

You Just Can't Win with Jew Made Up Original Sin

I know the favorite pastime of Christian moralists is to rail about gay people, escorts, porno, people having sex outside of marriage, anyone who ever masturbated ever in the history of the universe and such... but let's be honest and hold the bible gropers to the standard of their own Bible which they never read anyway, but like to pretend they did or something. They like to create their own standard of acceptable sex to make them pure to then condemn everyone from.

In Christianity, all sex is deviant and thus immoral and sinful. Sex is the original sin that causes the fall of man; this is mentioned in the Old Testament, and it was the original gospel of the church. The point of the gospel was that Jesus is the only sinless man because he was born of a virgin without sex involved. We are born in sin because our parents had sex to create us. Jesus, the perfect Christian, is a celibate, sex hating, woman hating Jewish man who tells everyone that normal sexual desires are the worst sin and will send them all to hell. For a man to even feel desire for a woman is a sin in Christianity as stated by Jesus. Jesus tells everyone to be a eunuch for the Kingdom of Heaven. A eunuch is a man who is castrated, and thus can't ever have sex or masturbate. This is Jesus the perfected Christian whom all Christians are supposed to be like. Christian Monks would literally castrate themselves in the most devout cases. The church carried on the practice of castrating boys for centuries up until the 19th century. Many times they did it so that the boys would sing in their church choirs to avoid having any "icky, Eve-like, whores" around; you know, those people called women.

The church mandated and enforced celibacy on the European population, even among married couples as well, for insane amounts of time. When a woman gave birth, the church priests would count back the months to her conception to see if it was during the periods of enforced celibacy, and woe to the couple if it was. This had the effect of lowering the White birth rates as much as possible, and this is what the Jews are still doing today.

Don't give me that "family values" talk, either. Jesus, the Perfect Christian, hated the family unit and insisted that a person needs to HATE their father, their mother, and their siblings in order to love him; and also that he had come to turn family members against each other, thus destroying the family unit. The European White family unit especially. This is what the Jews are still doing today.

Masturbation is also a sin; the sin of Onanism. You just can't win in Christianity. Don't have sex with anyone else ever, don't masturbate, don't even think about anything sexual because even the thought is a sin and is the same as having sex, as Jesus stated.

It's the ultimate form of Jewish guilt peddling; take something natural and psychopathologize it into something evil, and then offer the solution of control by Jewish narratives. That's the same old Jewish tactic even today with sexism and racism which are their attempts to turn racial altruism and normal sex roles into sinfulness. They peddle guilt, and then offer their solution which is that of Jewish communism and White genocide. The Jews took their original sin hokum, and are now peddling it as "The Original Sin Of Being Born With White Skin" for which all White People must repent and embrace the Jewish salvation of enforced race mixing and open borders in the name of White Guilt. Why? Because Jews said so, that's why. That's always been why.

This anti-White narrative is nothing new. It's all that Christianity has ever been from the start; telling Europeans that all of their Pagan ancestors are burning in the "Hell" of a Jewish god for being Racist [following the Race Religion of the Aryans], and that they must repent for being White and for their natural White identity, embrace a Jewish man from ancient Judea as their Master and god, and become part of an alien, anti-White cultural identity of the Jewish promoted, universal, radical egalitarian, multi-racial brotherhood of man. What's really changed in all these centuries? It's the same old Jewish games with different names.
