

Hitler, War, David Bowie, England then and Now

No one in England wanted another war with Germany. It was forced on the populace by the Jews in control of the government from the top.

My great Uncle who was at Dunkirk and fought through the entire war stated to us that he didn't fight Germany in the second war to have England over run with hostile foreigners who were turning our areas of London into no go zones for Whites, and a society where its a crime to be English. That was back in the early nineties. It's even worse now.

Joyce, an English National Socialist, warned this would happen to England if they won the war. The Jews would ramp up English Nationalism for the war then they would flood England with all the non-Whites of the Empire and then make it a crime to even fly the English flag. The Jews hung Joyce after the war for being a real Patriot. Joyce fought the Jewish Communists in the streets and was known for the scar he had across his face from a bayonet from a Communist in the political warfare that was the time. The man was dedicated to his nation and race and a warrior against the Jews. They called him "Lord Haw Haw", but who is laughing now? The Jews and their communist cohorts want to even take down the statue of Nelson from Trafalgar square. Lord Nelson was a Patriot who died at Trafalgar leading his men to an epic victory against overwhelming odds, to keep England free. These people hate England for being White and Goyim.

At the start of the war, the Jews who run England put all the BUF members, the English National Socialist Movement, into prison camps along with anyone else who protested the war. My family talked about how the BUF had political rallies that drew hundreds of thousand of people to them. They also stated most people in England didn't want this war including the Prime Minister who the Jews cursed to death with Kabbalah magic to get Churchill into office, was an agent of the Rothschilds, as a Jewish historian stated in his book Churchill and the Jews. The Royal Family also didn't want the war they sent Hitler all kinds of money during his campaigns and the former King of England was an open ally of the German National Socialist and Hitler. The Royal Family had their own family members killed in Russia by the Jewish Communists. The Czar was the grandchild of Queen Victoria.

These people actually cared about the well being of England. I can't describe how terrible that war was for everyone. My grandfather was in Bomber Command during the war, and he can describe the long death lists of young men, many not even 25 that would go up after every raid, all killed in action. Burned up in their bombers and ripped apart by AA fire over Europe. I knew a fellow who was in Bomber Command he told me about how his plane crashed landed shot up after a mission. All of his friends in the crew died horribly they slowly burned to death inside the plane when it blew up from the crash, and most were just 18 years old. He only lived because he was the tail gunner and the tail turret broke off with him inside when they hit the ground. He still almost died. My one Great Uncle spoke about having to fight in the battles of the North Atlantic and how thousands of young men died burned to death on the waves or died frozen to death slowly in the freezing waters or downed in their ships or where blown apart. He had his Royal Navy warship sunk by a U-boat and just managed to get to a boat in time. Most of his friends didn't. My family also had their home destroyed by bombs during the Blitz. And they talked about the terror of the V-2 rockets. My family lost a lot of friends in the war. They still had the bomb shelters in their backyard after the war a garden sheds. The Blitz started because Churchill was sending waves of English bombers to attack German towns and cities. The German air force was sent into destroy the Royal Air Force on the ground to stop this and it escalated from there.

I will never forget Rudolf Hess who on Hitler's consent flew to England on a secret mission to meet with the Nationalist elements in the English Royal family and government to stop all of this from happening. Hitler bent over backwards to avoid this war. For this, Hess was imprisoned and tortured by the Jews for decades till they murdered him in his jail cell.

The cucks who like to hide behind their families, who fought against Germany in Jew War Two, to hate Hitler are pathetic. Their families suffered because the Jews made their countries fight Hitler, who Himself didn't want war. Hitler fought in the First War as front line combat soldier the entire war and knew first hand how horrible war is. He didn't want his people to have to go through this again or any other European nation. He wanted to preserve Western Civilization with National Socialism not have it destroyed in war.

It's known now that Churchill along with Bacon, the Jewish run American Secretary of State, made a secret deal with the Polish Government to get them to attack Germany to push Germany into the war. The Polish army was illegally occupying part of Germany. The Poles started ethnically cleansing thousands of Germans in Germany lands in one day. At the Broomberg massacre the Poles killed 55 thousand men, women, and children. Germany then attacked the Polish military in defense of the nation and people. The French and English forces also invaded into west Germany and were pushing into the Rhine land. So the German Army has to swing down and fight a defensive campaign to push foreign militaries who invaded their nation out of their country. This is also why Germany was forced to invade Norway. The English were already on their way with a military fleet and troops to turn it into a base against Germany. The German's managed to head them off and deny them this base. It's also documented by historians that Stalin had amassed the largest army in history to invade Germany and all of Europe with in the summer of 1941. Which is why Hitler and his allies were forced to attack the Soviet Union. To stop the Red Army as they knew they couldn't survive the assault Stalin was planning.

The Jewish Powers started that war to destroy Europe so they could take control with Communism.

Hundreds of Englishmen volunteered to fight in the Pan-European Waffen SS against the Red Army.

David Bowie also flew the BUF flags at the background of his rock concerts on stage. He was also openly pro Hitler, even speaking well of Hitler back in the day. Of course OY....VEH!!!! Sholomo can't have that. That is the real reason the Jews tried to deep six Bowie's career.

My own English Grandmother spoke well of Hitler and that the war was regrettable. And she was a proud English women who hung the Queen's picture on the wall and all that. After the war many people were just glad the war was done with and just wanted to rebuild their lives and move on. The hatred for Germany was indoctrinated in the western populations for decades by Jews after the war to the insane levels its known at.

General Patton also regretted the war and wanted to rearm the Germans under American flags to smash the Soviet Union. Patton was murdered by the Jews for this and for blowing the whistle on the Jewish Morgenthau plan, which was the genocide of the German People. A million German men, mostly just 15 year old kids who were put in uniform at the end of the war, were mass murdered in the death camps run by the American forces after the war on the orders of the Jewish controlled American President Truman, with this plan. Truman admitted in the missing three pages of his diary that were found in his library. He was pathetic pawn of Jewish power and nothing else and how he resented this and hated the Jews for it.

If Europe is going to survive, it is going to have to reach upwards to the spiritual message of salvation for the European People that Hitler delivered to the world, and stop cucking around.

All of the hatred and lies about Hitler including the holocaust which has been debunked by numerous historians, forensic investigations and even debunked in court during the Zundel trial all come from only one place in history, and it's the Jews. The Jews want to destroy Gentile Humanity and enslave the rest of the Goyim in their insane talumdic agenda. So the agenda that wants to destroy you wants you to hate Hitler.....WHY IS THAT?

So stop doing this already and get woke.
