

Why The Shema of the Jews is Destruction and Death for Gentiles

The letter Shin is the name of "god" in Hebrew. It's the Ha Shem in Hebrew: The Shin. This is where the name Shema comes from and why it's one of the most important names of YHVH which is the Jewish Race in the Torah.

In the Jewish Kabala, which is the decoded Torah, Moses defeats the forces of Amalek by holding his hands above his head to make the symbol of the Shin letter. This is related to one thing in Judaism: the Tefillin which is the black box that the Jews wear on their head that contains the Shema prayer. They wear it while praying the Shema prayer.

The secret symbol of the Shin letter in Kabala is the main Shin with the three prongs which represents the upper world of the Kabala tree; the left side of the brain, Binah, the right side of the brain, Chokhmah, and the crown and optic thalamus, Keter. However, there is another Shin with four prongs inverted and interlocking within this facing downwards towards the three prongs. This forms the occult Shin which is the "Second Shin" of the mysterious 23 letters in Kabala. The four prongs stand for YHVH.

In Judaism, the Shema prayer is what the Rabbis state will bring about the Messiah, the Jewish world kingdom in which the Gentiles (which also means "Nation" and actually means races of mankind) will be destroyed by the Jewish race and the world will be turned into a Jewish one only. This is why the Shin letter in Judaism is the symbol of their "god" destroying the different Gentile nations in the Torah. Each Jew is supposed to get 2800 Gentiles as slaves. If one does the math on the 144,000 number, which represents the 12 tribes of Israel in revelation who follow the Jewish Messiah in destroying the nations of the world (which literally means Gentiles of the world), 2800 worked out to 144,000 adds to around 403 million which is a number relating to the Georgia Guidestones that demands the population be kept at under 500 million. This mysterious monument was put out by one of the Jewish run Masonic organizations which is a Kabbalistic Society. Note this monument ties into the Jewish Bible.

The final fact about the Shema prayer, which is the most important statement of faith in Judaism for destroying the Gentiles to bring about the end of the Gentile world, is simple. Amalek in Hebrew is the occult word for Satan. The Jews call the Gentiles "Satan" in their sacred texts. However, Amalek refers especially to the White race as the actual direct descendants of Satan. The God Enki, whom the Sumerians also called Satan, was stated to be the creator of the "Ari" whom

He created in His own image. Ari is also related to the name "Aryan." The Sumerians are known to have been White with blue eyes. However, the Jews do hold the other races to be related to Satan as well.

The three prongs of the Shema as mentioned relate to the three worlds which form the brain in Kabala; the seat of consciousness. However, the other four prongs relate to the "YHVH" as the thought form they have created (which is the Jewish Bible) that they use the Shema to bring down to the material realm from the astral realm and connect and channel this through their own consciousness. The individual Jewish mind is connected to the greater mind or program of this thought form allowing the individual Jew to become a conduit for this power to manifest. This is also relating to bringing this down from Keter, the realm of "god," that of the astral or ether where this energy is generated to Malkuth which is the physical realm which means "The Kingdom" which is the Kingdom of the Jews that they want to build on earth. The Tefillin is the symbol of Malkuth.

The three prongs of the Shin relate to Avir the Ether, Shekinah the vibration created by speaking the Torah, and the Elohim which is the manifestation of this vibration and the consciousness field it generates in the astral.

The Shema is how this is materialized into the physical realm (the Malkuth) hence the four prongs as well. YHVH relates to the four elements of creation that form the symbol of earth, the cube or square. The YHVH is also the symbol of the Torah. The Shema materializes the entire spell of the Torah. The 23rd letter of the second Shin: $2+3=5$ for the five elements, Sh is fire, E is ether, M is water, and A is air. That is what this means. It relates to bringing the astral realm the ather to the physical world with the four elements to fully manifest this spell from the ether or astral to Malkuth the physical world.

The Shema Reverse Torah Ritual is the major key to defeating the Jewish race totally and forever. The Shema Reverse Torah Ritual is to be done daily. It is the major key to saving your own life and the lives of Gentiles from being destroyed. Everything in the Jewish Bible that this Shema materializes is one large death curse on all Gentiles. This is why the Greek and Roman rulers ordered the Jewish Torah burned, and banned it from being recited by the Jews. They were adepts in the Pagan religions, and they knew what this book of the Jews really is.

Thanks to Satan and the Gods, the power to stop this is now in your own hands. The Rabbis warned in their own Kabala that Satan would destroy the Jews by destroying the Torah by REVERSING IT. The Reverse Torah Rituals were given to us by Satan and the Gods. Satan is also code for Gentiles which means the Gentiles will destroy them by reversing the Torah.

What if we got 2800 Jewish slaves a piece and reigned as kings of the earth? Restored the Ancient mystery cults of all the old gods and UR became the capital of the earth and the grand seat of EA!

Yeah, jews will happily slave for you. They will give you nice poison to your food, kill your children, and chant the torah above your bed just to make sure you suffer permanently.

They are horrible even at slaving.

No jews allowed, nor interaction with them.

We take no prisoners and we take NO slaves.

Yes, that too.

The Shema is the ultimate confession of the jewish fate and the jewish mission. Reversing it subdues both.

The Shema RTR stops the torah spells from materializing the 72 erases the spell from existence off the astral. The other RTR's target specific regions of jewish power that need to be addressed.

And the Shema Prayer RTR is so short and EASY to do. Get enough people (10s of thousands worldwide) doing it daily, and that might work for starters. How many Jews are (estimated) to do the Shema Prayer daily ? Our psychic energy against theirs.

Jews may do the same but they are weaker than we are. They are just too many. Or we wouldn't have bottlenecked them in like a few years if they were that strong.

However, most people are too lazy to act. And primarily, this laziness, has been destructive for Gentiles.

With the Shema remember even among the Jews only a smaller number actual do this ritual twice daily. Most don't even care. It's probably the Hasidic sects which are still keeping the Jews going occult wise at the top by this point. The jews fucked themselves over with creating liberal reformist sects they still read the Talmud but they don't do much of the occult Kabala stuff or rituals. Rabbinical leaders in America have written long bitching rants about how the secularization of the Jewish race is the biggest threat to them. They don't follow any of the rituals and only go to Synagogue on Yom Kippur and such. It's costing them major energy. This is why the Baal Shem Tov created the Hasidic movement. Judaism was falling apart and becoming weak so he created a occult movement to make sure the Jews would keep the occult rituals and kabala study and practices. This also has cost the jews. The Oral Torah the Kabala was not supposed to be written down. But Rabbi Luria had many students and he forbade them to write any of the Kabala down. However he taught too many at once since this knowledge was in a small group. It seems he knew it had to be taught to more to keep it going. His students wrote down a lot of his teachings with the Lurian Kabala. This movement created Zevy and the messianic movement that then created the Frankist movement that brought Communism and the control of the world banks from. The thrones of such leaders are sat upon by Hasidic jewish leaders and their council rules. These movements started to teach Kabala openly and much of its information made it into the public. After Zevy the jews tried to instill strong regulations back into who can learn the Kabala to try and keep this quiet again, but the information was already well out there. Half of the world's jew population were part of Zevy's movement.

So you can note it's the Kabbalistic jews who are the leaders and pushers behind the jewish race. This is why the jews need Israel to exist. They need a base to reculturalize their own and keep the ultra orthodox jews expanding their numbers. That is why they get so many gibbs in Israel. The secular jews hate the ultra orthodox jews. The Rabbis are the leadership of the jews, and many of them could care less about anything of the occult. They read the Talmud, but that's the only level they stay at.

The ultra orthodox are a violent annoyance to many of the secular jews in Israel. They harass people by spitting on them, throwing trash at them and attacking them in general. They are also allowed out of having to serve in the IDF as well. They are always trying to turn Israel into a theocracy run by them. Even the ultra orthodox jews fight each other as well. You have a kind of gang war between different sects of them within their own sect where they attack each other with weapons as well. They are just fucking insane and deserve each other in Israel.

The different types of jews hate each other as well. The Europe jews hate the Arab and Asian jews, and the serphadic jews hate the eastern European jews, it goes on and on. Jews are the most hateful people on earth.

The only thing all Jews hate more than each other is the Goyim.

I think if the jews ever get their one world kingdom it will be the end of them. Look at what happened in the Soviet Union when they grabbed the richest Empire on Earth for themselves. The second the Goyim were out of the way they started fighting each other for power. The jew Stalin then murdered his way through millions of jews to get to the top of the jew heap only to then be murdered later on by other jews. This infighting destroyed the Soviet Union further.

The worst punishment for the jews as a race is to give them what they want. Their own world all to themselves with none of the Goyim around to mess it up for them.

The jews of the world should be sent to a nice topical island far away from any other land and given what they need to build themselves a society there. And then left there forever to live amongst their own kind. The major moral flaw of the jew is their resistance to productive labour. Everything they do is a criminal method to steal the value of other peoples productive labour and merits to the point they think they are entitled to enslave the Gentiles of the world just to mooch off them violently. Israel is nothing but a welfare nation that steals off the American People to exist and uses the Arabs as slave labour.

This would force the jews to do their own labour to build their own society. What would happen is the jews would start fighting each other to create a master and slave caste to then force most of their society into a Goyim like slave caste so the rulers could sit back and violently mooch off them. In the end they would destroy their own society in a series of uprisings and civil wars.

I've been noticing what you said here but I wasn't too sure if it was legit or not. Like they were pretending to hate them. But what you say is completely true. Ultra Orthodox jews do protest in israel of all places to show that they are discriminated against. Studying the psychology of the jew can be very interesting. And I mean this like a scientist studying a parasite and not like something beautiful like wildlife or what have you.

Seeing how their mind works going against their own even though they are a hive mind inside. It becomes apparent how faulty they were made. The best we can do to the ones that aren't consciously attacking Gentiles should be put under HEAVY surveillance in some place like Madagascar like other Gentiles have suggested that know about the jewish problem. Eventually they should die out since they NEED a host to survive. Death penalty to the ones who are currently using occult means to attack us. But then again some nations might want to get rid of all them COMPLETELY if you know what I mean and you know what? I couldn't care less if that's the route that's taken. They aren't humans after all.
