

War for our Civilization - Ritual Schedule - 15th January to 30th January [IMPORTANT]

by High Priest Hooded Cobra 666

January 15, 2021

Greetings to all of our Satanic Warriors and Comrades.

Half the world is restrained by the "Pandemic" measures, where every human freedom and every human rights is actively restrained. Such restraints make those of World Wars pale in comparison. While some people are ignoring this, others are waking up from a long slumber.

Reality is hitting so hard at people, that only those who willingly want to remain asleep, will not notice that something is happening all over this globe in the form of an unholy alliance against mankind. Personal rights, constitutions, democracy, the ability to vote, the voice of the common man - it's all but shrinking and shrinking. It's as if humanity now has to fight so that the fire of freedom does not snuffs out.

While many negative things are happening, we are not yet sitting at the ruins of our world or our civilization. We are not yet sitting at the ruins of our Constitutions, that were handed down to us, in good will, that we will uphold their values. We are not yet sitting in a sea of corpses and blood. We are not yet living in the enemy's manifested dream of a world global dictatorship that will make 1984 look like a funny novel.

There is still time. We have been fighting this and for those who want to join, everyone must join us.

The enemy repeats and repeats that all of this is inevitable. They claim strongly, that this is the only way our history can go. They preach submission. Humans must give up. That's what they say.

Indeed, we are not there yet. We are not living in their dream yet. We are resisting. We are fighting. People are waking up. For the first time in decades, people are questioning their reality. Agendas that seems unrelated, are all coming into light as dots of one large, singular plan, with one purpose: To subjugate and disable mankind.

People of all walks of life, all financial or social backgrounds, all Nations, we are now standing against the enemy beast.

Opening one's television or watching the news in the United States, we can see the enemy's vision being communicated into becoming a reality. One sees that the enemy is preparing to create mass social unrest, and they have their fingers crossed to create such a major reaction, that will make the "George Floyd" protests and the "Co-Vid Quarantine" look like firecrackers. They want to create full blown, internal collapse of the United States and civil war.

It is funny how agencies are looking for random fools carrying flags and going around Washington DC, but nobody has yet arrested, examples like Mr Lemon of our infamous mainstream media. He is fanning the flames of hatred in the hearts of 80 million already angry Trump supporters, calling them Nazis and White Supremacists. Doesn't matter if millions of these were Black. Count them in too as White Supremacists.

We are going to see things from the enemy that do not coincide with logic anymore. Why? Because they want to break human logic. This is part of psychological warfare. The world of a clown psychodrama that they are creating, a world filled with illogical notions, is made purposefully to collapse the human mind.

People cannot fathom the logic of locking down a whole country and driving 4 out of 10 people below the poverty line, people globally into depression, insanity, domestic abuse, murder, drugs - all forms of decay, claiming this was to 'save them'. Then, the so called medical claims are not up to the level either. Most countries behave as if the so called pandemic that was worthy to take down the Western World, wasn't all that important - only the measures of control are upheld brutally, while medical and social help is completely left to it's own fate.

No matter how you cut this, you'll see that logic is lacking. There is no consistency to any of this. And this is because, all of this is curated so the enemy focuses their sights elsewhere: How they will make this world "after" or through the impositions and attacks they will throw on humanity based on the global scenery that now exists.

Due to the major mistake of humanity accepting and giving attention to these reptilian offsprings, now humanity has to witness the hatching vermin of their so called "New World Order". The values of the United States, individual Nations, or individual self thinking humans, cannot be part of such an "Order".

The situation in the United States is nothing else but what we have been writing to you about for years. It is coming to pass in front of our very eyes. Over all these years, I kept repeating where this was going to go, and things are now here. I only hope that we fight it through and these predictions come true only up to now and for half of them.

HPS Maxine has told you years and months ago, to prepare for this specifically. Many people of course, scoffed it off. As the situation accelerated, we understood where this whole thing was going. Then, the Pandemic hit harder. Economic hardship hit even harder. A few months after, the United States is on the verge of internal collapse. Washington DC looks like a foreign military has went into it and seized it, but it is our own military doing that. Political drama is at the highest it has ever been.

Many in the United States have their hands tied with other topics, but Europe is currently in full restrain over the Co-Vid. Birthrates, finances, mental health, all of these are plummeting. The enemy's agenda of invaders, decay, brainwashing - it is proceeding as if nothing happened. All these "dots" over the same puzzle of destruction of our Civilization, are happening, each to their own. While everyone is distracted with the bombardment of the news, or in the sea of ignorance, the enemy is trying to gas pedal their plans into full manifestation.

Normally, they did this behind the backs of humans, hidden, as part of a rumoured conspiracy theory. Now, they have dropped the mask, and they just breach all speed limits in front of people.

Many are not believing their eyes and cannot fathom where their lives have gone.

Others are in a state of shock where they deny what is going on.

A large portion however has the inner decency to face this and stand up to this, even inside of their heart.

Lastly, the fewer, the heroic, are taking steps to resist this advance of the enemy, by standing up with a straight spine. They want to make a change about things. They won't accept to go down in a twilight of undeserved tyranny.

Wise members sounded the alarm. Spread information, do spiritual warfare, and do your best to inform other human beings. This worked. We are making a huge impact, and our voice has been heard. Our opinions have been adopted by many people, who carry them now into their own ideas and understanding. And it is out of this that we are able to have hope for the future.

We have been as strong spiritual community through all this. A real brotherhood in the Gods and Satan Himself. For years, we did what our duty was to do. When we shared these insights years ago, we questioned ourselves on if these were going to even happen. And now, we live to see these manifesting in front of our very eyes.

Each has done their part, but there is more for us to go. We were attempted to be wiped out collectively, and we remained upright. We fought our way through at the face of impossible odds. We manifested through our forces a global resistance, a global war of information, a global reaction to the enemy - finally, the once immobilized body of humanity is now moving itself.

Now, even those who have been our enemies, have adopted many of our thoughts, or our ideals. As time comes to pass, they may even join us. Even if their ego disallows this acceptance, circumstances will force them to see and to understand.

Maybe we did not exist for centuries like the enemy does. We did not have their resources, their manpower, their worldly offices. We had actually nothing. But we have this: the strong fire inside man's heart, that longs for freedom. We also have strong allies: Satan and the Gods, and their hand and protective wing around us all. Our spiritual work extended this fire to human beings, which are now understanding more and more where our world is headed. We only wish the protective wings did also extend to them too. We believe the day for awakening will come, and people will see this on their own.

All we did here, exchanging opinions, information, knowledge, and understanding, led us to see this situation for what it is. We remain through all of this, positive. We understand that this world is not going to end, but it is going to change. It is going to change, contrary to the enemy's plan which is to completely enslave humanity. In fact, we are poised to believe that in the short term future, humanity will have come out of a great struggle, and facing the world with newfound positivity, freedom, and understanding. But if we are to be realistic, a storm is coming in front of us.

Humanity was so nicely sinking into nothingness, that no resistance or even violence was needed by the enemy. Now that humanity is pushed off the cliff, something is slowly waking up in them, and they are showing signs of resistance. It is as if there is spirit in the body of this dead collective.

We see now that the enemy is doing their utmost to restrain humanity, strangulate all rights, and just purge as many people of their enemies as possible. Seeing the media and the TV, it's as if watching Chinese television - there is nothing that would contradict the "Oligarchy". Before this, the opposite was the case: every time you opened your Television, the enemy was projecting that the heavens fell apart over some off topic statement from Trump.

Billions worldwide unanimously testified to this: We will not sit there and be enslaved. The enemy's system is raging consistently, trying to turn the tide around with intimidation, fear, violence, and more hatred. Only to receive all of this double at themselves. While the enemy appears very confident, all their agenda is in the open. Despite actions that want to appear bold, the enemy is losing control, because they are shaking on the inside.

The symbol of the United States, one of freedom and the power of the People, the Capitol, is seized by the military. People of all walks of life, and over 80 million Americans, are called terrorists, white supremacists, and curses are heaped on them on every media panel. Internet giants decide that presidents of Nations are nothing to them anymore - they close their ability to reach their people with a single click of a button. They praise their own self on Twitter, as if they are drug addicts speaking to a mirror.

Anyone who sees energies and can feel energies [those of you trained have this gift more or less], you will see that there are some dark energies emerging. Some of this is astrological, but much of this is a major reaction by the enemy. It hasn't been in decades that the enemy has been so agitated, so reckless, so revealed, so obvious.

Now everyone can see that the enemy is the source of hatred for this world. Other people who may dislike them, are only on the defensive.

Many people worldwide are looking in shock, unable to move or to think, in the sight of the things that are emerging. Many people in the United States are frozen with panic, with many dwelling in seething hatred, all while the media makers are fanning the flames of civil war.

Oligarchs and slavers of the lowest order, speaking on their own on television. Giving commands, spreading hate between people, dividing families, dividing states, dividing the very conscience of people and enforcing a "New World Order", a world for them and only for them. They happily promote and force clashes between people. The hatred, suffering, rage - of poor, broken, weaker people, tested in their wits end with politics, burdened by a stalled economy, all of this combined - mercilessly being abused without care. People who speak to stop this, are terrorists, evil, dissidents.

Every right that we knew and lived by, is going down a black hole. All people who are intelligent, or thoughtful, are asking themselves: Where are we going tomorrow? What does tomorrow hold?

I am in the unfortunate position to tell everyone, that historical occurrences such as these, never end in peace, stability, or safety for people. Our ancestors have been tested again with situations like this. Thomas Jefferson said, every so often, the well of freedom has to be renewed with fresh blood.

People who sacrifice for this, be this directly, or indirectly in the form of their time, and giving their help, have averted these disasters before. It's only in the few late centuries that human beings have had some time to advance, develop a character, and be able to have some power. The common man was nothing but a slave. The stampede of the Satanic forces, did change this. Satan gave every worthy man the opportunity to rise higher, and every man of heights the ability to reach higher.

For the average human who is aware of what is happening, and understands the political, social, rights related ramifications of this, they understand that we are moving towards a "New World". People thought all of this was a joke, a seance, a conspiracy theory. Now, it is something everyone gets to live.

As the enemy pushes their narratives on the United States, their intentions are to drive immature people to do things, that will later be used as justification for a full, worldwide curfew and strangulation of human rights. They want people going out there mad, it is all staged. A not so masterful game or confusion, acting, and theatre.

Here is what they don't want people to do: start understanding their game. Playing for the long term. Resisting them. Teaching others to do the same. Putting this game on the next level. Mass education. Civil disobedience. Spiritual power. Gathering knowledge. Creating new infrastructure away from these slaver clowns.

Remember - it was The People that were deceived into supporting Dorsey, Zuckerberg, and many other individuals who had nefarious intentions for the information, the freedom, and the means of communication for mankind. The same goes for our religious beliefs. It is now coming the time, where millions and billions have to collectively start opting out of this reptilian mindset. We are going to build our own web of existence.

The "New World Order" will not tolerate different opinions. They will not entertain people having control over their own monetary wealth, health, or spirituality. They will attempt to replace man, family, malform human sexuality, destroy social connections between humans, sever the link between humans and reality entirely. They want to return us to the oblivious state of the "Garden of Eden" - from one Hebrew story of a garden of slaves, into another Hebrew story that they hope will encompass our world.

They do not understand this: They are heading inside the waters that Satan has prepared and set for them. After the world will realize what kind of monsters they are, this is where everyone will want their removal. They are creating by their own hand which tries to damn mankind, a new mankind. New individuals. People with a different mindset, with different goals, who have surpassed different fears. They are now creating those on feet they will fall in the end, all over this world which they hope will become their plantation.

It is Satan's Will.

Below is the Ritual Schedule:

The next of Removing the Veil ritual, will be made public in the future, when we are given the OK to proceed with making it public. These rituals work consecutively and for the next to work, we have to make sure all the others that have been done, are in effect and their influence strong.
