

The Question of the Alt-Right Has Been Answered

The question is why the Alt-Right is pushing Putin's propaganda at such a level that they all sound like they are reading a script off Russia Today, which was founded by a Jew and Putin owns. That question is now answered. Most of them are on the payroll of the FSB formerly called the KGB.

Putin's own mother was Jewish, as his own biography revealed before it was altered. Putin bragged his father was a Hebrew-reading Talmudic scholar and he grew up in a home full of orthodox Jews. Because he is a Jew. Reporters who tried to report on such were all assassinated or imprisoned. This is why Putin has banned holocaust revisionism in Russia and banned anti-Semitic commentary. He elevated an army of Jews to Oligarch power and was Israel's Man of the Year in 2015. He has offices in Israel. The three Jewish Oligarchs Putin removed from power helped put him into power as a brother Jew but criticized him in their media. Putin's trusted Oligarch who was the main Jew who put him into power is Abramovich who is still his major ally. Abramovich is chairman of the Federation of Jewish Organizations in Russia. Putin's government is a nothing but a list of Jewish Oligarchs. If you study the lists of the rich in Putin's Russia, Jewish Oligarchs collectively own the entire nation. The Rothschilds are still in Russia as well and have their offices there. Medvedev is Jewish as well. According to Jewish archives, his surname is Mendel.

Putin has banned all Ethno Nationalism for White Russians, banned their parties and imprisoned their White Nationalist Leaders. Putin is also no friend of Assad either. He paid the FSB to ship thousands of Chechen Islamists down to Syria around the time of the Sochi Olympics' to fight Assad. The FSB was also caught giving the secret codes of Syrian and Iranian Anti-Aircraft batteries to the Israeli Military so they could bypass them and attack the Syrian and Iranian military. Putin has also stated Assad must leave. Putin only got directly involved when Assad handed the control of military operations over to the Iranian Generals who were going to ship thousand of Iranian troops into Syria. Then Israelis panicked and Putin came in to take the reigns of the Syrian command instead to keep the Syrians and Iranians on a leash for Israel. While sabotaging Syria from within where he can get away with it.

This is the reality of Putin's Russia.

Note Dugin's, Euro-Asian union was created and promoted by the Euro-Asian Jewish Congress. Of which Dugin is connected with and has sat on panels with. Dugin also has played a role in the creation of "The Peoples Republic of Donetsk" which flies Communist Flags and host icons of the Jew Stalin in it. And has Jews such as Kof within key positions of its government. The Novorosiya mentioned in the article below that has connections to the leaders of the Alt-Right is supported by the Jewish Oligarch Boris Spiegel, who is a Putin ally.

Dugin is Putin's sock puppet and Dugin has stated the goal is to create a Euro-Asian Union. That will be the recreation of the USSR in which the Jewish Kalergi plan will be finalized. Extermination of the Whites by mixing them with Asians and other races, ruled by a Jewish Oligarchy in a neo-Soviet Union. Note Heimback also uses the symbol of Dugin's neo-Communist movement as the symbol of his own movement. And praises Dugin who called for the end of the White Race, praises the Jews and condemns anti-Semitism and demands the mass slaughter of the entire White Ukrainians.

Dugin is a Jew himself (Dugin is a common Jewish surname), and Heimback is worshipping this Jew and covering up for this. Richard Spencer's wife is a Russian, Euro-Asianist who translates Dugin's works into English and Spencer promotes this as well. Spencer also has Jewish mentors and denies the Kalergi plan, which is right in Kalergi's book and is happening. Spencer also denies the Jewish genocides of the Ukrainians under Communism. This is the key talking points of Dugin as well. In fact, Spencer might as well just be channeling Dugin now. Spencer refuses to mention the Jews at all and is friends with the Bush family, which means deep state connections. Duke has lived in Russia and is close friends with Dugin.

Duke and Dugin.

So the Alt-Right's leadership is crypto Jews like Mike Enoch and Rothman who promotes Duginism all the time, half-Asians with Jewish surnames on the father's side who pretend to be White supremacists who promote Duginism, Putin, and open Jewish agents like Weev and murderous rape gangs for White Women. And a general assortment of clowns on the payroll of the KGB who promote Duginism pretending to be pro-White Communism. That is the Alt-Right leadership. All lying to their trusting members.

How the Alt-Right and White Nationalists in the US Were Co-Opted by the Russians

(TFC) — The League of the South, David Duke, Jared Taylor, Sam Dixon (Richard Spencer's lawyer), Kevin McDonald, the American Freedom Party, and the Traditionalist Youth Network. It reads like a list of attendees for a conference of Alt-Right and White Nationalists. Add the Syrian Social Nationalist Party, Golden Dawn of Greece, Issuy-Ka of Japan, Dayaar Mongol of Mongolia, The Russian Imperial Movement, and a litany of other groups from around the world and it's a collection of nationalist organizations that have nothing in common except nationalism. Each organization proclaims they are the defenders of their respective nations. Except they do have one thing in common; they have membership histories in a single organization: The World National-Conservative Movement.

We're revolutionizing the news industry, but we need your help! Click here to get started.

Editor's Note: A document dump provided exclusively to The Fifth Column by "Spartacus", an activist engaged in activities similar to those described in a recent article by TFC, provided context for seemingly unrelated events. To protect the identity of the source, The Fifth Column has located many of those same documents, or documents showing the same evidence, online. They are linked throughout the article.

A roster of people and organizations involved in the movement was provided to The Fifth Column. Almost identical rosters can be found on the Russian watchdog The Sova Center's website, the Vanguard News Network's forums (a news organization sporting the tagline: "No Jews. Just Right"), and on the Nordic Resistance Council's website. The Nordic Resistance Council declined to join the movement formally but was "open to cooperation". According to Spartacus and renowned scholar on the Far-Right, Anton Shekhovtsov, The World National-Conservative Movement (WCNM) sprang forth during the International Russian Conservative Forum in 2015.

The WCNM seeks to create a worldwide nationalist movement in which each nation's groups act as a state subordinate to the movement. In other words, The nationalists are really globalists. Seeking to create a Nationalist World Order. The organization's manifesto states national differences should be put aside so global cooperation can begin:

Between many of us remain many unforgotten historical grievances, religious disagreements, territorial claims and other conflicts. However, in the presence of such serious menaces on the global scale, as a result of which we all suffer, these conflicts are less important to the existence of our nations, cultures and religions.

Victory of the conservative revolution even in one country without fail will provide an example for other countries. For this reason it is necessary to support each other in terms of information and organization. For that purpose it is necessary to form a worldwide national-conservative movement.

According to Shekhovstov WNCM is a different breed than typical nationalist groups because it is transnational and because it seeks to create "training camps":

In particular, the WNCM is going to create an information network consisting of the web-sites and pages on social networks as a platform for exchanging information and experience, defend “persecuted national-conservatives and activists” by petitioning the governments, provide “humanitarian help” to Serbs in Kosovo, Christians of the Middle East, and “inhabitants of Novorossia” – a region in Eastern Ukraine occupied by Russia-backed separatists. It should be noted that, in April 2014, Rodina and the Russian Imperial Movement formed the All-Russian Social Movement “For Novorossiya” that called for the annexation of not only Crimea but most of Ukraine’s territory too.

A more frightening part of the programme is the intention of the WNCM to organise “joint camps for military and athletic instruction” and form volunteer international brigades that would be used in zones of military conflict. This is hardly surprising that one of the organisations invited to take part in the WNCM is “Unité Continentale” that was formed in summer 2014 by French and Serbian ultranationalists who volunteered to go to Eastern Ukraine to support Russia-backed separatists. Moreover, in July-August 2015, the Russian Imperial Movement advertised a week-long military camp called “Partisan” and invited men to learn survival techniques, urban guerrilla tactics, military topography, as well as practicing with Kalashnikovs and other weapons.

Spartacus concurs with the assessment and pointed to a recent raid on a paramilitary training camp in Germany.

As mentioned earlier, the idea for WNCM is believed to have its genesis at the 2015 International Russian Conservative Forum (IRCF). A second IRCF was held in April of this year. Indeed many of the organizations on the roster were present at the 2015 event, as revealed in emails of the British government released under the Freedom of Information Act. According to the emails:

St Petersburg hosted the “International Conservative Forum” over the weekend of 21-22 March, a gathering of European far-right political parties organised by Rodina (Russian right wing party). The aim of the event according to the organisers was to unite Russian and EU conservative forces “in the context of European sanctions against Russia and the US pressure on European countries and Russia”. There were representatives of far-right political parties or organisations from the following countries:
Sweden, Spain, Denmark, Germany, Italy, Bulgaria, Belgium, Greece, UK

2. Nick Griffin and Jim Dowson (a Scottish anti-abortion campaigner) formed the UK delegation. The French National Front was absent, reportedly because they felt attendance could jeopardise results at the forthcoming French municipal elections.

Although the United States was not listed in the British emails, The Fifth Column obtained a copy of a resolution signed at the conference. It bears the signature of a Jared Taylor representing the American Renaissance. Both Jared Taylor and American Renaissance are on the roster for the WNCM.

This document begins to set the tone for what may be the greatest Russian intelligence operation of all time. A .pdf of the document is available on the IRCF's website. The entire text of the document is meant to establish Europe as a Russian sphere of influence. It calls for an end to NATO and for the creation of a European collective security organization. Then it makes certain to note that Russia is "a member of the extensive European family". The document's "main goal", however, is to establish a "progressive world order". All of this was done against the backdrop of the 2015 Ukraine crisis.

Shortly after this conference, one of the driving forces behind the WNCM, the Russian Imperial Movement, began funding nationalist groups in other countries. It should be noted these same people provided 30 million Rubles in "humanitarian aid" to far-right fighters in Ukraine. The aid consisted of drones, combat boots, and communication equipment.

The Czechs have had their own issues with the WNCM and the IRCF. On page 23 of a document detailing Russian connections to far-right paramilitary groups in their country, it begins spelling out the connections between WNCM, the IRCF, and Rodina (a Russian political party):

ND joined the "World National-Conservative Movement" in 2015. According to Anton

Shekhovtsov, 46 the political party Motherland (Rodina) stands behind the creation of this movement.

A member of Motherland Yuriy Lyubomirskiy is the chair of the organising committee of the World

National-Conservative Movement. Its members are far-right political parties and organizations from Europe and the USA, such as the Golden Dawn, Falanga, the National Democratic Party of Germany, Jobbik, British Unity and the American Freedom Party. It has more than 50 members altogether.

Some of the parties invited to participate in the Movement had already been participants in the International Russian Conservative Forum, which took place in St. Petersburg in March 2015. The forum was organized by the party Motherland (Rodina), which was founded by current Deputy Prime Minister Dmitry Rogozin.

While Russian backing of far-right paramilitaries is known in intelligence and some academic circles, the Western reader may be surprised to find out the Kremlin's activities are not limited to Eastern Europe, or even Europe at all. In 2016, the Kremlin paid tens of thousands of dollars to put up secessionists from not just the thought of places like Northern Ireland, Basqueland, Catalonia, and so on; but also from Texas, California, Puerto Rico, and Hawaii.

Unremarkably, Alt-right and white nationalists groups have championed the same cause. Matthew Heimbach of the Traditionalist Workers Party was headed to Cleveland around that same time in 2016. A contemporary article mentions his organization's goals:

"Heimbach's party promotes a handful of hard-right goals, ranging from the creation of ethnically separate polities to the revocation of birthright citizenship in the US. It also seeks the removal of US authority from "occupied territories" – including states like Hawaii."

Heimbach spoke of attending a nationalist conference organized by the Russian Imperial Movement in the same article. Heimbach said it was the "first step towards creating an official nationalist umbrella organization for Traditionalists around the globe."

In the past, Heimbach has called for the breakup of the United States to create white-only nations.

At this point, the connections between White Supremacists in the United States and the Russian Imperial Movement are plain, admitted, and exposed. The reader can't visit many of the Alt-Right's or White Nationalist's websites without finding some article praising the Russian Imperial Movement. So, what is the Russian Imperial Movement?

It's the Russian government. As noted above in the Czech document, the Imperial Movement was the brainchild of the Rodina Party. One of its co-founders was Dmitry Rogozin, a Russian Ambassador to NATO and Deputy Prime Minister for Defense and Space Industry in Russia. In fact, when a member of the Legislative Assembly in St. Petersburg objected to the IRCF being held there and asked for an investigation, she was shut down by the prosecutor's office. The IRCF brags about it on their site:

“St. Petersburg Prosecutor S.I. Litvinenko did not find ‘reason to initiate in front of the Russian Federation General Prosecutor’s Office the issue of recognition activities of such organizations undesirable in the Russian Federation.’”

To recap, elements within Russia’s defense apparatus founded Rodina, which in turn founded the Russian Imperial Movement. The Russian Imperial Movement funds far-right militants all over the world and pressures them into signing documents that support the creation of a Russian sphere of influence in Europe and a weakening of the United States. Prominent Alt-Right and White Nationalists have ties to the Russian Imperial Movement, and at least one has signed such a document. These are verifiable facts.

Just as the United States intelligence community seeks out and sponsors dissidents in foreign countries to spark rebellion and increase the US sphere of influence, the Russian government does the same thing. In this case, it appears it built a movement incorporating nationalists from all over the world and conned them into becoming tools of Russian foreign policy.

Groups whose members consider themselves patriots have been co-opted by the Russian government and are simply fulfilling the wishes of Moscow. Those in the Alt-Right and White Nationalist movements who consider Russia an ally should remember the moment they allied with the Russian Imperial Movement, they became intelligence assets for the Russian government. Intelligence assets are used and then discarded. Whether intentional or not, these “patriots” have given up on their country and are serving a foreign power’s wishes.

Incidentally, the only advertisement on the IRCF website is a permanent ad in support of the campaign of now President Donald Trump. It directed users to a website that has been taken offline but is archived here. Readers will notice the only two links on the site are a link back to the IRCF page and one to GoDuma.Ru.

A special note to members of these co-opted groups: Our sources and informants were able to put this together. Why wasn't your leadership capable of doing the same?
