

The Kabbalah Tree Exposed

The realm of Malkuth in Kabbalah is the material world, the physical existence. It is connected to Kether, the astral world, which overlaps and manifests the material world of Malkuth.

The Jews state that their use of the world tree of Kabbalah is to draw Kether down to Malkuth and materialize their workings into the physical world from the astral. You can see this as the 1 of Kether is the 10 of Malkuth. Vibration, mental images, and thoughtforms all relate to Kether.

Malkuth is connected to the Klipoth as well, because the Klipoth is referring to the material world which holds the spark of energy within it that gives it life, consciousness, and form. The Jewish texts are about putting the light of their own workings into the Klipoth (the physical world), and this also includes using the Gentiles as vessels to materialize their workings to transform reality into the Jewish one. They do this by projecting into their mind the letters of Hebrew and the thoughtform they call YHVH, and then connecting this into the energy of the mass mind to bring their Messianic World into existence.

In Kabbalah, the Rabbis such as Rambam wrote on how the Jews have a guardian angel which is their own higher mind or consciousness and how this ties into YHVH. This relates to Hokmah, which is what they call the right side of the brain, and feminine aspect of the psyche.

The term "angel" in Hebrew is "Malek"; this relates as well to the inner spark or soul consciousness in Kabbalah.

In the East the word "Jinn" means AWARENESS and is one of the nine Taoist Gods that relates to immortality and the layout of the soul. It is ruled by Agni, the word for the serpent energy in the Vedic world. Agni is also the fire of awakened consciousness by activation and raising of the serpent, and the inner spiritual consciousness of Gentiles. Jinn is also Genie which the Greeks called Daemon and showed this as the Good Spirit, the golden serpent which symbolizes Dionysus. This is the spiritually awakened state. When the Jews talk about "binding the Jinn" they are talking about binding Gentiles on the soul level with their Hebrew curses. The Roman spiritual elites were called "Gens" from Genie and this is the origin of the word Gentile.

Jinn is the awareness of the fully activated psyche.

When the Jews call Gentiles “Amalek” (meaning without Malek, without soul consciousness), they are stating they have bound us and we are without the consciousness of the activated serpent; the serpent energy is bound in Malkuth, an allegory for the root chakra. The Jews call Malkuth “the Fallen Realm” for this reason: the serpent has fallen down the spine to the root chakra and has been sealed there, which is what the Jewish curses of Genesis in the bible are based on. In the Torah, YHVH states this is the way to control the Gentiles and make them slaves to the Jews. Amalek is also the occult name of Satan in Kabbalah, as Satan (also called Satanama) is the name of the serpent energy; the five elements that form the soul and it’s five bodies. The Jews call Satan “the serpent energy of the Gentile soul”. This is why Malkuth is connected to Klipoth as well; it is about binding, which is what the Klipoth is.

The other meaning of Amalek relating to the Klipoth is that the Jews have attempted to bind our abilities to communicate with our Gods, and attempted to bind our Gods from being able to act in this world, by keeping the energy from the psychic plane from being able to come through and connect into the material. This is why we also are called “Without”. Not only without our normal awakened consciousness with the kundalini, but also without the Gods. The Jews call Gentiles who oppose them “the sparks of Amalek”, meaning souls that are still Satanic, and that Satan and the Gods can still communicate with these people who are not totally bound.

The three schools of Jewish occult teachings: Merkava, Bereshit, and the one that relates here what in English means "the forbidden commingling of energies". This last one is the teaching of how to counteract and use direct occult knowledge and spiritual warfare against Gentiles; it orders the use of the death penalty against any who use Pagan systems.

The Rabbis state that “Occultism of the Gentiles” is of Balaam. Balaam was a Pagan High Priest, meaning a Gentile who had a risen serpent, and was working with the Gods. Balaam cursed Israel in the Torah. In the Talmud Balaam is described as being in the Jewish Gehenna (their afterworld, similar to purgatory) up to his neck in boiling feces, as punishment by YHVH for cursing Israel. The Jews tried to then pretend this is Jesus in the Talmud to hide the fact that spiritually awakened Gentiles with psychic abilities and occult knowledge are the Jews greatest threat. Balaam is the archetype of the souls of Amalek, or, the Satanic Souls.

The Rabbis who write on the subject of Balaam state this is alive today, that all Gentile occultists are usually anti-semitic and use spiritual energy against them. This is why the Jews promoted and pushed their Kabbalah into the Gentiles spiritual schools that they were unable to destroy with either the Church or the Communist system, aimed to subvert and bind, removing the original Gentile's teachings and replacing it with the Kabbalah which also curses the Gentile occultists for being the same as Balaam by nature. This is why in the Jewish Noahide laws (the seven laws all Gentiles must abide by under Jewish rule), Paganism and occultism is the first forbidden thing and it is punished by beheading. This is the number one threat to the Jews.

The Rabbis state Satan is alive and real and can get around them and undo them through Gentile occultists. They state this is because Gentile occultists, guided by Satan, have opened doorways through the Jewish binding of the energy damping fields of the Jewish thoughtform relating to the Klipoth; the Klipoth being the realm of Jewish cursing against our Gods, Gentiles, and our spiritual energy fields.

This is also why people have a lot of trouble manifesting workings or their workings do not manifest as strong as they would otherwise have. The damping field of the Klipoth, the Malkuth, which is related to Shekinah as well the 22 Hebrew letters the Jews have used to bind the Gentiles with. The Final RTR is the way out of this.

Excellent sermon!

Now if only someone will tell me about Jewish chakras and how their souls work. I want to know everything about the enemy.

Hail Satan

Kind of weird how people assume that the enemy has a different chakra system, more or less chakras etc. Yes, the Jews do have an alien soul, this can easily be noticed if you hang around a real Jew on a daily basis and notice the way they act and such. Every Jew I've been around, I've noticed it and if you can feel auras you can notice that they do have a different vibe than gentiles. But I doubt their chakra system is any different, only different in the way that it doesn't come from the Nordics (Satan and the Gods) so it's definitely not as powerful as an Aryan soul. However, if I'm wrong, someone let me know.

The posts that the HPs make regarding the enemy is good, as we can get insight into their agenda and how they use the occult but I wouldn't focus too much on enemy shit. A Satanist should never practice Jewish Cabala or anything like that. We are not Jews.

The structure of the Jewish soul is different. The Jews are warned to not engage in Gentile spiritual systems as they are toxic to them. The entire section of Jewish occult teachings is for the Jewish leadership and based on execution of any Jew caught practicing non Jewish occult teachings, because it is toxic to the tribe. And the Jewish occult teachings, their letters, are toxic to Gentiles.

Good point, I thought about that moments after I posted that message. How some Jews have gone insane after practicing gentile practices, it was in the Jewish Cabala documentary on YouTube. But my question is, do you think the Jewish soul is capable of MO or no? What's your opinion on that?

Reply by the author of the original post:

If by MO you mean the Magnum Opus, no I don't. The knowledge of the Magnum Opus is based on the very Gentile spiritual system that is toxic to them. It is for Gentiles.

Also Jews are not spiritual, they are materialistic even among themselves. The occult system they created is nothing more than the way to gain material control and steal off everyone else forever. They think farting into a thoughtform they created night and day to destroy the world and steal off Gentiles makes them holy.

They do have the 7 basic chakras like we do have 7, but they are not the same in essence, programming, and in how they are. They have a different type of soul.
