

ENDING THE VEIL - First Ritual Schedule - 11th to 22nd December 2020

Dec 10, 2020

Extraordinary times require for extraordinary measures.

For those impatient, please do scroll down.

Those who are observing the US elections, are reading the News, and are in general in comprehension of where this world is going, you are going to be seeing that we are going through what we have declared and honestly shared with everyone is going to happen, for years now.

Israel and the Jews are currently exposed and have heaped on this world an unimaginable amount of plots in a very short time. Everyone here knew how this would go, but it is not happening.

The enemy is trembling, they are at a maximum state of exposure right now, but they are also rabid in attacking humanity. At the same time, the weight of the enemy's abuse is coming on them, and they understand, this is time to fake "peace" with their enemies, or go into deceptive methods as usual. Jews have been a warmongering Nation since day one, abusing and plotting the destruction of most other countries and their own neighbours since the founding of their little "Israel". Their method of warfare remains subtle and their dream remains the same.

This will increase even more as time goes, same as all violations and attacks against mankind. Yet, all of this unveiling of the enemy, is not coming during a time of peace, but during times of intense tribulation and heavy trials for humanity. There is, as matters are, no other way to go. The enemy feels like they do not have a lot of time, and they want to proceed with their agenda - some of the enemy want to go one way, and others want to go the other way.

Needless to say, no matter what, the future is going to be dark. The enemy has also understood that continuously abusing people massively, may not have the desired outcome they assumed it would. They are therefore now on crossroads on what agenda they are going to follow, going into the future. Biden and Trump represent these two paths they could possibly take.

Leading through easy times or when things don't really matter is easy. It is leadership in difficult times that matters. Things have not been easy for us either. As for the enemy, one can only see the evident - understanding what is coming, they are going for the throat of mankind.

One will legitimately look at the jews right now, and question to themselves: What the fuck are these aliens even doing? Why are they doing it so obviously? Why are they fucking up so evidently, and carelessly? What is even going on?

The answer to this is rather simple. They are walking into their own created whirlpool at a dramatic speed. They have done so before, and they will do so again. The very same whirlpool they are going in, is only a manifestation of their own plan that they want to materialize: every time they attempt to usurp mankind, this is when they trigger the great immune response of mankind, of which they are now triggering the most major reactions of.

First we had the "Coronavirus" event in early 2020, now, Biden, who appears to have been voted in with fraud and has a clear cut Middle East War Agenda / Slave for Jews directly agenda, is being prepared for office. Everyone knows that before the "Coronavirus", what occurred was essentially a failed attempt to trigger war in the Middle East. After this did not work out, we have had the Coronavirus coming in, named by many analysts "A WW3".

Creation of unrest, chaos, and war, when the enemy is getting unmasked, is something one should always expect. This is like discovering a den full of rodents. The moment one opens this door, they all go crazy and try to swarm on all directions. At the same time, when these are "left on their own", they make sure to swarm and eat all the foundations of a whole house, until it all collapses on it's own and everyone dies in it, possibly also the rats included.

This is the very situation we are encountering right now, only this situation is manifesting on a global scale. And someone has had to open the goddamn door before everything would be gone.

No matter what, Satanists will be alright. You need to cling to the Gods right now, do your meditations and protection, and observe this upheaval in a level headed manner. We all knew this was going to happen and we knew this for years. As HPS Maxine has warned, what is happening is going to keep going and have a strong outcome by the next few years.

Already, we can see the change in the United States happening. The broken faith of people in the system which cheated on them, is drawing at an all time high. One needs not even mention the media, religion, or basically all forms of control of the enemy until today - it's all coming down at a blazing fast speed.

But what is the case among all the rest of the systems, including the financial, or the spiritual? These are bound to go out of the window, also, with a crash that isn't going to be pleasant. This is unavoidable. It will happen bit by bit, and progressively, but everything is now on the acceleration button. Many people are already questioning how is this going so fast.

Leaving the politics aside, the world is observing some extreme global upheaval and events. Millions and closely billions will dive into poverty as time goes, and the cracks of the enemy's mask are falling down. During this time, people are going to wake up, but this waking up may not be actually pleasant at all: they see the morbid beast that has been sending them all to their grave, and it is not a great sight at all. But it is better to see it and react than to not see it at all.

To take this even more on the fast forward, this is nothing to not expect, given the situation of the world in a spiritual manner. The enemy has been a negative influence to the world for a very long time. They have charged, machinated, and procured all sorts of destruction. Much of this was also predetermined, and was part of a "plan" that they are following. Everyone here understands and knows the spiritual basis of this plan.

Those who ignore this plan and do not care to learn about it, or work to avert it, will not be at liberty to do so forever, and they will be caught in their sleep. Others participate in this resistance physically, others spiritually, but long story short, everyone lives under the same world and is liable to experience the same enemy plan unfolding if they do not act. Many people like to bicker over the details, but the importance here is that any able soul who can resist this advance, must do so.

As for those who remain happily asleep, thinking this will be to their benefit, what happens is this: "They will want to join in the last minute, but it will be too late to do so" - they will want to save themselves and not have the knowledge or power to do so. It is always the oblivious part of the mass that pays the price for their own ignorance. Never was in history the case that those who willfully ignore large conspiracies, and decide to do nothing, simply "Fare well".

If they "Fared well" before, it was only because these conspiracies never involved the whole planet, which is actually what is happening today.

Needless to say, our Gods are also observing and monitoring the situation. We have been through difficult times as a world, and most of this was heaped on us by hostile forces, which are increasingly manifesting on this world. Yet at the same time there is a strong counteraction and counter-resistance forming, at rapid rates.

Nobody, for hundreds and hundreds of years, has managed to successfully or at all, implement something the enemy has been implementing for centuries: Spiritual warfare against the enemy. This is clearly having a major effect, or none of these reactions wouldn't have happened.

The Spiritual fabric of our world has long been infested with hostile, negative, and aggressive enemy energies. These come from "Out there". They never belonged to this earth, and they are an influence that is coming from "other worlds". Many people have come across these, and unfortunately, the world has been subverted to where these enemy influences are even worshipped by mankind.

Everyone who has studied the Joy of Satan understands the details of this, and how it happened, and is seeing where this is going. Their pattern of action has been encoded in spiritual texts of the jews, and in general, the jews have been their willful servants and slaves for a long time. For those who want more elaborate understanding of this, make sure to study our websites.

Now, many of you know or have heard of the "Web", the "Gauntlet", or "The Veil". This has went on by many names, and many occultists have tried to convey and understand what this is doing to the world. To fast forward this because this would take a book, our planet is under "Spiritual Curfew", and this is imposed by hostile alien forces which are being maintained, and the gateways of which are opened by the Jewish race [which is alien to this world]. The methods through which this "opening" is done, are methods of spiritual manipulation.

The enemy, in order to effectively manipulate the world, is in communication and applies specific methods of spiritual force and meditation, which, are meant to affect our world to turn it "In the Image" of those hostile alien forces. These have revealed themselves largely, as cracks in their "Veil" or prison, are allowing humans to understand at least part of it. We know these beings as greys and reptilians, and their influence in our history, especially recently, with our advancement, is getting more and more understood. To these "beings", an agenda is required, and our history has to turn in a specific way, until we become a perfect slave farm for them.

Recently, top Israeli officials have went ahead to admit this very fact, top Rabbis have done this before them also. They are out of time for hiding this, and everyone knows what's up. Given the nature of what they plan, they need to be able to point their fingers on aliens too, but these are fine details - they are only doing what they were recommended to do by these aliens.

New RTR Addition Explained:

The physical agents of this alien hive mind, are essentially the Jews. Even jews have lately admitted to this very fact, as the general disclosure of these truths is happening, and because they are unable to keep the narrative under blankets anymore. How they commune with these hostile forces and open them up to the world [and also how likewise, these forces enter our "Realm" to affect us] revolves around certain spiritual methods.

To the jews in general, they were told to chant hymns, prayers, and other forms of litanies. Yet, the jews at the top know and understand that what they are dealing with [and are in full agreement of] is to channel energy of specific alien hive minds, into this earth. The method through which is done, to fast forward this, is based on the Hebrew Alphabet, and at the same time, through their "Tetragrammaton".

The "Tetragrammaton" stands for "Four lettered name", and is a rip-off of other more Ancient Pagan religions, which used to channel beneficial forces on the planet. The original key of this, was used to essentially symbolize the individual will of a magician, and the affects towards the world. The enemy however as with anything stole this, perverted this, and is utilizing this concept for something else.

As a rule of thumb, the enemy deceitfully claims their "God" has "No Form", "No Image Can Symbolize God", is "Unutterable" and other lies. The reality of the statement, is that the enemy is worshipping myriads of "Hosts" of alien entities, which are all related to a central hive mind of the so called "Tetragrammaton". Their so called "God" has hundreds and hundreds of names, and each of these are all based on this.

While the enemy claims their "God" has no "Figure", and that it has "No Face", their "God" clearly exists in this "form" of what they call the "Holy Tetragrammaton". For those who are familiar with Sigil Magick, the so called "Four Letter Name" is basically, a sigil to itself, and a symbol no different than any other sigil.

It is used as a focusing point so jews and advanced Rabbis can get in "Contact" with these entities, and attempt to do their will. The methods of how this is truly used are kept in a circle of "elect" Rabbis, while everyone in the public is told lies about this so called "Name" and it's functions.

One could go into freaky details here on how this is accomplished, but all of this is useless information. What matters is that this so called Jewish "Tetragrammaton" is destroyed. This is the stepping stone and gateway, through which the enemy channels all these forces onto the world. To put it bluntly, this is their "Key to all" tool that they are using to manifest all their magick.

This "Key" was also used to wage war on the "Demons", yet most of this relates to other things that deal with other supernal matters, and is not something the jews created, but rather, forces beyond them. They were the mere users of things they were bestowed. At the same time, the so called "JHVH" is also "The Presence", which is a general term for the consciousness of the enemy into our world, and the key to manifest this, all at the same time.

While it is made up of Hebrew letters, "it by itself" is not actually "Hebrew", but is using "Hebrew" as a symbol. Meaning, this is not really a "Word", nor it is something one has to find how it's named, but rather, it's a symbol through which one opens up their mind, in this case, Jewish Rabbis.

In the East, something parallel to this is called a Mandala. The Mandala itself may for example use triangles, or squares, but it is not supposed to make someone understand the triangle or the square, but rather, is a focal point for the mind.

Different permutations of this garbage are used depending on different purposes, but what is important, and what has "survived", is the four hebrew letters that we know as "JHVH" in Latinization.

In short, before the add-on to the Final RTR is understood [we will be reversing the letters of this "Tetragrammaton" and adding an affirmation to shut it down entirely], one must understand, that we are dealing with a symbol that is a stepping stone for the mind and the visualization to something else. It is this gate the ritual is going to close and permanently destroy.

In plain, by shutting down and/or reversing or blotting the symbol, one must understand, we are "Shutting off" or "Killing" the gateway through which the enemy manipulates the world. The purpose here is twofold: With the dead Hebrew letters, their source of power is disabled, and with their major sigil neutralized, they cannot open up our world to their unholy worthless alien forces.

Think of this as destroying and throwing in the lava, the key that is supposed to open a door. The door cannot be opened again.

The procedure to this is pretty easy. As one can see here, and the known pronunciations of the Final RTR, the letters dealing are the Yud, Hei, Vav and Hei. Yet, we will be following a specific procedure for the reversal of these letters, based on the hidden way of utilization of this worthless and disgusting "JHVH".

This will ensure the blotting out of the complete so called "JHVH" in all levels of existence.

RITUAL TIMER: <https://www.evilgoy.com/>

This is to be combined with the Final RTR, at the end of this. So one does their regular RTR as they always do, then after done, they start doing the ritual below. There is no need to increase any of the numbers of this ritual. They should be left as is for maximum effectiveness.

The erasing of this will happen as follows. One has to keep in mind or focus on the picture here. It is based on this, that one will be doing the destruction. This is to be done exactly after one is finished in doing the RTR and finished the affirmation of the Final RTR.

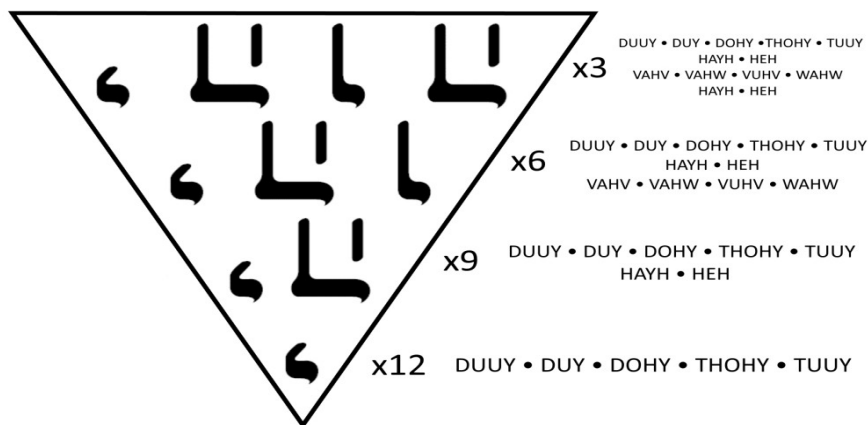

To get in less details for this to be less complicated, this below is just napalm. Explaining in elaborate fashion why this is as it is, should take half a book. It must be done consciously, and remember, the intent is to finish this off and eternally make this devoid of any form of existence.

As far as the technique goes, the same methodology of blotting out the Final RTR letters is being applied, but on a different way. For example, we will be reversing:
