other stuff accepted women and all these things. Women were treated with exceptional respect and their position was similar to the position of the old Spartan women. In fact, because women were so important they had to be protected in times of upward move away from the regression, which everyone knew would get to war. Women were allowed to go to theaters and all these things, but meanwhile in the so called "freedom" countries they were totally limited.

Exceptions were treated as exceptions. For instance, Hanna Reitsch was a top pilot in Nazi Germany  [http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hanna\_Reitsch ].

Thing is the enemy always does what they do. They blame Racism to us. They blame that we push women in the kitchen to us, while they themselves have wrote a damn kike 2000-year-old book saying every 2 pages that women are whores, worthless, meaningless, were made out of adam's rib, that god is male and has no wife (degradation of women) and so forth. In the Nazi and Satanic view, the female and male have equal positions, but as people and characters, we may with our choice choose in per se a partnership, choose someone to stay on "top". What we also recognize is that in both Genders some signs are apparent like in males, they have more muscle mass for instance and are made naturally in their MAJORITY to be warriors, while the MAJORITY of women should have lighter tasks and other orientations in work and so forth.

Keep in mind that Nazism is eternal, so we understand change. Today men are boys and women for the most part as it seems cannot find decent husbands. The enemy has created many imbalances. But what those who preach black propaganda in our ranks is a crock of shit. The cosmic theory around our women was never one of oppression. It's just that kikes will make protection from their deeds against women seem like 'restriction'.

It's the notion of xianity and the abrahamic programs, the jewish propaganda that sees women as swine. Nazism was revolutionary and as the years went by, women were far freer than they ever were before. There are many uneducated people and black propagandists who say all sorts of shit, trying to blacken the part of the woman. In closing, take 4 notions in mind.

1. The historical context of the time.
2. The jewish programs and the communist programs and how they see the women
3. That gradually women were becoming freer in Nazi Germany and most had the greatest time of their lives so long Hitler had the nation.
4. That times change but the jewish scourge cannot be wiped out just like this from the major populace. Every sensible person knows this. You could not hop from 1850 when women were simply married by their parents to 1890 and expect it all to have changed. Even nowadays in many places of the world these things are still to change, thanks to the jewish programs.

Satanism and Nazism were here to free us from all that scourge. But to free us, we had to be alive and protected. Nowadays they preach women are 'free'. While in fact, they are most subconsciously oppressed and played upon their deepest instincts of beauty, trying to find a mate and so forth. The kikes are pushing it all too far for a backlash. Never feed in their two-sided games. There is always a third and fourth and fifth options and these are the Satanic options.

Oppression of women has never had to do with Satanism and Nazism. It's an offspring of xianity and the related ilk.

Heil our Women and Heil our Men!!!
