Greetings to all of our Satanic Warriors,

The last ritual we have done has had monumental effects in subduing the enemy, combined with everything else. By now, it has been so effective [and so short] that it would be proper and fitting to include this in the daily warfare against the enemy.

Below, there will be an RTR Schedule we will be following for the dates on the title. In two days from now, there is the Summer Solstice, and it's extremely important for us to do the necessary spiritual work to set spiritual things in motion for the upcoming months.

In regards to the events of the world, everyone here has been informed. Many think all ordeals are going to be over soon with the enemy, but the reality is, many of their human hating practices have only just began and will last for a considerable amount of time [years]. This is not going anywhere.

They have to be spiritually flattened and this will be manifested by people later on physically. The good news is that they have been rapidly dropping, the bad news is, none of this is going to stop. Neither of these are however "negative" for us directly, because they need to do their part in order to be thrown out fully of the body of the world.

The last couple of years have been clown world manifested, with the enemy also dropping the mask simply too far. At this point it's safe to say there are no masks at all. There is increased division of humanity in two categories, that are becoming more and more apparent by the day.

On one side, we have NPC, willful slaves, on the other, we have our side of people that are rapidly awakening. Things people always thought of to be "sci-fi" and "conspiracy theories" are just becoming apparent realities that one can now only ignore if they are willfully retarded, or enslaved.

This awakening while facilitated by us, is not manifesting solely through us. There are many vessels to this worldwide. This has to do with the soul aspects that are from our Gods within mankind. Not all humans have these anymore. There is also need for willful practice in some percent of the population for this to come out.

We bring here the Satanic spiritual force [Force of Truth] and then this force will be overtaking mankind in many forms. It's all going to happen to people from all places in life.

While the NPCs are going to be drifting into the JWO, these people will be awakening and have a role to play in the future of counteracting the enemy's plans.

This is also observable astrologically, and it's impossible to evade from this at this point. Saturn in Aquarius is going to get increasingly violent. We have seen a lot over these last two years.

2022 and half of 2023 will also see similar events, and not that much easing on the abuses of freedom, freedom usurpation, or enemy agenda. The enemy will only stop where they are defeated permanently. It's just that after a point, planets will help them way less in their abusive plans. Given also their general collapse, they will start falling apart.

For all of this, it's still very early, yet the enemy knows exactly what is going to happen, and they work in a rush in order to prevent this. So if anything, the battle of will and spiritual force remains totally raw and will be more decisive than ever before.

For those who care more about the world here than themselves, the best advice is this: Focus on yourselves. We do what we do for the world, yes. But we cannot become this world's victims. We will help other people as is a work ordained by Father Satan to do, but on the other hand, the best way to navigate through these times on a personal level, is by personal attention on one's life and self.

You have the powers of the Gods at your disposal, and therefore, you can use them. This will be crucial for the future. Therefore, we want to build ourselves up meanwhile. We have if anything, to outlast these waves of darkness that are being repeatedly heaped upon humanity, and we have to do this at all costs.

In these times you should also remember, that you have the light of the Gods within you, and that despite of what happens on the external world, to remain positive. Those of you who are psychic and you have had glimpses of the future, you know what I am trying to tell you here. Darkness is light when turned inside out - what today looks as darkness, is a necessity so that humanity can get better and forward in the future.

Lastly, I have noticed quite a few people worldwide right now who might be aware of the situation that is coming on the so called "West" and the world at large, do understand it in parts. For example, they see the vaccine is enforced, or how this agenda will manifest afterwards with repetitive freedom violations and so on, but they don't pay attention to other things.

Anyone who is paying attention to everything at this point, or at least more than one things, would know, that we are moving into the time and era where the enemy will become exposed and defeated, but also, this happens through their worthless planning coming into effect.

The enemy has no vision or understanding of this world. At best, we have against us people with a lot of power in their hands, but their visions are the poorest there have ever been. This makes them weak. If anything, they know their deposing is near, and they are afraid. Many of them are also old, and dying.

Instead of trying to do positive things for this world, they choose to take the way to become a cancer, influenced by the enemy. This simply has them on the negative list where the Gods are concerned. And yes, despite of some low ground infestation of the enemy here, the Gods are in control above.

They are sealing a very terrible fate in themselves if they don't change their course of affairs.

The majority of them are severely misguided, hardly understand the future that is coming for us all, have no foresight, and their plans look empty even to them, but they want to do it anyway because they have no better vision. Increasingly, as time goes, many of the enemy who are not inherently jews, but are their servants, will decide in increasing numbers to jump ship onto our side because of simply that our Gods are better, and that our plans are higher and more sublime, more beautiful than the enemy's are.

In regards to the jews from the bunch of the enemy, they just do what they are commanded by the enemy's disgusting forces, because they are slaves and cannon fodder.

Many here are mystified by their position in the world, but the issue is simply that: Nobody else has existed for a while to pilot this planet, because many people have not been fit for it. This was caused largely by them, it's because of war.

But this is now changing. In the close future, this is going to change completely. This planet has always belonged to the Gods, not the enemy.

The enemy is an infectious pest with an expiry date.

The enemy now has ground in the same way an infection that has spread requires considerable attention to save a living being. This is going to change, and this is not forever.

In fact, many people are going to become bored of the enemy's worthless shit, faster than the enemy imagines. Humanity has a future beyond that.

They've been having preferential treatment in this world simply because of the blindness of this world. That aside, this is going to end. It's in a sense, inevitable. The question of our efforts is to salvage as much as possible by the time where this will be manifested, because there will be chaos and considerable pains of change as humanity progresses to defeat the neolithic infection of the enemy.

We, have a clearer and better views for our future, and Satan has a far greater and more sublime plan for mankind.
