

Spiritual Satanism, The Root of the Tree

▣ Fri Aug 11, 2017 5:27 am

By Hoodedcobra666

Site Admin

Greetings to all our People and Satanic Comrades.

Paganism is something people have only recently conceptualized, and formalized into this thing they call "Paganism".

According to the Jews, this is Satanism, and essentially, if we take the reality of the Sumerian meaning of Satyan from which Satan was stolen off and placed in Hebrew, to reverse the meaning to negative, back to it's positive and ancient meaning, we get what is called "Truth-ism". As Satyam/Satyan/Satya means Truth in Sanskrit.

Spiritual Satanism is the spiritual, and actual striving of such objective of understanding the Truth.

The enemy admits openly that not only we are Satanic at the Soul [The non Jews] but also that Satanism [They call this Idololatriy, Paganism, Satanism, Demonolatriy etc, but they simply mean Satanism] and not their own jewish alien filth, is our NATURAL state. We are naturally inclined to be Satanists and Satan is in us since birth. The sacrament of baptism is to rebuke the spirit of Satan from the person and force the spirit of "Jehovah" or "Christ" into the child.

After we are beaten down to being "Goyim", we Gentiles become Christians, Muslims and so forth. This is an unnatural and alien state for us, causing internal conflict and depression, as this is merely the jewish will imposed on people that were otherwise meant to be free from this and Satanic. The jews are in a constant fear that we will revolt against them and destroy them for this, as subconsciously we know what happened to us, as Marcus Eli Ravage has stated too, cultural replacement by forcible violence.

Pagans essentially have their own levels. Some are merely interested in the fables, and living a virtuous life. It's a good striving to regenerate the old culture, but what Pagans do as a mistake is what keeps them limited, is that they basically confine Paganism into a jewish standard unconsciously. Paganism is merely a natural way of looking at the world which many like to follow as a 'religion'.

They, for example, sometimes transverse Christian morality into Paganism, which is wrong. The same goes when investigation into the primal Sumerian root of Satan is called into the table, which leaves many of these people 'afraid', and leaves the people with a spiritual sensor, at the very least, curious. Weaker elements of the so called 'Pagans' go into convulsion when they are exposed to Satan, and all their otherwise 'common sense' and 'inquiry' blows away.

Because unconsciously they are Christians still, that are afraid of this.

Even if this relates to Truth, spirituality, and many other great things in itself, they focus on jewish propaganda on the term.

They are dabbling with Satan...They are just scared to admit it themselves as they think this actually makes them fall into the jewish standard, but actually, this is exactly what EXCLUDES THEM from the jewish standard of modern Paganism which is all about ignorant and only looking at a recent history to lose the bigger picture.

This is actually funny, as essentially, they themselves are dabbling "Satanists" too, and any Muslim, Christian or Jew would admit it. Because they knew for centuries more about Paganism than the "Pagans" themselves. Since they eradicated the Pagan culture after studying all of it, they decided to call them "Satanists" for VERY specific reasons. This wasn't some sort of lucky pick.

Satan actual begins in Sumeria, in Ancient India, and in the places where the Aryan Race has their beginning. These syllables were always associated with their head God in their otherwise polytheistic pantheons, which changed names. The enemy who has had access for two thousand years to all of this material, knows this all too well.

The Pagans, who are left culture-less, didn't. But the Truth is now out, finally.

The jews didn't just pick up a random name to name their Arch-enemy of all they are and do. Every character in the bible is stolen from a concept or more ancient character, most of the time from Hinduism or any other specific Pre-Christian Civilization, and the ancient Arch-Enemy is no different.

Ironically even in jewish tradition, Satan is the sensible, Satan is the civilizer, Satan is the great, the brave, the one who stands for justice, and in general, the Lucifer who brings light and knowledge into the world. All people of quality in Europe or in all parts of the planet, always associated with Demons and flirted with Satan/Lucifer ideologically, be it from musical geniuses to the black magician Adolf Hitler whom the enemy admits was "The Anti-Christ" and the "Son of Satan".

Every representation of Satan is about perfection, manifestation of the world, the infinite light, power, wisdom, heroic epics, the rebellion against tyranny, the eternal striving for perfection and freedom, the fight of man against a corrupted 'god' who is the jewish version of omnipotence etc, and generally it is very obvious that this character is basically a form of something eternal concealed into an epithet that in Hebrew means Adversary. Satan means "THE ADVERSARY" in Hebrew, with an emphasis on the "THE". He is the head adversary of the Jews.

However, all the names of the Gods remain as EPITHETS, not simply 'names'. The names of the Gods in all the Pagan sub-cultures have always been epithets. For those who know by heart that they are real beings, which is what we know, one quickly understands that the same entities and beings are cloaked into the same cloak in comparative mythology.

Satan fills in (and we have proved beyond any doubt) not only to be Shiva in Hinduism, Sata in Egypt, Wodanaz (Satanas) in Norse Paganism and so forth, but Satan also is a name that comes from the word meaning TRUTH (Satya) in Sanskrit.

We call Satan by an epithet, we invoke Truth, when we call this figure. This is why we are Spiritual Satanists. In a world of massive Jewish control and lying, it's normal for the Jews to have outlawed this being and wish the worst for it, and name the same being an "Adversary".

They also admit that this being has fathered all the Gentiles on Earth in separated racial families, which the Jews collectively call the "Goyim" and seek to destroy into a mixed cattle. Satan is also the lord of racists and all those who oppose the Jewish plans in every way.

The Jews can never be defeated by Pagans who merely pray to the Gods, and as far as we respect it, we must understand a fundamental Truth that in the Ancient Pagan times, the people who were at the top and running civilization (Not in the late Christian or Byzantine Era, this ended roughly with Marcus Aurelius Historically) were parts of the Mystery Schools.

The same goes for the Freemasons and all other Gentiles who advanced humanity, irrespective of if the Jews now have taken out all of them. In other words, what we coin as Spiritual Satanism is the inner core of the whole thing, the tree which has everything in it. In India this was called Sanatana Dharma, but this term fails us again largely as the "Scholars" of it are more "Jesus Krishna" ass kissers of the Jews, than they should be.

Sanatana-DHARMA hides however the name of Satana in an anagram again in it. And Dharma means way. The way of Satana...The True Way.

This is why we accept all Gentiles and we are Racialists and Tribalists. We also say it openly the Gods are tribal, and some people depending on their race will get attracted to certain Gods. Demon means God in the language of the term, and this comes from the Sanskrit Deva and the Ancient Greek Daemon, which later became the evil notion of the "Devil". "The Devil" is the second name of Satan, which means "THE" God, to show the leadership and the head of the Gods.

All Races must remain separated and advance in their own blueprint, but at the same time, we are one human larger tree, which many people pretend to brush off. This is a reality, and the existence of the Jew as an alien element that wants to exterminate ALL OF US, should REMIND US of this fact.

The Ancients even in the time of Alexander the Great knew of this very thing. Even if they maintained racial integrity or at least attempted to (except of the ignorant ones), those at the top who were in the spiritual hierarchy, never waged spiritual wars, never assimilated, and maintained belief and tenets of the same Gods, traditions that communicated and that could be crossed.

The one core tradition we have named Spiritual Satanism, and this is to be shared by all people. Through the root being re-planted, all people can grow their own race, culture, and spiritual religion, and nothing is lost, so long the races are alive.

In other words, the source is what important for growth. Focusing on branches is something others may be more comfortable about, but without a spiritual root, there are no branches. Fixating on a branch doesn't lead to the root either, neither to an understanding of the source of the tree.

This is what disappoints Pagans and they come to us. Many people who have started as Pagans are actually here because they prayed to the Gods and they led them to our "Spiritual University" so to say.

Modern Pagans seem to disregard the fact that Paganism came through the "Satanic Heavy Metal" scene, that was all about Satan. Satan was speaking through the echoes of what was left behind of our mass culture. We regenerated it completely and now it's called Spiritual Satanism. Other branches like Paganism came out on their own later.

Therefore I see Pagans (those who really follow up with their tenets anyway) are part of our own tree, but a specific branch. The same goes for others.

Spiritual Satanism encompasses everything, and cultivates everything good for humanity at large, and humanity as a 'human race', but also of all the respective races within humanity. This has always been the case and the Ancients who have built these similar monuments, the ley lines, and the cultures that build on the same framework (That we call Spiritual Satanism) but were influenced by their respective genetic and racial expression, understood this well.

There has never been spiritual war onto this world on spiritual matters. There has also been a many thousand years long cycle which was recorded in all cultures, the time of "Paradise" or the Golden Age, where all people advanced towards the universe in their own race karma and understanding. This would be the rule of what we call as "Spiritual Satanism".

Only friendships, assimilation and alliances (without any necessity for racial hybridization), and further in-depth understanding of the spirit happened in the Golden Age; because Gentiles shared the same root. So the Tree naturally became bigger with all it's branches, and the garden was flourishing.

It was only with the arrival of the jews, and negative universal forces, that humanity sank, "Religious Warfare" was invented, and that there ever became a deadening of the spirit of humanity. 'Humanity' was a project in the making, and it was interrupted, remaining unfortunately incomplete.

The Gods have left the spiritual knowledge behind to finish this objective and become "As the Gods" which was Satan's original 'promise', which Jehovah, a representation of the jews and the forces behind them, tried to halt and objected about. This can be fixed as we advance as a species in the future.

Spiritual Satanism must, and will solve this problem in all levels of existence. Spiritual Satanism is for all Gentiles, and we seek to purge negativity and ignorance to all the corners of the earth, so the whole of humanity can experience a Golden Age again.

Not in the sense of rainbow, new age filth, but a return to harmony, and equilibrium, which needless to say will require spiritual cutthroat violence to be achieved where this world has gone. Polluted parts of a tree poison and tree and bring it to death. We must be ready to cut these infected parts.

I hope and look forward for people to understand this objective and stop looking at Spiritual Satanists from the lenses our enemies have dictated from centuries. Stop seeing 'us' as a separate entity, and know that any true Spiritual Satanist has the best interests at heart from themselves, the world and humanity. This is the True Way towards the Eternal Dharma.

-High Priest Hooded Cobra 666

<http://www.joyofsatan.org>