

Jews Attacking Their Own Synagogues

With evidence showing the recent synagogue attack coming out with all of it pointing to a false flag attack, the question presents itself: would Jews attack their own even in their places of worship to pursue their agenda of Jewish supremacy? The question has already been answered in history; yes they have.

In the early 1950s, there was a wave of attacks on synagogues in the Jewish community of Baghdad that were committed by a Jewish Zionist operation that was similar to the Mossad operation of the "Lavon Affair" when the Mossad recruited Egyptian Jews to commit terrorist attacks on western targets in Egypt to pursue their geo-political agenda in the Middle East that was included within this to blame these attacks on Arab groups.

The attacks on the synagogues were a series of bombings that killed and wounded numerous Jews, and the Jewish perpetrators then littered the areas with anti-Jewish pamphlets while pretending to be an anti-Jewish Arabian terrorist group. They also attacked Jewish businesses and homes. The operation was stopped when the Jewish cell was arrested by the police and the Jewish operatives admitted that the goal was to terrorize their fellow Jews to get them to immigrate to Israel. The other motive, as stated by the Iraqi government, was to "sour" relations between the Western world and the Arab world for the benefit of Israel. The Jewish Mossad has tried to cover up any connections to them and the Baghdad affair, but it's been pointed out that the operation was identical to the Lavon Affair which was a Mossad operation.

Two Jews, Shalom Salah Shalom and Yosef Ibrahim Basri, were executed by the Iraqi government for their role in the terrorist attacks. The Iraqi police also found large amounts of automatic weapons, ammunition, grenades and other weapons in three synagogues that were being used as the bases for the terrorist attacks on the Jewish community as well. That means the Rabbinical leadership of the community was involved in the operation.

"Shlomo Hillel, also once a member of the Iraqi Zionist underground, noted that the last words of the executed defendants were "Long live the State of Israel". [1]

Source:

[1] wiki, Shenhav 1999 "According to the account of Shlomo Hillel, a former Israeli cabinet minister and Zionist activist in Iraq, their last words, as they stood on the gallows, were "Long live the State of Israel."

November 8, 2018

Joy of Satan Forums Contributions