

Jewish Vampires - The Witchcraft of the Jews

The Jewish race has been well known and documented to engage in the rituals of murdering animals and humans. According to their own confessions and evidence, they would drain the blood from the body of a human victim, usually a Gentile child, that is hung upon a cross and then stabbed many times. The blood is drained from each wound and then the Jews drink this blood and dip a special kind of bread into the blood and thereafter eat this. Jews have also been documented to suffer from many unusual symptoms and illnesses that are likewise found amongst cannibals in the South Pacific, these come from the effects of cannibalism. The Jews are ordered in their Torah to use five types of animals for their brutal ritual murder.

The writings of the Jewish rabbis will inform a person as to why they drink the blood. The writings of "Etz Hayim" or the "Tree of Life" states that within the blood, there is the energy of the "Nefesh" or the soul of the individual. The Jews engage in the drinking of the blood as a form of literal vampirism. This is also why the Jews use blood so much in general, with all the animal and human ritual murders they engage in, they are using the collective death energies and the soul energy of humans and animals. They are drinking the soul of the victim to increase their spiritual forces.

The Christian "drinking of the blood and eating of the bread" symbolizes the Jewish ritual murder of a child upon the cross. This is clear magic symbolism, forming a connection with the Jewish Kabbalah to tie into the Christian communion ritual. This is yet another proof that the Christian communion is a symbolical Jewish ritual murder - the drinking of the blood (symbolically - wine) and eating of the bread. This ties in by psychic forces of the mass unconscious mind engaging in the communion ritual, into connecting with the energy of the actual ritual murders being done by the Jews, thus giving more power to the enemy energy being raised during the actual ritual murders. The Jews wrote the Bible and created the Christian Church to achieve their goal – a global Jewish kingdom.
