

"Fame"

Postby HP. Hoodedcobra666 » Tue Jul 31, 2018 11:44 pm

There are some people who just complain all the time about 'fame' and consider it a very important factor in things such as world domination or enlightening the world.

It matters, but it's not everything. It's definitely far from being the most important thing in changing the world in it's current state.

"Why the JoS doesn't have 10,000,000 members?".

But I will tell you the real reason. I have witnessed myself the Gods wipe out the minds of humans overnight, in ways that are impossible to be done by any natural means. They have power over humanity, and they can unscrew any human in a matter of seconds. They can turn anyone they want to 'their side', but they just do not care to attract anyone on this planet as it's not necessary. This would only hamper the progress of their work which is to find people who by their own understanding and free will, decide to undertake the Great Work.

However as you can see, they have done tremendous work globally to open the roads to knowledge for all human beings. Even in the most remote villages, you can find the way now. This process is not finalized yet, but we are in a very good way. In other words, one can exit the jewtrix if they want it really much, and they will draw this upon themselves.

Those who are capable spirituality are a minority on this planet. And rare souls. Yet any such people would be serious allies to the Gods and people worth investing time into.

The enemy keeps telling people that "fame" has to do with power in many ways. But this is not the only way to power. And power is not decided through this in the world.

All the people that run the world, most people have never heard of them. And this is not about Merkel. These are just people the average person has seldom heard about in their life. For example, how many people know Mario Draghi who is the deciding factor for every bill-note in Europe? This is one example. These people that run the world appear almost nowhere. The more you go into what really runs the world, you do not see anything.

Also, all the people who are the heads of the European Jew-nion, none of these are elected. Fame is irrelevant to this. They are hand-picks of higher authorities of which, nobody even has awareness. The 5 jews of Europe decide more than all the parliaments of Europe combined. The drunkard Juncker, the hag Merkel, the vampire Draghi, the creep Schulz, these people influence the EU more than all the parliaments combined.

Meanwhile, we have "Democracy" they tell the goyim. And don't forget your vote counts. It counts yet, unfortunately for the jews, but they are doing everything they can to make this null and void. At this point any elected party doesn't really matter to any measurable extent.

Now take Kim Kardashian, the fake jew queen. 115 million followers, or in other words, 1/3rd of Americans just focuses on two fake jewish pieces of meat.

George Soros, Elder of Zion, has been shaping this planet for like decades. "Fame" factor, 9k followers. Or let's say less than an average size mall in any developed town.

I do not think however her ass controls the universe, however this rotting jew is actually deciding the fate of nations. And this is one very, very famous jew, especially because many people focus on him as if he were some particular foot soldier in the enemy's work. But he is too, just a pawn in a giant chess game.

The people of the surface may have fame, and obvious power, but they do not have any base power in themselves. Also, who would be 'imaginative' enough to assume that some old, rotting Rabbis from Israel literally run the planet through phonecalls? All the way up from the Kabbalists? How many people have heard about such people in their life? Of course to them it sounds all as a conspiracy theory.

these people run the planet and have been running it for centuries.

Do you know any of their names?

The other question, will anyone ever know they exist at all?

Push came to shove only lately. And still many so called "awake" of these people like Pagans, WN'ists and Nationalists, just deny that these old people have any power whatsoever.

Eventhough it's proven they visit someone in an office, like the leader of the planet such as what they did to Bush. And get him to change the world's policy the next day.

Kim Kardashian cannot change the world nor Michael Jackson did. However these old, seemingly weak fucks, do indeed control the planet, until now, and for centuries, to a full extent.

"Fame" has to be reconsidered. What matters is doing influential acts. There are acts that any of you can do which exact more influence to this world than if you were mayors in big cities at this point. These powers are granted by Satan to turn the situation around, and they are doing this everyday.

So we keep doing these and we will triumph:
