

The Third Eye, God, and Kabbalah: Stolen from the East

According to Kabbalah, the highest realm, or god, is called the En. In Kabbalah this is the realm of Kether. Now, on the world tree, the seven lower faces are the seven main chakras. However, the three upper worlds (or faces) are the left and right hemispheres of the brain with the pineal gland in the middle. All of the chakras are corresponding to parts of the brain as well. The pineal gland connects to the crown and to Kether.

Kether is given the Yod letter, which is the dot of emanation. The whole of the Hebrew alphabet comes from the Yod. The Yod is spelled "Iod" in Kabbalah, and the 'D' and 'T' are double letters in Kabbalah which makes it "Iod," "Iot" or "Iota." The Greek system, where this is stolen from, states the same for the Iota; that it's the emanation point. Both are the number ten which is the number of birth and the crown. The universe was born of Iota, the tenth letter in the Greek language and in the Vedic language. The 'Em' mantra is given the highest status in the Veda, and the 'I' letter is vibrated like an "EEEEEE" sound. This is why in Sanskrit the 'Em' is also spelled "Im."

Now this is the connection to the Greek system, which Kabbalah was taken from, as scholars have written books on. It's also connected to the Hindu system in the east, which is the same system. The dot point of emanation is the letter 'I.' In the Sri Yantra, this dot is placed as the Bindu, which is the emanation point in the crown chakra, and it's given the Em mantra. The name of Jupiter in Latin is given as Iupiter. It's a name for the crown chakra. Em is the mantra of the Goddess Saraswati. The crown chakra and third eye. The Swan that Saraswati sits on is the symbol of the left and right hemispheres of the brain with the pineal gland in the center in esoteric symbolism. This is also the meaning of the Roman Eagle, which the Legion placed at the top of their standards that they called the spine of the Legion. This is why the standard bearer wore the leopard skin to show the transformative energy of the serpentine energy. Shiva is shown in animal skin in the east for the same reason. This Eagle was stolen by the Christians and turned into the Dove.

You can also note this with Aphrodite who is showing the same in the West:

Statue of Saraswati from Indonesia:

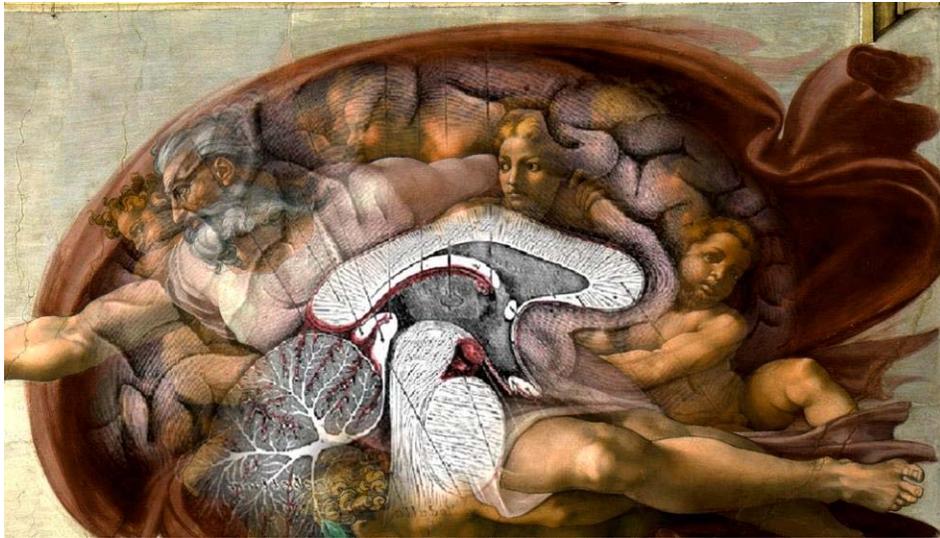

This is also the capstone in the pyramid with the all-seeing eye. The pyramid is the spine with the capstone being the head, which has the open third eye on it. Saraswati is the Shakti power of Brahma. The crown is called the door to Brahman, which is the Para Brahman. This is what the En, or En Sop, is in Hinduism. The seed mantra or Shakti mantra of the Crown is the Em mantra, which is the sound form to activate this point and expand the consciousness. That is why the highest realm is called this.

In the Central American civilizations which were Vedic, they had Sanskrit as their language. One of these was the Mayans. The Turtle was their symbol of Orion, which is the head. If you look at the turtle, this is the brain, which has the serpent coming out at the third eye. This is the fully open eye like in the Egyptian Pharaoh Uraeus crown. The turtle is serpent-like because as a reptile it has the head of the serpent.

This was encoded by Michelangelo in The Creation Of Adam:

Michelangelo was a student of Neo-Platonism and thus a student of the Greek esoteric system. He, like his counterparts, had to keep this secret because the punishment for being a Hellene (which was the Church's charge of being a Pagan) was to be burned at the stake by the Catholic Church. This is why the masters of the renaissance hid so much in art. The renaissance was the Hellenistic movement to bring Europe back to the European tradition of Paganism.

The Em is the mantra to awaken and open the crown and third eye and expand the consciousness. Michelangelo was showing what the Tenth letter, the number of birth, does and how it's used in the body. The 'l' letter is vibrated like an "EEEEEE" sound. This is why in Sanskrit the Em is also spelled Im.

The Jews in their stolen and corrupted Kabbalah go on and on about how the En Soph is not knowable, and that you shouldn't even try to expand your consciousness there. This is because they don't want people doing so, and maybe because they can't. They are an alien soul trying to use Gentile spiritual knowledge which is alien to their soul even after trying to modify it for them. Many Rabbis have gone insane from Kabbalah, which is why they placed so many rules on who can practice it within their own circles.

However, the Gentile can and does reach the En, which is the highest realm of universal consciousness. This is the point of spiritual systems for Gentiles.

Brahma the Hindu creator God, who relates to the crown chakra and whose Shakti mantra is the Em, was stolen and corrupted into Abraham in the Torah. Sara, Abraham's wife, is stolen from Saraswati. This is why Abraham gets the number 100 in Kabbalah, the number of the crown which is also ten times ten (ten being the lota letter).

The word in Kabbalah Gematria for all the paths on the world tree (which is the spine and brain) is Lev. However, this is an anagram that was stolen from Vel, which is the name of Shiva in the form of Skanda in the east, and is shown as a golden spear with the blade symbolizing the head pointing upwards to heaven while the base of the spear is in the ground (the root).

The entire Kabbalah was stolen out of the East.
